City Announces Official Launch of Focal Point Community Campus Development

By: Ashmar Mandou

A pool of community leaders gathered on the Southwest side on October 18th to announce the official launch of the Focal Point Community Campus development. Hundreds of civic leaders and community members stood together to commemorate the upcoming land acquisition from the City of Chicago while neighbors excitedly held signs that were adorned with lettering that read, "This Land is Our Land."

"Focal Point will provide a central gathering place for residents of North Lawndale, Little Village, and Back of the Yards to have the kinds of services and opportunities so important to creating economically vibrant communities," said Mayor

Rahm Emanuel. The Focal Point Community Campus will bring resources to more than 400,000 residents of the Lawndale, is a 1 million square foot complex that will be replete with a collection of retail, wellness, education, arts, and recreational services.

Little Village, Pilsen, Brighton Park, Back of the Yards, and Archer Heights neighborhoods. Focal Point Community Campus

At the gathering, leaders summarized how the development will provide career opportunities for the area including: 3,500 construction jobs, 400 new jobs, 500 new jobs for the retail, and approximately 400 new jobs in education, recreation, hospitality, and childcare operations. The new Focal Point Community Campus will feature:

La Ciudad Anuncia Oficialmente el Inicio de la Construcción de Focal Point Community Campus

Por: Ashmar Mandou

Un grupo de líderes comunitarios se reunieron el 18 de octubre en el Sudoeste de Chicago para anunciar el lanzamiento oficial de la construcción de Focal Point Community Campus. Cientos de líderes cívicos y miembros de la comunidad se reunieron para conmemorar la próxima adquisición de terreno de la Ciudad de Chicago mientras los vecinos portaban entusiasmados letreros con las palabras “Esta Tierra es Nuestra Tierra”.

“Focal Point ofrecerá un lugar de reunión para los residentes de North Lawndale, La Villita y Back of the Yards, para que tengan los servicios y oportunidades tan importantes para crear comunidades económicamente vibrantes”, dijo el Alcalde Rahm Emanuel. Focal Point Community Campus llevará recursos a más de 400,000 residentes de los barrios de Lawndale, La Villita, Pilsen, Brighton Park, Back of the Yards y Archer Heights. Focal Point Community Campus es un complejo, de un millón de metros cuadrados, lleno de comercios y servicios recreativos, de bienestar, educación y arte.

En la reunión, los líderes resumieron como el centro ofrecerá oportunidades de carrera en el área, incluyendo: 3,500 trabajos de construcción, 400 nuevos empleos, 500 nuevos empleos para las tiendas y aproximadamente 400 nuevos empleos en educación, recreación, hospitales y operaciones de cuidado infantil. El nuevo Focal Point Community Campus ofrece:

- Fuertes inquilinos minoritarios, brindando a la comunidad acceso a comida, ropa y artículos para el hogar.
- Un nuevo Hospital St. Anthony, que continuará brindando servicios médicos y de emergencia sin importar si puede pagar o no.
- Un centro educativo con gran variedad de oportunidades educativas, incluyendo una escuela charter y una escuela vocacional, por nombrar algunas.

“National Latino Education Institute es un entusiasmado socio de esta urbanización. Cuando el centro vocacional Washburn Trade School desapareció, se llevó consigo el instrumento que brindaba educación en trabajos para nuestra comunidad”, dijo Elba Aranda-Suh, directora ejecutiva de National Latino Education Institute. “Ahora, nuestra nueva escuela vocacional y la variedad de programas y servicios que ofrecerá en Focal Point, equipará a nuestra comunidad con los instrumentos necesarios para avanzar en educación y revitalizar los barrios circunvecinos con entrenamiento de trabajo y crecimiento en empleos”. Chicago Southwest

Development Corporations dirige la construcción. Para más información, visite

Delgado helping to 'Bridge The Gap'

Senator William Delgado (D-Chicago) joined U.S. Senator Dick Durbin and U.S. Representative Danny K. Davis at the UIC forum in Chicago to discuss disparities in health care access in Illinois. Bridging the Gap: Emerging Health Issues in Underrepresented Minorities was hosted by the University of Illinois Hospital & Health Sciences System. "It's extremely important that every individual in Illinois has access to health care, regardless of who he or she is or where he or she comes from," Delgado said. "We have to take any and every opportunity to keep addressing this issue and continue the discussion."

Delgado has long been acknowledged as a leading voice for providing health care in under serviced communities. Throughout his time in the legislature, Delgado has fought to ensure that all residents of Illinois receive access to adequate health care. As the former Chair of the Public Health Committee and part of working groups through which he fought to restore short sighted health care cuts and expand services to underserved populations. Delgado discussed measures the General Assembly has passed to expand healthcare access in Illinois for minorities and low income households.

"Es sumamente importante que toda persona de Illinois tenga acceso a atención de salud, sin importar quien es o de donde viene", dijo Delgado "Tenemos que aprovechar toda oportunidad para atender este problema y continuar el debate".

Delgado ha

sido por mucho tiempo reconocido como la voz líder en proveer cuidado de salud en comunidades marginadas. Durante su legislatura, Delgado ha luchado por garantizar que todos los residentes de Illinois tienen acceso a un cuidado de salud adecuado. Como ex-

Director del Comité de Salud Pública y parte de grupos de trabajadores, a través de los cuales ha luchado por restaurar los inadecuados cortes en cuidado de salud y ampliar los servicios a poblaciones marginadas, Delgado discutió las medidas que la Asamblea General ha aprobado para ampliar el acceso al cuidado de salud en Illinois, para minorías y familias de bajos ingresos.

You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on this property.

vitamins, minerals and proteins that make up a complete carbohydrate," he says. "Our bodies can't use that, so the cells in our digestive organs work overtime, burning up a lot of energy, vitamins and minerals to digest it, and they get nothing back. So, eventually, they grow weak." So – can we have a little sugar, and good health, too? Dr. Young says we can. "The occasional slice of pumpkin pie is fine as long as you're also feeding your cells with the nutrients they need – the minerals, vitamins, good quality protein, amino acids, essential fatty acids – to stay healthy." He offers these tips for staying healthy through the holidays and throughout the year.

• Get your vitamin D! Vitamin D is actually a hormone, not a vitamin, and one of our best sources for it is sunshine. Unfortunately, many people work indoors all day, so they get little sun exposure. When they do go outside, they wear long sleeves and sunblock to protect against skin cancer. And, of course, in the wintertime, people in cold climates tend to stay inside. As a result, many of us are vitamin D deficient, and should be taking supplements.

• Eat your protein – 1 gram for every 2.2 pounds of body weight daily. In this country, we think a healthy diet means eating a lot of fruits and vegetables. We've forgotten protein, Dr. Young says. "Our immune system is made up of proteins – our bones are 40 percent protein," he says. "We need protein." When calculating your protein intake, consider: an egg has about 8 grams, and 8 ounces of fish, chicken, beef or pork have about 30 grams.

• Get a good night's sleep, exercise, and manage your stress. Yup, some doctors' orders never change. Rest, exercise and finding effective, healthy ways to cope with stress are simple ways to pamper your cells. "One of the many cellular benefits of exercise is that it increases the oxygen in our bloodstream. Every cell in our body requires oxygen, so consider exercise another means of feeding your cells." It's also important to manage stress during the holidays. With unchecked stress, our body releases large amounts of cortisol which, among other things, suppresses the immune system.

Have You Had Your Yearly Mammogram?

Breast cancer is the second leading cause of cancer death in women, exceeded only by lung cancer. This year, it is expected that nearly 40-thousand women will die from this disease. In the United States, nearly five African American women die needlessly each day from breast cancer.

The sooner you catch it, the sooner you can treat it. Routine well check-ups, self-breast exams and annual mammograms all play a key role in the early detection of breast cancer. If you are a woman age 40 years or older, or have a family history of breast cancer, it is recommended that you get a yearly mammogram. Mammograms are safe and can find up to 90-percent of all breast cancers.

As with many other diseases, if you take charge of your health and partner with your physician you can experience better health outcomes. Knowledge is power. The more you know and understand about breast cancer, the greater your chances to lower your risk of getting the disease. Throughout the month of October, Loretto Hospital is offering $50 mammograms to qualified individuals. Don't take any chances. Take charge of your health and get tested today. Remember, detecting breast cancer early can save your life.

Mujeres de Chicago Actúan Antes de las Elecciones

Por: Nikoleta Morales

El 18 de octubre, mujeres de Chicago de diferentes organizaciones se reunieron en Cornerstone Center en el 1111 N. Wells St., para hablar, discutir y compartir ideas sobre temas femeninos. Chicago Women Take Action (CWTA) reunió a más de 15 organizaciones femeninas, redes informales y personas, para en forma colectiva forjar una Agenda de la Mujer de Chicago — una guía para una acción cívica y electoral.

“No quisimos convertirlo en otro foro. Tuvimos la idea y llegamos a 2500 grupos de mujeres y aproximadamente 20 grupos dijeron que es muy interesante. Reunimos esta asamblea en literalmente ocho semanas”, dijo la activista y cofundadora de CWTA Marilyn Katz.

Para garantizar un debate informado y de amplio rango, CWTA creó una red, por medio de la cual individuos y organizaciones pueden inscribirse y someter ‘tablones’ para la agenda. Las ideas enviadas fueron expuestas al grupo de refinamiento, discusión y votos en la asamblea, para forjar una agenda que servirá de marco a una acción conjunta entre los varios grupos, así como de guía para la mujer cuando tome una decisión en las próximas elecciones.

“Las mujeres deberían pensar sobre estos temas cuando juzgan a los candidatos. Quisimos convertirnos en la norma para que la mujer juzgue a corporaciones y gobernantes”, dijo Katz. Algunos de los temas discutidos en el evento fueron ambiente, finanzas, educación, violencia sexual, salario mínimo, etc.

“En mi comunidad hay madres solteras y están criando a sus hijos en una comunidad violenta. Veo muchas mujeres luchando porque los hombres no se involucran con sus familias”, dijo la feminista de 17 años, Ydsena Gutiérrez, de La Villita,

Chicago Women Take Action Before Elections

By: Nikoleta Morales

On October 18th, Chicago women from different organizations gathered at the Cornerstone Center, at 1111 N. Wells St., to talk about, discuss and share ideas about women issues. Chicago Women Take Action (CWTA) brought together more than 15 diverse women's organizations, informal networks and individuals to collectively forge a Chicago Women's Agenda – a guide to civic and electoral action.

"We didn't want to turn into another forum. We came up with this idea and reached out to 2500 women's groups and about 20 groups said this is very interesting. We put together this assembly in literally eight weeks," said longtime activist and co-founder of CWTA Marilyn Katz.

To ensure both an informed and wide-ranging discussion, CWTA created a website through which individuals and organizations can quien asistió al evento de CWTA como estudiante de Global Media y cuyo sueño es llegar a ser dentista.

Mujeres Latinas en Acción es una de las afiliadas de CWTA y aunque, de acuerdo a Katz, no hicieron el evento, tienen una potente voz cuando se trata de mujeres en la comunidad latina. "Llegaron un poco tarde al juego, pero jugaron una parte integral. Lo que hacen para dar poder a la mujer latina es sumamente importante", dijo Katz. both register and submit 'planks' for the agenda. The ideas submitted were put to group refinement, discussion and votes at the assembly, to forge an agenda that will serve as a framework for potential joint action among the varied groups as well as serving as a guide for women when making decisions in upcoming elections.

"Women should think about these issues when judging the candidates. We wanted to become the standard in which women judge corporations and governors," said Katz. Some of the issues discussed at the event were environment, finances, education, sexual violence, minimum wage, etc.

"In my community there are single mothers and they are raising children alone in a violent community.

I see a lot of women struggling because men are not involved in their families," said 17 year old feminist Ydsena Gutierrez from Little Village, who attended the CWTA event as a student of Global Media and whose dream is to become a dentist.

Mujeres Latinas en Acción is one of CWTA's partners and even though according to Katz didn't make the event, they have a strong voice when it comes to women in the Latin community. "They came a little late to the game but played an integral part. What they do in the empowerment of [Latin] women is critically important," said Katz. ¿Se Practicó Ya Su Mamograma Anual?

El cáncer de mama es la segunda causa de muerte entre las mujeres, sobrepasada solo por el cáncer pulmonar. Este año se espera que cerca de 40 mil mujeres mueran de esta enfermedad. En Estados Unidos, cerca de cinco mujeres afroamericanas mueren innecesariamente todos los días de cáncer de mama.

Mientras más pronto lo detecte más fácil será tratarlo. Revisiones de rutina, un autoexamen del seno y mamogramas anuales son punto clave en la pronta detección del cáncer de mama. Si usted es una mujer de más de 40 años o mayor, o tiene un historial familiar de cáncer de mama, se recomienda que se haga un mamograma al año. Los mamogramas son seguros y puede detectar hasta el 90 por ciento de todos los cánceres de mama.

Como con otras enfermedades, si se ocupa de su salud y se asocia con su doctor puede experimentar mejores resultados. El conocimiento es el poder. Mientras más sepa y entienda sobre el cáncer de mama, menos probabilidades tendrá de padecerlo. Durante el mes de octubre, el Hospital Loretto ofrece mamogramas a $50, a personas calificadas. No corra riesgos. Cuide su salud y hágase la prueba hoy. Recuerde, detectar el cáncer de mama en las primeras etapas puede salvarle la vida. Para ver si califica y para programar una cita, llame Diagnostic Imaging Department del Hospital Loretto al 773-854-5233.

Germinación de Líderes en la Comunidad

Por: Laura Rodríguez

Sprouting Leaders Foundation comenzó como un programa de extensión tutorial colegial, compuesto de estudiantes voluntarios de la Universidad de Illinois en Chicago en el 2012, en la Escuela Elemental Daniel J. Corkery de la Villita. Hoy en día, la organización estudiantil es oficialmente reconocida como de beneficencia pública y espera ampliar su obra a otras escuelas de bajos ingresos del área.

“Con todo lo que tenemos que hacer, queremos grabar en la mente de los jóvenes que la educación es la clave del éxito”, dijo Raúl Rosas, Fundador y Presidente de la organización.

La fundación ‘está dedicada a la superación profesional y académica de la juventud marginada de Chicago vinculando tutores universitarios con estudiantes de escuelas elementales y secundarias’. Está enfocada en su programa de tutoría para después de la escuela el lunes y el miércoles, de 3 p.m. a 5 p.m., cuando los tutores ayudan a los niños con sus tareas; participan en el programa de matemáticas y lectura o simplemente están con los niños.

“La meta principal es motivar a los niños a que se entusiasmen con la universidad y establecer relaciones saludables con alguien con quien puedan compaginar”, dijo María Teresa Vargas, Directora de Relaciones de Voluntarios del programa.

Sprouting Leaders Foundation tiene también durante el año, como Estuches de Útiles de Regreso a la Escuela a principios de septiembre, donde más de 150 estudiantes reciben útiles escolares.

“[SLF] motiva a nuestros hijos, no solo los cuida, sino que les ayuda a darse cuenta de que la escuela es muy importante y que no se compone solamente de las cuatro paredes de su salón de clases, sino de toda la gente que les rodea”, dijo Rosalía Flores, madres de un estudiante de Corkery Elementary School.

Los tutores ofrecen guía, desarrollo de liderazgo y promueven la educación superior. Su misión se basa en investigaciones que prueban que los jóvenes que han tenido tutoría tienen mejor asistencia en la escuela, mejores oportunidades de ir a la universidad y una mejor autoestima. Estamos haciendo germinar líderes en nuestra comunidad”, agregó Rosas.

'Not one more victim'

By: Ashmar Mandou

"Not one more victim," chanted community members on October 18th during Mujeres Latinas en Acción's annual march against domestic violence.

Rain did not deter the crowd made up of families who carried posters and waved banners bringing attention around the issue of domestic violence in Chicago. According to Mujeres Latinas en Acción, one in four women and one in seven men have been the victim of severe physical violence by an intimate partner in their lifetime.

Throughout Pilsen, staff, volunteers, community members, survivors of domestic violence, and representatives from Mujeres Latinas en Acción walked through the neighborhood chanting and called upon help from fellow residents. When it comes to domestic violence Latinas face several obstacles, such as

'Ni Una Víctima Más'

"Ni una víctima más" canturreaban los miembros de la comunidad el 18 de octubre, en la marcha anual de Mujeres Latinas en Acción contra la violencia doméstica.

La lluvia no impidió que la multitud, compuesta de familias llevara carteles y ondeara banderolas para llamar la atención sobre el problema de la violencia doméstica en Chicago. De acuerdo a Mujeres Latinas en Acción, una de cada cuatro mujeres y uno de cada siete hombres han sido, durante su vida, víctimas de severa violencia física a manos de alguna pareja íntima.

En Pilsen, personal, voluntarios, miembros de la comunidad, sobrevivientes de violencia doméstica y representantes de Mujeres Latinas en Acción caminaron por el barrio canturreando y pidiendo ayuda de los residentes. Cuando se trata de violencia doméstica la mujer latina enfrenta varios obstáculos, como el temor a la deportación, el aislamiento social, la mala información y la falta de conocimiento sobre los derechos legales y la

La marcha comenzó en Harrison Park y concluyó frente a la oficina de Mujeres Latinas en Acción, donde los manifestantes soltaron globos para significar el fin de la violencia doméstica. La misión de Mujeres Latinas en Acción es concientizar sobre el problema de la violencia doméstica y pedir a Chicago que haga algo. The march began at Harrison Park and concluded in front of

Community Leaders Launch Campaign to Transform Arts Education

Mayor Rahm Emanuel, Board of Education President David Vitale and Chicago Public Schools CEO Barbara Byrd-Bennett Tuesday announced a $38 million arts education funding campaign fueled by private donations from the city's business, community, cultural and philanthropic leaders. "Be Creative: The Campaign for Creative Schools," already has raised $11 million toward its goal. The private investment will ensure full implementation of the first-ever CPS Arts Education Plan, unveiled two years ago. The private fund would be a transitional step, serving as a bridge to eventual public funding of the full Arts Education plan in the 2018-2019 school year.

The funds raised by the campaign will pay for putting essential classroom materials in the hands of students and teachers, such as musical instruments, cameras and scripts. It provides greater access for teachers and students to Chicago's wide array of cultural institutions large and small, in every corner of the city. The funds also will pay for new assessment systems to track student learning in the arts, and better data collection to determine where investments make the greatest difference and where progress needs to be made. For more information about the Campaign for Creative Schools, including a current list of donors, please visit www.becreativechicago.org.

Líderes Comunitarios Lanzas Campaña Para Transformar la Educación del Arte

El Alcalde Rahm Emanuel, el Presidente de la Junta de Educación, David Vitale y la CEO de las Escuelas Públicas de Chicago, Barbara Byrd-Bennet, anunciaron el martes una campaña de fondos para la educación del arte, de $38 millones, alimentada por donaciones privadas del comercio, la comunidad, y líderes filantrópicos de la ciudad. Se Creativo: La Campaña para Escuelas Creativas", ya ha recaudado $11 millones hacia su meta. La inversión privada garantizará la implementación total del primer Plan de Educación de Arte de CPS, develado hace dos años. El fondo privado sería un paso transicional, que serviría como puente a fondos públicos eventuales del plan completo de Educación de Arte, en el año escolar 2018-2019.

Los fondos recaudados por la campaña pagarán por materiales esenciales del salón de clase en manos de estudiantes y maestros, como instrumentos musicales, cámaras y guiones. Provee un mayor acceso a maestros y estudiantes a la amplia variedad de instituciones, grandes y pequeñas de Chicago, en cada esquina de la ciudad. Los fondos pagarán también por nuevos sistemas de evaluación, para seguir el aprendizaje del estudiante en las artes y una mejor colección de datos para determinar donde la inversión hace la mayor diferencia y donde se necesita progreso. Para más información sobre la Campaña pro Escuelas Creativas, incluyendo la lista actual de donantes, visite www.becreativechicago.org.
