Jesus"Chuy"Garcia:

'I think the prospects to go all the way are very much in reach'

By: Ashmar Mandou

Cook County Commissioner Chuy Garcia is ecstatic to know he has a large group of residents across Chicago that has his vote as he is days away from the February 24th elections. "We are receiving a big lift and we are engaged with people all over Chicago," said Mayoral Candidate Chuy Garcia, who phoned the Lawndale Bilingual Newspaper Wednesday morning to answer a few of our questions. "We certainly hit the ground running and were able to set up eight offices across the city just based on the amount of volunteers who were willing to help since day one. So to see the outpouring of support has exceeded my wildest expectations." With just six days away till election, Garcia is canvassing every neighborhood and attending every forum to bring his message to the masses in hopes to have a runoff against Mayor Rahm Emanuel. "I think the prospects to go all the way are very much in reach," said Garcia. Garcia answered a few of our questions prior to Election Day.

Bilingual Lawndale Many Newspaper: parents are left at a loss for words when dealing with their child's education and the lack of school options. Many aldermanic candidates have proposed to bring trade schools to their respective wards. How would you work with Chicago Public School officials and parents to ensure better options for their child's education?

Chuy Garcia: I think that part of the solution to parents desire to have their children get into enrollment selective schools, many who become desperate with the lack of offering in Chicago Public Schools, turn to charters and their marketing and advertising as a way to secure their children a better offering of education opportunity. I think we need to invest in better schools. In high schools, for example, being able to offer advance placement courses at more schools is one way. Offering dual language and enrichment programs that will instill confidence for parents and students is another solution, too. The older reliance on selective enrollment and proliferation of charters for alternatives is not sufficient. Also, to create an overall sense that the community is improving and that the neighborhood is safer. We need to make those investments to give a sense to families that neighborhoods are changing and are safer so that they stay. That is the key for growth. That is the key to Chicago's population. We need grow the city's to population; we have the capacity to grow. By doing so, we attract companies that will invest in those neighborhoods, therefore offering more job opportunities which will in turn stabilize the neighborhood.

Bilingual Lawndale Newspaper: How would you facilitate a conversation among the aldermen of the city to end the misuse of TIF spending so that neighborhoods, such as Humboldt Park, Hermosa, and Back-ofthe-Yards see additional resources?

Chuy Garcia: TIF Funding has run amuck. Since it was created, the original intent has been lost. TIF initiatives were to make development where possible the conditions were very challenging. TIF funding should be targeted to make development occur in hard to develop areas. Instead, it has become a form of corporate subsidies and corporate welfare. We shouldn't be giving TIF subsidies to a company that is in downtown relocating just a few blocks over. We shouldn't be giving TIF funding to the Marriot chain. All that is to say, I would reduce the scope of the use of TIF. I would close districts that have already achieved their projects and, of course, I would redirect the investment of TIF dollars into our neighborhoods. I also want to reduce the overall amount of tax increment financing because, after all, we are taking the increment from taxing bodies, such as the Chicago Park District and other taxing districts and there is a public cost to doing that. So we cannot continue to do that because it's a money generator, it cannot be the city's only economic development tool. I would strategically TIF funds create jobs that make neighborhoods more livable, invest in projects that spark additional spin off activities in neighborhoods, and create more affordable housing. Those are the new priorities that we need to undertake as we move forward.

Lawndale Bilingual Newspaper: How do you propose the city curbs violence and reinstate a level of trust between city resident and police officer?

Chuy Garcia: We need to expand the practice of restorative justice, especially among youth to resolve conflicts among youth; to teach young people about conflict resolution and to teach peacemaking. The community needs to be at the center, which will then create community fabric. My proposal to hire an additional 1,000 police men and women is to engage in real community policing. We have gotten away with the concept of community policing and it urgently needs to be restored. I think in the aftermath of Ferguson and New York it really emphasized the need to establish more community, greater trust, and mutual respect between community residents and the police. Officers say that the over time that is being spent to the tune of about $100 million a year is not being spent well because they are taking officers, who have already worked a shift, and placing them in communities that are not familiar. Again, that underscores just how out of touch the concept of community policing is. We need to give our officers the tools to better communicate with the residents and restore a sense of trust. ## Jesus "Chuy" García:

Creo que las Perspectivas Para Llegar al Final Están a Nuestro Alcance

Por: Ashmar Mandou

El Comisionado del Condado de Cook, Chuy García, está encantado de saber que tiene un gran grupo de residentes de Chicago que lo apoyan con su voto cuando todavía faltan días para las elecciones del 24 de febrero. "Estamos recibiendo un gran apoyo y estamos comprometidos con la gente de todo Chicago", dijo el Candidato a la Alcaldía, Chuy García, quien telefoneó al Lawndale Bilingual Newspaper el miércoles en la mañana, para responder unas cuantas de nuestras preguntas. "Ciertamente trabajamos mucho y pudimos poner ocho oficinas en la ciudad en base a la cantidad de voluntarios que estaban dispuestos a ayudar desde el primer día. Y ver las grandes muestras de apoyo ha excedido todas mis expectativas. A solo seis días para las elecciones, García está recorriendo cada barrio y asistiendo a cada foro para llevar su mensaje a las masas en espera de ganar al Alcalde Rahm Emanuel. "Creo que las perspectivas para llegar al final están a nuestro alcance", dijo García. García respondió unas cuantas de nuestras preguntas antes del Día de Elecciones.

Lawndale Bilingual Newspaper: Muchos padres no encuentran las palabras necesarias para tratar la educación de sus hijos y la falta de opciones escolares. Muchos candidatos a concejales han propuesto llevar escuelas vocacionales a sus respectivos distritos. ¿Cómo trabajaría usted con los funcionarios y padres de las Escuelas Públicas de Chicago para garantizar mejores opciones para la educación de sus hijos?

Chuy García: Creo que parte de la solución al deseo que los padres de tener a sus hijos en escuelas de inscripción selectiva, de muchos que se desesperan por la falta de ofrecimiento de las Escuelas Públicas de Chicago voltean a las escuelas charters y a su mercadeo y propaganda como una forma de asegurar que sus hijos tienen una mejor oportunidad de educación. Creo que necesitamos invertir en mejores escuelas. En secundarias, por ejemplo, que puedan ofrecer cursos de colocación avanzados en más escuelas. Ofrecer programas de enriquecimiento y lenguaje dual que infiltren confianza a los padres y estudiantes, es otra solución. La antigua dependencia en la inscripción selectiva y la proliferación de escuelas charter como alternativas no es suficiente. También el crear una sensación general de que la comunidad está mejorando y que el barrio es más seguro. Necesitamos hacer todas esas inversiones para hacer sentir a las familias que los barrios están cambiando y que son más seguros, para que se queden en ellos. Esa es la clave del crecimiento. Esa es la clave para la población de Chicago.

Necesitamos hacer crecer la población de la ciudad; tenemos la capacidad de crecer. Haciéndolo atraemos compañías que inviertan en esos barrios y por lo tanto ofrezcan más oportunidades de trabajo, que a su vez estabilizarán el barrio.

para terminar el mal
uso de los gastos del
TIF para que barrios
como Humboldt Park,
Hermosa y Back-of-theYards tengan recursos

Chuy García: Los fondos del TIF se han acabado. Desde que fueron creados, el intento original se ha perdido. Las iniciativas TIF eran para hacer desarrollos posibles donde las condiciones eran críticas. Los fondos del TIF deberían haberse

Imerman Angels Offers Support to Cancer Fighters

By: Ashmar Mandou

The American Cancer Society states that one in two Hispanic men and one in three Hispanic women will be diagnosed with cancer in their lifetime.

"Hispanics are the largest and fastest-growing minority group in the U.S. Over 100,000 new cases of cancer will be diagnosed this year, making cancer the leading cause of death among U.S. Hispanics," said Hector Nuñez, chief operating officer for Imerman Angels. "What we want the Hispanic community to know is that we are here to help in whatever way we can."

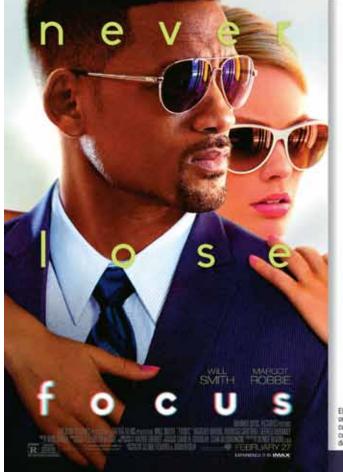

Imerman Angels is a global not-for-profit organization based in Chicago that individually pairs a person touched by cancer, with a cancer fighter or cancer survivor, with someone who has fought and survived the same type of cancer, referred to as a Mentor Angel. Nuñez, who is a cancer survivor himself, knows the value of having a support team to guide you through the toughest of times. Especially, the value it holds for the Hispanic community. Prior to receiving recent funding, Imerman Angels was unable to provide services for the Spanish-speaking community.

Fortunately, that has changed. Due to Imerman Angels recent boost in funding, they were able to hire on Christina Benaiges as their first bilingual Cancer Support Specialist. Benaiges, whose mother and grandmother are both breast cancer survivors, has a profound emotional connection to the work Imerman Angels has provided for cancer fighters.

"People diagnosed with cancer already have so much on their plate; so we at Imerman Angels make sure to provide the upmost care and attention to our clients. We make sure to pair a cancer fighter with the right Mentor Angel so that they have that support team," said Benaiges. "Family is such an important aspect of the cancer fight for the Hispanic community and we know our personalized connections will be a welcome extension of that family dynamic."

Imerman Angels Ofrece Apoyo a Quienes Luchan Contra el Cáncer

Por Ashmar Mandou

La Sociedad Estadounidense del Cáncer declara que uno de cada dos hombres hispanos y una de cada tres mujeres hispanas serán diagnosticados con cáncer a lo largo de su vida.

"Los hispanos son el grupo minoritario más grande y de más rápido crecimiento en E.U. Más de 100,000 nuevos casos de cáncer serán diagnosticados este año, haciendo del cáncer la causa principal de muerte entre los hispanos de E.U.", dijo Héctor Núñez, funcionario de operaciones en jefe de Imerman Angels. "Lo que queremos que la comunidad hispana sepa, es que estamos aquí para ayudarles en la forma que podamos".

Imerman Angels una organización mundial, no lucrativa, con base en Chicago, que individualmente conecta a una persona diagnosticada con cáncer con una persona que lucha contra el cáncer o con un sobreviviente del cáncer o con álguien que ha combatido y sobrevivido el mismo tipo de cáncer, al que se refieren como el Angel Mentor. Núñez, quien es así mismo sobreviviente de cáncer, sabe lo que vale tener un equipo de apoyo para guiarle en uno de los momentos más dificiles. Especialmente, el valor que representa para la comunidad hispana. Antes de recibir sus fondos recientes, Imerman Angels no podía ofrecer sus servicios a la comunidad hispana. Afortunadamente. eso ha cambiado. Gracias a un aumento de fondos, Imerman Angels pudo contratar a Christina Benaiges como su primera Especialista Bilingüe de Apoyo al Cáncer. Benaiges, cuya madre y abuela son sobrevivientes del cáncer de mama, tiene una profunda conexión emocional con el trabajo que Imerman Angels ha brindado a quienes luchan contra esta enfermedad.

"La gente diagnosticada con cancer tiene bastante con eso; Imerman Angels se asegura de ofrecer el mejor cuidado y atención a sus clientes. Nos aseguramos de conectar a una persona que lucha contra el cáncer con un Angel Mentor adecuado, para que tenga el equipo de apoyo que necesita", dijo Benaiges. "La familia es un aspecto muy importante de la lucha contra el cáncer para la comunidad hispana y sabemos que nuestras conexiones personalizadas serán una extensión bien recibida en la dinámica familiar.

Imerman Angels ofrecerá su tercer evento Spring Blue & White Party celebrando el éxito del 2014, el jueves, 5 de marzo, en John Barleycorn River North. ### Veterans Get New Home in Humboldt Park

By: Ashmar Mandou

Members of the 65th Infantry Regiment "Borinqueneers" joined Mayor Rahm Emanuel, Alderman Roberto Maldonado, Hispanic Housing Development Corporation (HHDC) President and CEO Hipolito "Paul" Roldan, and President of Norwegian American Hospital Jose Sanchez on February 12th to kick off HHDC's 40th anniversary by breaking ground on a new housing development for veterans living in the Northwest area of Chicago to be named the 65th Infantry

Regiment "Borinqueneers"

Veterans Housing.

"The 65th Infantry Regiment "Borinqueneers" is created by my friend Paul Roldan," said Ald. Maldonado at the press gathering. "I have never met such a steadfast determination, courage, and resolve in making this project a reality. I applaud his vision and I am fortunate to be part of this process to provide this home to our veterans."

The latest development by HHDC will be built on land donated to them by Norwegian American Hospital and will provide low-income veterans with the opportunity to live in a space with environmental green amenities and onsite access to supportive services, such mental health services, employment training and education programming to ensure a healthy quality of life. In addition, the new construction will be a fourstory, 49-unit building, adjacent to Norwegian American Hospital, which will provide onsite support and part-time clinical counselor, said Sanchez. According to the HHDC, about 38 of the 49 units available will be for veterans whose incomes range up to 60 percent of the area median income, while 10 units will be for veterans at or below 30 percent of the area median income. One unit will be set aside for the on-site

manager's apartment.

"There are veterans in the city of Chicago without shelter. There are veterans without service, but when we needed them they answered the call," said Mayor Emanuel. "This time next year every veteran in the city of Chicago will no longer call below Wacker home."

The new housing is named the 65th Infantry Regiment "Boringueneers" Veterans Housing after the military unit which has fought in every war since Spanish-American War of 1898. In July of last year, the 65th Infantry Regiment was awarded a Congressional Gold Medal, approved by Congress and President Obama.

"This is a great way to pay our respects to the members of the "Boringueneers," who have sacrificed their lives for this country," said Roldan.

Gift of Hope Sets Record in Number of Lives Saved

February 14th was National Donor Day. To celebrate, Gift of Hope Organ & Tissue Donor Network announced a record number of lives saved by helping 334 donors and their families donate 1,020 organs to patients waiting for a transplant, giving them a second chance at life last year.

Despite this accomplishment, shortage of donated organs remains critical. More than 5,200 Illinoisans currently are waiting for transplants, and the gap between the number of people waiting and available organs continues to widen. That is why today Gift of Hope invites the community to become organ and tissue

Today, Hispanics are more receptive to Gift of Hope's message about registering to become organ donors and making this matter an everyday and friends. Consequently, conversation among family the organization has raised the bar on programs and services to continue educating, inspiring and addressing their sensitive needs with initiatives such as; Scholarships for Hope, Stories for Hope and Mission Smile for Hope. It is also important to emphasize the legislative accomplishments that have brought a positive impact to the area of organ and tissue donation in Illinois, like the signing of SB0741, the alignment of Medicare and Medicaid services, which would allow some excluded patients, a greater access to transplants, and the passing of SB0957, which allows thousands of undocumented driver's to register as donors when they apply for their temporary driver's licenses.

LULAC of Illinois celebrated the 86th Anniversary of LULAC's existence and the opening of the new LULAC State Office in Cicero. A dedicated "National LU-LAC Day" on Education & Civil Rights. Representatives from state government & LULAC of IL members participated in the opening. State Rep Lisa Hernandez, Keynote Speaker Marty Castro, President, Castro Synergies, Chairman, US Office of Civil Rights Commission, Marcos Peterson, Director Hispanic Affairs for the Office of the Governor; Jose J. Lopez, IL State Director; Blanca Vargas, IL State Deputy Director; Maggie Rivera, LULAC National Treasurer; Clelia Ferro, Center Manager, Workforce Center/SERCO/SER Jobs for Progress.

canalizado para hacer urbanizaciones en áreas dificil de urbanizar. En vez de ello se convirtieron en una forma de subsidios corporativos y bienestar cooperativo. No deberíamos estar dando subsidios TIF a una compañía que está en el centro de Chicago solo para reubicarla a unas cuadras de distancia. No deberíamos estar dando fondos TIF a la cadena Marriot. Con esto quiero decir que yo reduciría el alcance del uso del TIF. Cerraría los distritos que ya han logrado sus proyectos y, por supuesto, redirigiría la inversión de dinero del TIF a nuestros barrios. También reduciría cantidad general del financiamiento de incremento de impuestos después porque, todo, estamos tomando el aumento del cuerpo tributario, como el Distrito de Parques de Chicago y otros distritos contribuyentes y hay un costo público para eso. No podemos continuar haciendo eso porque es un generador de dinero, no puede ser solo instrumento de desarrollo económico de la ciudad. Utilizaría estratégicamente fondos TIF para crear empleos que hagan los barrios más prósperos, invertiría en proyectos que generen actividades adicionales en los barrios y crearía vivienda más económica. Estas son las nuevas prioridades que necesitamos establecer para seguir adelante.

Bilingual Lawndale Newspaper: ¿Cómo

propone acabar con la violencia de la ciudad y reinstalar un nivel de confianza entre los residentes de la ciudad y los oficiales de policía?

Chuy García: Necesitamos ampliar la práctica de la justicia restaurativa, especialmente entre los jóvenes, para resolver conflictos entre ellos; enseñar a los jóvenes como resolver los conflictos y enseñarles a vivir en paz. Mi propuesta es contratar 1,000 policías adicionales para trabajar en verdadera policía comunitaria. Hemos llegado lejos con el concepto de policía comunitaria y se necesita urgentemente restaurarla. Pienso que la secuela de Ferguson y Nueva York enfatiza realmente la necesidad de establecer más comunidad, mayor confianza, respeto mutuo entre los residentes de la comunidad y la policía. Los oficiales dicen que el tiempo extra que se gasta, de aproximadamente $100 millones al año, no está siendo bien gastado porque están llevando a oficiales, que ya han trabajado un turno y los colocan en comunidades que no les son familiares. Una vez más, eso subraya que fuera de concepto es la policía comunitaria. Necesitamos dar a nuestros oficiales las herramientas necesarias para comunicarse mejor con los residentes y restaurar la confianza en ellos.
