Every Child Counts

Covenant House, the nation's largest agency helping homeless youth, announced on Wednesday its plan to develop further services including an increase in shelter beds, street outreach, and additional opportunities for youth experiencing homelessness in Chicago. "We as a city cannot thrive until each of our children has an opportunity for success. Having a safe place to call home is fundamental so that our children can be focused on their studies and their future, and not worried about where they will sleep at night," said Mayor Emanuel.

Covenant House will work alongside the Department of Family and Support Services (DFSS), service providers and community leaders to find an area for shelter space to best serve youth. After holding several meetings with Mayor Emanuel, Covenant House selected Chicago as its first expansion location in over 16 years, based on the City's proposed plan to reduce homelessness, collaboration by local partners, and support by stakeholders. This summer, Covenant House will open a facility that will expand citywide shelter capacity by adding 20 beds. "At our programs in 27 cities across six countries, we see every night the difference a safe, warm bed means to our kids," said Covenant House President Kevin Ryan. "A safe place to sleep literally means new life, transformation and hope. We are so grateful to the community leaders and especially our fellow service providers in Chicago who are on the front lines every night. Soon we will be standing side by side with them and together we'll rescue more kids from the freezing cold, from the violence, and from the vile pimps and traffickers who prey on vulnerable homeless youth."

According to Ryan, one of the organization's principal goals in the coming weeks is to begin conducting street outreach "to better understand the population and their specific needs." Ryan also stated the location of the new site will be announced soon and will be determined by street outreach conducted to disclose areas where services will make the most impact on homeless youth. "The Mayor's personal dedication to serving homeless and his involvement in bringing Covenant House to Chicago will help us reach the City's most vulnerable youth," said DFSS Commissioner Lisa Morrison Butler. "We welcome Covenant House to Chicago and look forward to a strong partnership with them as we work to end youth homelessness and improve outcomes for our children."

In the course of the next months, the Emanuel Administration and DFSS will work with Covenant House to pinpoint a site to locate shelter space that will add shelter beds. Over 1,800 homeless youth nationwide sleep at Covenant House programs each night. The organization provides food, clothing, shelter, short and long-term housing, educational support, job training, and medical care. Established in 1972, Covenant House is the largest privately funded agency helping homeless children by providing 24/7 crisis care and ongoing support in 27 cities across six countries. La Ciudad Anuncia Fondos para Restaurar Empleos para Jóvenes en Sitio Clausurado

El Alcalde Rahm Emanuel anunció una inversión para restaurar 65 oportunidades de empleo para jóvenes en un pequeño negocio que había sido cerrado a principios de este año, debido a la detención de fondos a causa del callejón sin salida del presupuesto estatal. Bikes N'Roses, que ofrece empleos de verano y para después de la escuela a estudiantes de secundaria de la localidad, reabrirá su local de Belmont Cragin, con ayuda de la ciudad, permitiendo que el negocio emplee a 50 jóvenes como parte del programa 2016 One Summer Chicago. Para abrir el local de Bikes N'Roses en Belmont Cragin, el Alcalde Emanuel ha asignado una inversión de $60,000 para restaurar 20 oportunidades de empleo juvenil durante todo el año y $94,000 adicionales a través de los fondos del programa One Summer Chicago, para dar a 50 jóvenes oportunidades de empleo de verano en el mismo sitio. Comenzando en el 2011, Bikes N'Roses es un programa de empleos para jóvenes administrado por la organización no lucrativa Communities United. El programa, que depende de $276,000 en subsidios estatales para entrenar y emplear a jóvenes a través de sus dos sitios, fue forzado a cerrar uno de sus locales este año, como resultado de la orden ejecutiva del Gobernador Rauner, quien congeló los fondos operacionales del programa. Actualmente el local de Bikes N'Roses en Albany Park emplea a 15 jóvenes, quienes prestan servicios de reparación de bicicletas, talleres de entrenamiento a 100 jóvenes y tienen una base de clientela de más de 2,000 personas. La inversión de la Ciudad permitirá que la tienda de bicicletas Belmont Cragin opere en su totalidad y brinde salarios a jóvenes y tutores, junto con materiales para talleres de entrenamiento.

De ahora al 15 de mayo se aceptan solicitudes en www.onesummerchicago.org para participar en One Summer Chicago.

to provide 50 youths with summer work opportunities at the same site. Started in 2011, Bikes N' Roses is a youth employment program run by non-profit organization Communities United. The program, which relies on $276,000 in state grants to train and employ youth across its two sites, was forced to close down one of the sites earlier this year when as a result of an executive order by Governor Rauner, which froze the program's core operational funding was frozen. Currently, Bikes

N' Roses' Albany Park location employs 15 youth who provide bike repair services, provides workshop training to 100 youth, and has a customer base of over 2,000 people. The City's investment will allow the Belmont Cragin bike shop to fully operate out of its storefront and will provide wages for youth and mentors, along with supplies for training workshops. Applications to participate in One Summer Chicago are being accepted now through May 15th at www.onesummerchicago.org.

Tabares Aprueba Proyecto para Proteger a Inmigrantes de la Discriminación

Para proteger a trabajadores indocumentados de la discriminación, la Rep. Estatal Silvana Tabares, D-Chicago, aprobó recientemente una legislación que actualizaría la descripción del estado sobre los trabajadores de otros países, utilizando el término 'inmigrante indocumentado'.

"Las palabras importan y necesitamos asegurarnos de que nuestro estado refleja los valores del trabajo fuerte, el respeto y el compromiso que los inmigrantes han ayudado a reforzar en nuestra nación por generaciones", dijo Tabares. "Esta legislación demuestra que nuestro estado respeta los valores y la cultura que los inmigrantes traen a Illinois". Tabares introdujo el Proyecto 5945 de la Cámara para cambiar la forma en que la ley se refiere a los inmigrantes indocumentados, eliminando el término 'extranjero' del código de trabajo y reemplazándolo con el de "inmigrante indocumentado". Tabares desarrolló la legislación basada en una idea de los estudiantes de Eric Solorio Academy High School, que está cerca de su distrito. Una medida similar se convirtió en ley en California el pasado agosto y, si la legislación de Tabares se convierte en ley, Illinois sería el segundo estado en el país que sigue esta iniciativa. Tabares cree que las contribuciones de los inmigrantes han hecho más fuerte a nuestro país. El jueves, Tabares aprobó el proyecto en la Cámara con apoyo bipartidario y la legislación pasa ahora al Senado.

Tabares Passes Bill to Protect Immigrants from Discrimination

To protect undocumented workers from discrimination, State Rep. Silvana Tabares, D-Chicago, recently passed legislation that would update the state's descriptions of workers from other countries, using the term 'undocumented immigrant.'

"Words matter and we need to make sure our state reflects the values of hard-work, respect, and commitment that immigrants have helped to reinforce in our nation for generations," said Tabares. "This legislation demonstrates that our state respects the values and culture that immigrants bring to Illinois." Tabares introduced House Bill 5945 to change how the law refers to undocumented immigrants, eliminating the term 'alien' from the labor code and replacing it with 'undocumented immigrant.' She developed the legislation based on an idea from students at Eric Solorio Academy High School, which is near her district. A similar measure became law in California last August, and, if Tabares's legislation became law, Illinois would be the second state in the country to lead this initiative. Tabares believes that the contributions of immigrants make our country stronger. On Thursday, Tabares passed the bill on the House floor with bi-partisan support and the legislation now moves to the Senate.

Por Escándalo de Robo de Drogas, Dos Hospitales Más Exhortan a Pacientes a Hacerse la Prueba del VIH y la Hepatitis

Dos hospitales en el Estado del Washington advirtieron a cerca de 1,500 pacientes que pudieron estar expuestos al VIH, el virus de la hepatitis B (HBV) y el virus de la hepatitis C (HCV). Es la última noticia en un escándalo de drogas, en el que un técnico en cirugía, viajero, fue acusado de robar e intercambiar jeringas de drogas analgésicas en por lo menos cuatro estados, reporta Access WDUN.

La alerta llega solo semanas después que funcionarios de salud del estado en Colorado y Arizona, advirtieron a más de 3,000 pacientes quirúrgicos que se hicieran la prueba de enfermedades transmitidas a través de la sangre, después que autoridades de salud del Hospital Glenda en Phoenix, descubrieran evidencia de que el técnico quirúrgico, Robert “Rocky” Allen, había estado sustrayendo jeringas de Fentanyl del cuarto de cirujías y usar después el poderoso narcótico opiáceo. Más tarde se descubrió que Allen había sido despedido de por lo menos cuatro centros médicos y cuatro diferentes estados, bajo similares alegatos, activando una reacción en cadena de advertencias de HIV y hepatitis en todo el Sudoeste.

El Hospital Northwest y el Centro Médico en Seattle ofrecen ahora pruebas gratuitas de hepatitis y VIH a 1,340 pacientes que recibieron cirugía en la el hospital a finales del 2012, durante un periodo de 10 semanas, Allen trabajó en el centro antes de ser despedido por las razones estipuladas. Cerca de Lakewood Surgery Center, donde Allen trabajó también por corto tiempo, dijo haber alertado a 135 pacientes. A pesar de las advertencias, ambos hospitales, así como los Centros para el Control y la Prevención de Enfermedades están caracterizando el riesgo de infección, como bajo.

Allen, de 28 años, quien fue arrestado el mes pasado en Colorado, se ha declarado “no culpable” contra los cargos de corte federal de manipular productos del consumidor y obtener sustancias controladas en forma fraudulenta. La defensa del técnico en cirugía ha dicho que Allen es un veterano de la marina que sufre desorden de estrés post-traumático y empezó a usar analgésicos opiáceos después de vivir horrores en Afganistán. Allen está actualmente fuera, con una fianza de $25,000 y se le ha ordenado mantenerse cerca y recibir un tratamiento de drogas mientras sigue el procedimiento de corte. Otros hospitales implicados en la alerta incluyen: Scripps Green Hospital en San Diego, HonorHealth John C. Lincoln Hospital en Phoenix y Swedish Medical Center en Denver. Hasta ahora no se han reportado infecciones vinculadas a Allen en ninguno de los hospitales.

Public Notice

Proposed Renewal of the Clean Air Act Permit Program Permit BWAY Corporation in Chicago

BWAY Corporation has requested that the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (Illinois EPA) renew the Clean Air Act Permit Program (CAAPP) permit regulating air emissions from its facility located at 3200 South Kilbourn Avenue in Chicago. The facility manufactures lithographed and paint coated steel containers for the paint and chemical industries. Based on its review of the application, the Illinois EPA has made a preliminary determination that the application meets the standards for issuance and has prepared a draft permit for public review.

The Illinois EPA is accepting comments on the draft permit. Comments must be post-marked by midnight May 14, 2016. If sufficient interest is expressed in the draft permit, a hearing or other informational meeting may be held. Requests for information, comments, and questions should be directed to Jillian Hawkins, Office of Community Relations, Illinois Environmental Protection Agency, 1021 N. Grand Ave. East PO. Box 19506, Springfield, Illinois 62794-9506, phone 217/524-0922, TDD phone number 217/782-9143, jillian.hawkins@illinois.gov.

The repositories for the draft permit documents are at the Illinois EPA's offices at 9511 West Harrison in Des Plaines, 847/294-4000 and 1021 North Grand Avenue East in Springfield, 217/782-7027 (please call ahead to assure that someone will be available to assist you). Copies of the draft permit and project summary may also be available at <http://www.epa.gov/caa-permitting/region-5-electronic-permits>. Copies of the documents will be made available upon request.

The CAAPP is Illinois' operating permit program for major sources of emissions, as required by Title V of the Clean Air Act (Act). The conditions of CAAPP permits are enforceable by the public, as well as by the USEPA and Illinois EPA. In addition to implementing Title V of the Act, CAAPP permits may contain "Title I Conditions," i.e., conditions established under the permit programs for new and modified emission units, pursuant to Title I of the Act. The permit contains T1 conditions in section 4.1.2 that were established in previously issued permits. The permit contains no T1 conditions that are being newly established or revised by this application.

The facility is located in a potential Environmental Justice area. More information concerning Environmental Justice may be found at <http://www.epa.illinois.gov/topics/environmental-justice/index>

The beginning of this public comment period also serves as the beginning date of the USEPA 45 day review period, provided the USEPA does not seek a separate proposed period.

In Drug-Theft Scandal, Two More Hospitals Urge Patients to Test for HIV and Hepatitis

Two hospitals in Washington State warned nearly 1,500 patients they may have been exposed to HIV, hepatitis B virus (HBV) and hepatitis C virus (HCV). It's the latest development in an ongoing drug diversion scandal, in which a traveling surgery technician has been charged with stealing and swapping syringes of painkiller drugs in at least four states, Access WDUN reports.

The alert comes just weeks after state health officials in Colorado and Arizona warned more than 3,000 surgery patients to get tested for blood-borne illnesses, after health authorities at Glendale hospital in Phoenix uncovered evidence that surgery tech Robert "Rocky" Allen, had been taking fentanyl syringes from the surgery room and then using the powerful opioid narcotic. It was later discovered that Allen had been fired from at least four medical centers in four different states under similar allegations, setting a chain reaction of HIV and hepatitis warnings across the Southwest.

Northwest Hospital and Medical Center in Seattle is now offering free hepatitis and HIV testing to 1,340 patients who received surgery at the facility in late 2012, during a 10-week window Allen worked at the facility before being fired for undisclosed reasons. Nearby Lakewood Surgery Center, where Allen also worked for a short time, said it had alerted 135 patients. Despite the warnings, both hospitals, as well as the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention are currently characterizing the risk of infection as low.

Allen, 28, who was arrested last month in Colorado, has plead "not guilty" against federal court charges of tampering with a consumer product and obtaining a controlled substance by deceit. The surgery tech's defense has said that Allen is a Navy veteran who suffers from post-traumatic stress disorder and started using opioid painkillers after witnessing war horrors in Afghanistan. Allen is currently out on a $25,000 bail and has been ordered to stay at a halfway house and get drug treatment as court proceedings continue. Other hospitals implicated in the exposure alert include:

Scripps Green Hospital in San Diego, HonorHealth John C. Lincoln Hospital in Phoenix, and Swedish Medical Center in Denver. So far, no infections linked to Allen have been reported at any of the facilities.

partes interesadas. Este verano Covenant House abrirá un centro que ampliará la capacidad de albergue de la ciudad añadiendo 20 camas. “En nuestros programas en 27 ciudades, en seis países, vemos cada noche la diferencia que hace una cama caliente en la vida de nuestros niños”, dijo el Presidente de Covenant House, Kevin Ryan. “Un lugar seguro donde dormir literalmente significa nueva vida, transformación y esperanza. Estamos muy agradecidos con los líderes comunitarios y especialmente a nuestros proveedores de servicios en Chicago que están al frente cada noche. Pronto estaremos codo a codo con ellos y juntos rescataremos más niños del frío, de la violencia, de los proxenetas y de los traficantes que hacen presa de los vulnerables jóvenes desamparados”.

metas principales de la organización en las próximas semanas es comenzar a conducir enlaces en las calles ‘para mejor entender la población y sus necesidades específicas’. Ryan dijo también que el lugar del nuevo sitio será anunciado pronto y se determinará por el enfoque en las calles, para señalar las áreas donde los servicios causen un impacto mayor en los jóvenes desamparados. “La dedicación personal del Alcalde de servir a los desamparados y su participación al traer a Covenant House a Chicago nos ayudará a llegar a los jóvenes más vulnerables de la ciudad”, dijo la Comisionada de DFSS, Lisa Morrison Butler. “Damos la bienvenida a Chicago a Covenant House y esperamos tener una fuerte afiliación con ellos ya que trabajamos para terminar con el desamparo de los jóvenes y mejorar el futuro de nuestros niños”.

En el curso de los meses siguientes, la Administración de Emanuel y DFSS trabajarán con Covenant House para determinar con precisión un sitio para localizar el albergue que agregará camas a su sitio. Más de 1,800 jóvenes desamparados a nivel nacional duermen cada noche gracias a los programas de Covenant House. La organización provee comida, ropa, albergue, vivienda a corto y largo plazo, apoyo educativo, entrenamiento de empleo y cuidado médico. Establecido en 1972, Covenant House es la agencia más grande, con fondos privados, que ayuda a niños desamparados brindando atención en crisis 24/7 y apoyo constante en 27 ciudades, en seis países.
