'Put Our People First'

'Put Our People First'

By: Ashmar Mandou

Vocal marchers took over the school grounds of Curie High School Monday evening in an effort to protest the abandonment felt by many in regards to education equality, universal healthcare, transitioning to green energy, and gun violence to name a few. "Today, we are showing the governor and all of our elected officials that we need corporations and the rich to pay their fair share so that we can finally get violence prevention and education funding our community needs," said Board President of the Brighton Park Neighborhood Council (BPNC) Anita Caballero. According to the BPNC, the Brighton Park community has experienced a jump in violence including a mass shooting with ten victims nearly a week ago. Community leaders complain that violence in the community was at a 20-year low six years ago before state budget cuts eliminated all violence prevention programs.

Brighton Park was the first stop on the March to Springfield. Marchers will stop in suburban and rural communities along routes 171 and 66 to listen to people and generate support for a budget that places people and planet ahead of the needs of corporations. The March to Springfield is organized by Fair Economy Illinois and co-sponsored by the Grassroots Collaborative and the Illinois Coalition for Immigrant and Refugee Rights. "When I was young, rich people and corporations paid their fair share of taxes, and government used that money to invest in people," said 90-year old Alfred Klinger. "I'm a World War II veteran, and the GI Bill paid for me to go to medical school, allowing me to serve my community as a physician for 45 years. Government should make these kinds of big investments in every generation." Illinois, the nation's fifth largest state, has been without a budget for two years.

"Springfield has abandoned us, and we deserve better," said Samantha Nichols, a pastor-in-training who plans to march. "Our People and Planet First Budget proposal puts hundreds of thousands of people back to work doing the things that will improve our lives and strengthen our communities." The People and Planet First Budget raises $23 billion dollars by closing corporate tax loopholes ($2.5 billion), passing a financial transaction tax on LaSalle Street trades ($12 billion) and enacting a graduated income tax ($9 billion). Participants will also push for legislation to generate $1.7 billion annually in new revenue by closing the carried interest loophole, raising the state minimum wage to $15/hr to stimulate economic growth, and passing the Safe Zones/Trust Act to protect the Illinois immigrant community from an overreaching xenophobic Trump administration. Manifestantes vocales se apoderaron de los terrenos escolares de Curie High School el lunes por la tarde, en un esfuerzo por protestar por la falta que muchos sintieron en relación con la igualdad en educación, el cuidado de salud universal, la transición a energía ecológica y la violencia de armas, por nombrar algunos, “Hoy, estamos mostrando al gobernador y a todos nuestros funcionarios electos, que necesitamos que las corporaciones y los ricos paguen lo que les corresponde para que finalmente podamos tener prevención a la violencia y los fondos para la educación que nuestra comunidad necesita”, dijo la Presidente de la Junta del Concilio del Barrio de Brighton Park (BPNC), Anita Caballero. De acuerdo a BPNC, la comunidad de Brighton Park ha experimentado un aumento en la violencia incluyendo un tiroteo masivo que dejó diez víctimas hace cerca de una semana. Líderes comunitarios se quejan de que la violencia en la comunidad estaba en una baja de 20 años hace seis años antes de que los cortes del presupuesto estatal eliminaran todos los programas de prevención a la violencia.

Brighton Park fue la primera parada en la marcha a Springfield. Los manifestantes se detendrán en comunidades suburbanas y rurales a lo largo de las rutas 171 y 66 para escuchar a la gente y generar apoyo para un presupuesto que ponga a la gente y al planeta al frente de las necesidades de las corporaciones. La Marcha a Springfield es organizada por Fair Economy Illinois y copatrocinada por Grassroots Collaborative y la Coalición pro Derechos del Refugiado y el Inmigrante de

Illinois. “Cuando yo era joven, la gente rica y las corporaciones pagaba lo justo en impuestos y el gobierno utilizaba ese dinero para invertir en la gente”, dijo Alfred Klinger, de 90 años de edad. “Soy un veterano de la Segunda Guerra Mundial y GI Bill me pagó para ir a la escuela de medicina, permitiéndome servir a mi comunidad como doctor por 45 años. El gobierno debe hacer estas inversiones en cada generación”. Illinois, el quinto estado más grande de la nación, ha estado sin presupuesto por dos años.

“Springfield nos ha abandonado y no nos lo merecemos”, dijo Samantha Nichols, pastora-en-entrenamiento, quien planea marchar. “La propuesta de un Presupuesto Nuestra Gente y Nuestro Planeta Primero pone a cientos de miles de personas de vuelta al trabajo, haciendo las cosas que mejorarán nuestras vidas y fortalecerán nuestras comunidades”. El Presupuesto La Gente y el Planeta Primero recauda $23 mil millones de dólares cerrando lagunas de impuestos corporativos ($2.5 mil millones) aprobando impuestos de transacciones financieras en negocios de LaSalle Street ($12 mil millones) y aprobando un impuesto sobre la renta ($9 mil millones). Los participantes lucharán también por una legislación que genere $1.7 mil millones al año en nuevos ingresos cerrando las lagunas de intereses, aumentando el salario mínimo del estado a $15 la hora para estimular el crecimiento económico y aprobando el Acta Safe

Zones/Trust para proteger a la comunidad inmigrante de Illinois de la administración xenofóbica de Trump. Más información en www.marchtospringfield.org. Siga la marcha utilizando #MarchToSpringfield y visitando www.facebook.com/marchtospringfield y www.twitter.com/march2spfld.

MHA Statement on Passage of American Health Care Act

By: Paul Gionfriddo, MHA
president and CEO

“At Mental Health America, we are deeply disappointed in the result of today’s vote on the American Health Care Act (AHCA). Today, the sunny, flamboyant promises of better health care at a lower cost during a political campaign gave way to the cold, dark realities of politics in America.
“Today was a tragic day for all those dealing with or caring for someone with serious mental health concerns – a day that a majority of the members of Congress stopped listening to them, and suspended the bipartisanship that has characterized so much of the gains that have been made during the past year.

“The passage of the AHCA, as it was amended today, is an astonishing assault on the health care of all Americans. While a CBO score wasn’t even done before this vote, previous estimates reported that 24 million people will lose their public or private insurance. Others will either experience steep increases in the cost of insurance, or significant reductions in the essential health services their insurance covers.
“No one will actually get better health care coverage at a lower cost.

“These effects will be felt mostly by people with chronic conditions, just as drivers who have accidents and homeowners with storm damage experience increases in their insurance premiums. They will affect people with cancer and heart disease. They will affect millions with serious mental illnesses. This is not something we can ignore or forget as we move forward. Lives are in the balance.
“The Affordable Care Act, also known as Obamacare, has flaws that need to be fixed. Too many low-income people were left out; too many others above the subsidy limits had to pay too-high premiums for the coverage they needed. “But this new “TrumpsCare” proposal will make things much, much worse.
“Throughout the nation, people will find that coverage has been gutted. Premiums will rise, especially for elders. Out-of-pocket costs will also go up. Medicaid cuts will shift burden to all states. People will die. These realities – and more – have drawn opposition from the vast majority of Americans, both left and right. “And in states that now have permission to opt out of key provisions of the Affordable Care Act, our citizens will be divided into two classes: a ruling class that has been exempted from these cuts; and a regular class, who will lose essential benefits and protections on which they have come to rely. “We call on the members of the Senate to vote this proposal down, and the entirety of Congress to start over.
“At MHA, we thank all those who fought in the open - loudly and clearly - to implore members of Congress to oppose legislation that would do great harm to people with behavioral health conditions. In the weeks and months to come, we will continue to advocate on behalf of people with behavioral health concerns. “We will work to protect funding for mental health for children and adults; for prevention and early intervention services, for integration, for peer-to-peer services, and for all services leading to recovery; for protection of the essential mental health benefits people need; for parity protections; and for choices in care, services, and supports for people with mental health concerns.”
Mental Health America is the nation’s leading community-based non-profit dedicated to helping all Americans achieve wellness by living mentally healthier lives. Our work is driven by our commitment to promote mental health as a critical part of overall wellness, including prevention services for all, early identification and intervention for those at risk, integrated care and treatment for those who need it, with recovery as the goal.

Declaración de MHA Sobre la Aprobación del Acta Estadounidense de Cuidado de Salud

Por: Paul Gionfriddo, Presidente y CEO de
MHA

“En Mental Health America, estamos profundamente desilusionados por el resultado del voto de hoy sobre el Acta American Health Care (AHCA). Hoy, las brillantes promesas de un mejor cuidado de salud a un menor costo durante una campaña política, dio paso a la fría y oscura realidad de la política en Estados Unidos.

“Hoy fue un día trágico para todos los que cuidan a alguien con graves problemas mentales – un día en que una mayoría de los miembros el Congreso dejó de escucharlos y suspendió el bipartidismo que caracterizó tanto las ganancias logradas durante el año pasado.

“La aprobación de AHCA, como fue enmendada hoy, es un asombroso asalto al cuidado de salud de todos los estadounidenses. Aunque ni siquiera se hizo una calificación CBO antes de este voto, cálculos previos reportaron que 24 millones de personas perderían su seguro público o privado. Otros experimentarán fuertes incrementos en el costo del seguro o considerables reducciones en los servicios de salud esenciales que cubre su seguro de salud.

“Nadie tendrá una mejor cobertura de salud a menor costo.

“Estos efectos los sentirán más las personas con condiciones crónicas, como los choferes que tienen un accidente o los propietarios que experimentarán grandes incrementos en la prima de sus seguros por causa de daños de una tormenta. Afectará a la gente con cáncer y enfermedades cardíacas. Afectarán a millones con graves enfermedades mentales. Esto no es algo que podamos ignorar u olvidar al seguir adelante. La vida está de por medio. “El Acta Affordable Care, conocida también como Obamacare, tiene fallas que necesitan arreglarse. Demasiadas personas de bajos ingresos quedaron fuera; muchos otros sobre los límites del subsidio tuvieron que pagar primas demasiado altas por la cobertura que necesitaban. “Pero esta nueva propuesta del “TrumpCare” pondrá las cosas mucho, mucho peor.

En toda la nación, la gente va a encontrar que la cobertura se ha desbordado. Las primas aumentarán, especialmente para los ancianos. Los costos del bolsillo aumentarán también. Los recortes al Medicaid desplazarán la carga a todos los estados. La gente morirá. Estas realidades – y más – han despertado la oposición de la vasta mayoría de los estadounidenses, de derecha e izquierda. “Y en estados que ahora tienen permiso de optar por algunas de las provisiones claves del Acta Affordable Care, nuestros ciudadanos quedarán divididos en dos clases: Una clase dominante que ha sido dispensada de estos cortes; y una clase regular, que perderá beneficios y protecciones esenciales en los que había llegado a confiar. “Pedimos a los miembros del Senado que voten contra esta propuesta y al Congreso en general a que empecen de nuevo. “En MHA, agradecemos a quienes luchan abiertamente – fuerte y claro – implorando a los miembros del Congreso que se opongan a una legislación que dañaría considerablemente a la gente con condiciones de salud mental. En las próximas semanas y meses continuaremos abogando a nombre de la gente con problemas de salud mental. “Lucharemos para proteger los fondos para la salud mental para niños y adultos; para los servicios de prevención y la pronta intervención, por la integración, para los servicios peer-to-peer y para todos los servicios que conduzcan a la recuperación; para la protección de los beneficios esenciales de salud mental que la gente necesita; para protecciones de paridad; y para alternativas en cuidado, servicios y apoyo a la gente con problemas mentales”.

Mental Health America es

la organización comunitaria no lucrativa, líder en la nación, dedicada a ayudar a los estadounidenses a lograr el bienestar llevando una vida mentalmente más sana. Nuestro trabajo es impulsado por nuestro compromiso de promover la salud mental como parte crítica del bienestar en general, incluyendo servicios de prevención para todos, la pronta identificación y la intervención de quienes están en peligro, cuidado integrado y tratamiento para quienes lo necesiten, con la recuperación como meta.

Munoz Seeks to Broaden Illinois State Police Candidate Pool

More veterans could soon be eligible for appointment as an Illinois State Police officer under a plan that adds two considerations in meeting the collegiate educational requirements for the position. Assistant Majority Leader Tony Munoz (D-Chicago) is pushing legislation that makes any person who has been honorably discharged who served in a combat mission or has at least four years of full active duty deemed to have met the collegiate educational requirements. "Our veterans are leaving the service with skills that make them prime candidates for positions with the Illinois State Police," Munoz said. "Adding these considerations gives veterans opportunities and the state police a larger candidate pool." House Bill 3095 was approved in the Senate Veterans Affairs Committee today and now heads to the full Senate for consideration.

Muñoz Busca Ampliar la Lista de Candidatos a Policía Estatal

Pronto más veteranos podrían ser elegibles para ser nombrados funcionarios de Policía Estatal de Illinois, bajo un plan que añade dos consideraciones para cumplir con los requisitos escolares colegiados para la posición. El Líder Mayoritario Asistente,

Tony Muñoz (D-Chicago) está pugnando la legislación que hace que cualquier persona que haya sido despedida con honores y haya servido en una misión de combate o tenga por lo menos cuatro años de servicio activo, se considere haya cumplido con los requisitos escolares colegiados. "Nuestros veteranos dejan el servicio con destrezas que los hace candidatos primordiales para posiciones con la Policía Estatal de Illinois", dijo Muñoz. "Al agregar estas consideraciones se da más oportunidades a los veteranos y crece la lista de candidatos a policía estatal". El Proyecto 3095 de la Cámara fue aprobado por el Comité de Asuntos del Veterano hoy y pasa ahora al Senado en pleno para su consideración.

ILLC Chairman Sandoval Leads State Collaboration Agreement

On Wednesday, May 10th, Illinois Legislative Latino Caucus (ILLC) Chairman Martin A. Sandoval (D-11) joined Hispanic state organization leaders, in the Governor's Office, for a historic signing of a collaboration agreement between the ILLC, Illinois Association of Hispanic State Employees (IAHSE), Illinois Latino Council on Higher Education (ILACHE), and Hispanic Illinois

State Law Enforcement Association (HISLEA). The collaboration agreement outlines efforts to addressing issues affecting Latinos in state employment and community service. These organizations agree to serve as advocates for the Latino community which represents over 16 percent of the Illinois population. Through this collaborative effort, they will strive to deliver outcomes and results of parity in the state workforce and support each organization's mission. Governor Bruce Rauner and Lieutenant Governor Evelyn Sanguinetti joined in the momentous occasion. Senator Sandoval was elected Chairman of the Legislative Latino Caucus (ILLC) early this year. The ILLC was established to serve as a strong voice and resource for the Illinois Latino population.

Chicago Park District Launches Annual Operation: Help a Hero

The Chicago Park District will launch its second annual Operation: Help a Hero on May 29th, 2017, benefiting homeless veterans across Chicagoland. Operation: Help a Hero is an effort to help homeless veterans acquire basic necessities needed to maintain their homes. In the United States it is estimated that there are over 39,000 veterans who are homeless. When veterans are placed in permanent housing, they often lack the basic essentials to help maintain the homes. The Park District is asking Chicagoans to help provide these materials for veterans as a small gesture of thanks for their service and sacrifices. Anyone who would like to donate items can visit aldermen's offices and parks across the city. This year the Chicago Park District is teaming with the American Red Cross to help collect items from the parks. The collected items

DON'T LET GOVERNMENT TRANSPARENCY FADE AWAY

Public notices - important information about what is happening in our government - would become a thing of the past in Illinois under Senate Bill 2032.

So would important transparency about the decisions being made that impact us and how our money is being spent.

Instead of requiring governmental entities large and small to print these notices in newspapers, they could post them solely online on their own website - and there are more than 750 statewide. Such a move would affect many people, including the elderly, minorities and those in rural areas. In fact, AARP has opposed similar legislation nationwide.

Only one state has tried this approach and it repealed the decision after two years because it was a failure.

Illinois should be pushing more transparency, not giving the government another way to hide our business

Ají Sobremesa bringing the heat from Perú to Chicago

Sobremesa Chicago, a staple in the Chicago underground dining scene, announces the arrival of their very own hot sauce: Ají Sobremesa. After a successful crowdfunding campaign in 2016 raising over $30,000, Ají Sobremesa is now a reality. It is currently available across various retail locations in Chicago (Local Foods, Green Grocer, Publican Quality Meats, Belli's, Smack Dab, Cellar Door Provisions, Foodsmart, Sugar Beet Food Co-op, Kimski) and ready to change the color and flavor of the $1 billion hot sauce industry. Ají Sobremesa is a versatile, flavorful hot sauce made with "Ají Amarillo" or Peruvian yellow peppers. Ají Amarillo is the foundation of Peruvian cuisine, an ingredient in every ceviche, a flavor agent in traditional dishes like Lomo Saltado, and a source of inspiration for many wonderful sauces found across Perú. Beyond its Peruvian roots, Ají Sobremesa is unlike any other hot sauce available in the market. At first glance, its radiant, golden yellow hue breaks from the convention of a category dominated by green and red sauces. Once attracted by its unique color, people will find the most versatile hot sauce in the market. Its citrusy hot, but not too hot, flavor makes it pair with almost everything. Ají Sobremesa can be used as an ingredient while cooking, a dipping sauce for veggies or chips, a base for spicy aioli, or as an added kick of spice for any dish. Flavorful, unique, and versatile Ají Sobremesa is also completely natural, has no preservatives, and is non-GMO. Basically, it looks good, tastes good, and is good.

Ají Sobremesa Trae el Calor del Perú a Chicago

Sobremesa Chicago, un elemento básico en la escena gastronómica de metro Chicago, anuncia la llegada de su propia salsa picante: Ají Sobremesa. Después de una exitosa campaña de recaudación en el 2016, que recaudó más de $30,000, Ají Sobremesa es ahora una realidad. La puede encontrar actualmente en varias tiendas de Chicago (Local Foods, Green Grocer, Publican Quality Meats, Belly's, Smack Dab, Cellar Door Provisions, Foodsmart, Sugar Beet Food Co-op, Kimski) lista para cambiar el color y el sabor de $1 mil millones en la industria de la salsa. Ají Sobremesa es una salsa picante versátil, con mucho sabor, hecha con "Ají Amarillo" o chiles amarillos peruanos. El Ají Amarillo es la base de la cocina peruana, un ingrediente imprescindible en cualquier ceviche, un sabor principal en platillos tradicionales como el Lomo Saltado y una fuente de inspiración para muchas maravillosas salsas que se encuentran en Perú. Más allá de sus raíces peruanas, el Ají Sobremesa es diferente a cualquier otra salsa picante en el mercado. A primera vista, su brillante, tono amarillo dorado se diferencia de la categoría de las salsas verdes y rojas. Una vez atrapados por este color único, la gente verá que ha encontrado la salsa picante más versátil en el mercado. Su picante cítrico, pero no demasiado picante, y el sabor, la hace buena para combinarla con cualquier platillo. Ají Sobremesa puede usarse como ingrediente mientras cocina, como un dip para vegetales o papitas, como base para el aioli condimentado o como un toque de condimento a cualquier platillo. Con mucho sabor, única y versátil, el Ají Sobremesa es completamente natural, no tiene preservativos ni GMO. Básicamente se ve bien, sabe bien y es saludable.

Sobremesa Chicago es un proyecto alimenticio nacido en el 2012 en el barrio de Pilsen. Fundado por tres amigos de la infancia de Puerto Rico, la visión de Sobremesa es establecer comunidades y romper las barreras por medio de la comida.

Chicago Teens 'Take Up the Baton'

Encouraged by Obama's call to young people, "to take up the baton," Chicago youth will gather to showcase their year-long activism effort to better their schools and neighborhoods at the Mikva Challenge 15th Annual Action Civics Showcase on May 23, 2017 at the Chicago Cultural Center. Mikva Challenge will host the Showcase in partnership with the Chicago Public Schools Office of Civic Engagement and Service Learning. Youth will meet political and community leaders at the Showcase and will be awarded badges for civic action, research and community building. To stand-up against current immigration policies, youth leaders at Benito Juarez Academy are engaging lawmakers on the local, state, and national level. To increase teen employment in the summer, youth from Excel Academy in Marquette Park organized a job fair with over 25 businesses offering employment opportunities. To increase youth engagement in local politics, youth from Sullivan High School drafted a project proposal to be put on the ballot for the 49th Ward PB process, and they also launched a GOTV campaign to get their peers to vote. "I'm working Mikva for the recycling project and each day we collect food that so many students throw away. This food could be given to those that actually need it. Saving food also helps students see that they are wasting most of not, not eating it, and that throwing it away is just wrong," said Khadijah Zaki from Mather High School, who is working on a food recycling and waste elimination project this year with her peers. The Action Civics Showcase is a culminating event of the Democracy in Action program that had 2,500 youth participants from over 60 schools throughout the Chicagoland area this year. The event will be held at the Cultural Center located at 78 E. Washington, Chicago, IL from 4p.m., to 6p.m.

Activistas Piden a Rauner Evitar los Programas de Vales Escolares

Por: Ashmar Mandou

Esta semana, 34 legisladores firmaron una carta para el Gobernador Bruce Rauner, exhortándolo a mantener los programas de vales escolares fuera de Illinois y mantener el dinero dentro del sistema de educación pública. Para mejorar la educación, necesitamos dos cosas: un presupuesto que cubra totalmente a nuestras escuelas y una fórmula de fondos escolares equitables. No podemos permitir que el Gobernador Rauner venda otro bien público al mejor comprador. El plan de educación Trump-Rauner no va a ayudar a los estudiantes de Illinois", dijo el Senador Omar Aquino el martes, 16 de mayo, dentro del Blueroom, en el Edificio del Capitolio del Estado de Illinois, donde se reunió con estudiantes, padres, activistas y legisladores.

La conferencia de prensa fue en respuesta directa a la Secretaria de Educación Betsey DeVos y al apoyo del Presidente Trump al uso de fondos

Activists Call on Rauner to Avoid School Voucher Programs

By: Ashmar Mandou

This week, 34 legislators signed a letter to Governor Bruce Rauner urging him to keep school voucher programs out of Illinois and keep public dollars within the public education system not to be diverted to private and religious schools. "What we need in Illinois is not a voucher system. To improve education, we need two things: a budget that fully funds our schools and an equitable school funding formula. We cannot allow Governor Rauner to sell off another public good to the highest bidder. The Trump-Rauner education plan will not help Illinois students," said Senator Omar Aquino, on Tuesday, May 16th inside the Blueroom at the Illinois State Capitol Building, where he was joined by students, parents, activists, and fellow legislators.

The press conference was in direct response to Secretary of Education Betsey DeVos and President Trump's support for the use of federal funds for voluntary school voucher programs at the state level. President Trump's proposed budget for fiscal year 2018 includes $250 million for private school choice initiatives. A school voucher can be thought of as a coupon supported by state dollars that allows parents to use them to send their kids to the school of their choice, even private, religiously affiliated schools. The money is all or some of what the state would have otherwise spent to educate the child in a public school. Vouchers are often reserved for low-income students, children with disabilities or for families zoned to a failing public school. Currently, 14 states offer the student voucher program, including Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Utah, Vermont, and Wisconsin, in addition to Washington, D.C.

The letter to the Governor from state legislators that they "oppose the creation of any program that will divert public funds from the public school system to be used to pay tuition, fees or other costs at private and religious schools—whether in the form of vouchers or scholarship tax credits, other than that which already exists under current state and federal law to provide students with disabilities with a Free and Appropriate public education." Community groups delivered the letter to Governor Rauner's office following the press conference. Legislators who signed on to the letter include: Representatives Carol Ammons, Kelly Cassidy, Linda Chapa LaVia, Barbara Flynn Currie, Mary Flowers, Robyn Gabel, Will Guzzardi, Michael Halpin, Sonya Harper, Greg Harris, Camille Lilly, Theresa Mah, Robert Martwick, Christian Mitchell, Anna Moeller, Elaine Nekritz, Juliana Stratton, Silvana Tabares, Chris Welch, Ann Williams, Senators Omar Aquino, Jennifer Bertino-Tarrant, Daniel Biss, Melinda Bush, Cristina Castro, John Cullerton, Bill Cunningham, Don Harmon, Kimberly Lightford, Iris Martinez, Laura Murphy, Kwame Raoul, Heather Steans, and Patricia Van Pelt.

federales para programas de vales escolares voluntarios a nivel estatal. El presupuesto propuesto por el Presidente Trump para el año fiscal 2018 incluye $250 millones para iniciativas de alternativas escolares privadas. Un vale escolar puede considerarse como un cupón respaldado por dólares estatales que permite a los padres utilizarlos para enviar a sus hijos a la escuela de su predilección, inclusive escuelas privadas y religiosas. El dinero es todo o parte de lo que el estado habría de otra manera gastado en educar a un niño en una escuela pública. Los vales se reservan muchas veces para estudiantes de bajos ingresos, niños discapacitados o familias zonificadas a una escuela pública en quiebra. Actualmente, 14 estados ofrecen el programa de vales estudiantiles, incluyendo Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Utah, Vermont y Wisconsin, además de Washington, D.C.

La carta al Gobernador, de los legisladores del estado, dice que se "oponen a la creación de cualquier programa que desvíe fondos del sistema escolar público para ser utilizados para pagar colegiaturas, cuotas u otros costos en escuelas privadas y religiosas — ya sea en forma de vales o créditos de becas, como no sean las que ya existen bajo la ley federal y estatal para dar a estudiantes discapacitados una educación Gratis y Apropiable". Grupos comunitarios entregaron la carta a la oficina del Gobernador Rauner tras la conferencia de prensa. Los legisladores que firmaron la carta incluyen a: Los representantes Carol Ammons, Kelly Cassidy, Linda Chapa LaVia, Barbara Flynn Curried, Mary Flowers, Robyn Gabel, Will Guzzardi, Michael Halpin, Sonya Harper, Greg Harris, Camille Lilly, Theresa Mayh, Robert Martwick, Christian Mitchell, Anna Moelle, Elaine Nekritz, Juliana Stratton, Silvana Tabares, Chris Welch, Ann Williams, los Senadores Omar Aquino, Jennifer Bertino-Tarrant, Daniel Biss, Melinda Bush, Cristina Castro, John Cullerton, Bill Cunningham, Don Harmon, Kimberly Lightford, Iris Martínez, Laura Murphy, Kwane Raoul, Heather Steans y Patricia Van Pelt.

NOTICE OF SALE

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to a Judgment of Foreclosure and Sale entered in the above cause on March 14, 2017, an agent for The Judicial Sales Corporation, will at 10:30 AM on June 13, 2017, at The Judicial Sales Corporation, One South Wacker Drive - 24th Floor, CHICAGO, IL, 60606, sell at public auction to the highest bidder, as set forth below, the following described real estate: Commonly known as 201 N. WESTSHORE DRIVE, UNIT #1501 Chicago, IL 60601 Property Index No. 17-10-400-031-1090. The real estate is improved with a condominium.

The judgment amount was $922,392.68. Sale terms: 25% down of the highest bid by certified funds at the close of the sale payable to The Judicial Sales Corporation. No third party checks will be accepted. The balance, including the Judicial sale fee for Abandoned Residential Property Municipality Relief Fund, which is calculated on residential real estate at the rate of $1 for each $1,000 or fraction thereof of the amount paid by the purchaser not to exceed $300, in certified funds/or wire transfer, is due within twenty-four (24) hours. No fee shall be paid by the mortgagee acquiring the residential real estate pursuant to its credit bid at the sale or by any mortgagee, judgment creditor, or other lienor acquiring the residential real estate whose rights in and to the residential real estate arose prior to the sale. The subject property is subject to general real estate taxes, special assessments, or special taxes levied against said real estate and is offered for sale without any representation as to quality or quantity of title and without recourse to Plaintiff and in 'AS IS' condition. The sale is further subject to confirmation by the court.

Upon payment in full of the amount bid, the purchaser will receive a Certificate of Sale that will entitle the purchaser to a deed to the real estate after confirmation of the sale. When sale of real estate is made to satisfy a lien prior to that of the United States, the United States shall have one year from the date of sale within which to redeem, except that with respect to a lien arising under the internal revenue laws the period shall be 120 days or the period allowable for redemption under State law, whichever is longer, and in any case in which, under the provisions of section 505 of the Housing Act of 1950, as amended (12 U.S.C. 1701k), and subsection (d) of section 3720 of title 38 of the United States Code, the right to redeem does not arise, there shall be no right of redemption.

The property will NOT be open for inspection and plaintiff makes no representation as to the condition of the property. Prospective bidders are admonished to check the court file to verify all information.

If this property is a condominium unit, the purchaser of the unit at the foreclosure sale, other than a mortgagee, shall pay the assessments and the legal fees required by The Condominium Property Act, 765 ILCS 605/9(g)(1) and (g)(4). If this property is a condominium unit which is part of a common interest community, the purchaser of the unit at the foreclosure sale other than a mortgagee shall pay the assessments required by The Condominium Property Act, 765 ILCS 605/18.5(g-1).

EATS

Whether they are home, the office or somewhere in between, McDonald's customers in Chicago can now enjoy their favorite burgers, fries, beverages and desserts delivered right to them through UberEATS. Now McDelivery on UberEATS is available at more than 260 McDonald's restaurants throughout Chicago. "We are excited to bring a new level of convenience and personalization to our customers in Chicago with UberEATS," said Jim Carras, Vice President and General Manager, McDonald's Greater Chicago Region. "Our customers have told us they enjoy experiencing McDonald's in new ways, and we look forward to offering more ways to enjoy their favorite menu items." Customers can place McDonald's orders on the UberEATS mobile app or on UberEATS.com, using the same account they use to take Uber rides and track their order, as an UberEATS delivery partner brings their meal directly to them. An UberEATS booking fee applies to each order. Customers can get $5 off their first UberEATS order now through December 31 using the promo code MCDSMILE.

McDonald's ya está disponible para su entrega en UberEATS en Chicago

Your help is needed in locating photos of Illinois veterans

By Illinois Press Foundation

When the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington, D.C. was finished in 1983, the wall listed approximately 58,000 servicemen and women who had either died in action or went missing in action during the Vietnam War. Because of a fire at a government storage facility in 1973, the U.S. military lost millions of personnel records, including many of those who were listed on the wall. Although the military and other organizations made efforts to recover lost data, 24,000 veterans listed on the wall had no photo in their military records in 2013.

Thanks to a coordinated effort among Illinois newspapers, nearly 100 photos of Illinois veterans have been located and submitted to the Wall of Faces (available at: <http://www.vvmf.org/wall-of-faces/>); however, as of May 1, 2017, Illinois still has 528 servicemembers who do not have a photo in the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund’s database. We need your help. Adjacent to this article is a list of servicemen and/or women from cook county that do not have a photo on the Wall of Faces. Do you know any of them? Did you go to high school or serve with one of these men or women? Check your photo archives and yearbooks. Talk to neighbors and former classmates. Please help honor these veterans by putting a face to the name. According to the VVMF, the wall was constructed to remind everyone that the names on the wall “represent unique people with hopes, dreams and desires—people who were loved and who are missed every day by someone they left behind.” “It is important for us to honor these people who served and sacrificed for their country. But, we should also remember that they were people, just like us. They enjoyed crazy adventures with high school friends. They had crushes, fell in love and got married. Some even had children. They were people with special talents and many goals. There are so many stories on The Wall—stories of people as diverse as our nation itself.” Please help honor these young men and women who gave their lives in Southeast Asia. The first step to telling their stories is to locate their photos.

If you locate a missing photo of a veteran, submit the photo to printing@lawndalenews.com, attention Pilar. The photo does not have to be of the servicemember in uniform.
