Decisión Sobre DACA

By: Ashmar Mandou

Federal Judge William Alsup of California temporarily blocked the Trump administration's efforts to end the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals program (DACA). Judge Alsup said the administration must resume receiving DACA renewal applications. However, the ruling is restricted – the administration does not need to process applications for those who have never before received DACA protections, Alsup said. The Trump administration announced the move to draw down the program last September with a planned end for early March. DACA protected young undocumented immigrants who came to the US as children from deportation. The outcome of DACA and the roughly 700,000 "Dreamers" is the subject of fiery negotiations in Washington, where President Donald

DACA Ruling

Trump, Republicans and Democrats are searching for a way to allow Dreamers to stay while also addressing border security concerns. It is not clear how the order will impact those talks.

"Chicago stands with Dreamers. I applaud Judge Alsup for issuing an injunction against the Trump administration's misguided, cold-hearted attempt to rescind the DACA program, I encourage Dreamers in Chicago and across the country to renew their DACA registrations, and I call on Congress to pass a permanent legislative solution to secure the futures of these hard-working young men and women and stop playing politics while too many young lives are in limbo," said Mayor Emanuel in a press statement. The White House on Wednesday morning called the decision "outrageous."

"An issue of this magnitude must go through the normal legislative process. President Trump is committed to the rule of law, and will work with members of both parties to reach a permanent solution that corrects the unconstitutional actions taken by the last administration," White House press secretary Sarah Sanders said in a statement. Trump, himself, blasted the decision on Twitter. "It just shows everyone how broken and unfair our Court System is when the opposing side in a case (such as DACA) always runs to the 9th Circuit and almost always wins before being reversed by higher courts," he tweeted. The Ninth US Circuit Court of Appeals, which has blocked several versions of Trump's travel ban and is considered a more liberal court, would hear a potential appeal to Alsup's decision.

"We need permanent legislative solution to DACA, not a drawn out legal fight, and this ruling ups the ante for Congress to act," said John Rowe, Exelon Chairman Emeritus and IBIC Co-Chair, "There is only one real path forward: either Congress will pass a legislative solution to DACA, or nearly 800,000 DACA recipients will lose their ability to live and work legally in this country." Without a DACA legislative solution, the country stands to lose $433.1 billion in economic growth nationally, Illinois stands to lose $2.3 billion in GDP, and employers nationwide will lose $6.3 billion in employee turnover costs nationwide. In Chicago, The Resurrection Project will host an emergency educational meeting on Thursday, Jan. 11th at 3:30p.m., at La Casa, 1815 S. Paulina. TRP urges individuals with DACA related questions/concerns to join the meeting to receive accurate information and connect with legal counsel.

Decisión Sobre DACA

Por: Ashmar Mandou

El Juez Federal de California, William Alsup, bloqueó temporalmente los esfuerzos de la administración Trump de terminar el programa de Acción Diferida (DACA). El juez Alsup dijo que la administración debe volver a recibir las solicitudes de renovación de DACA. Sin embargo, el fallo está restringido – la administración no necesita procesar las solicitudes de quienes nunca antes recibieron la protección de DACA, dijo Alsup. La administración de Trump anunció su intención de quitar el programa el pasado septiembre, planeando terminara a principios de marzo. DACA protegió de la deportación a jóvenes indocumentados inmigrantes que llegaron a EU cuando niños. El resultado de DACA y los aproximadamente 700,000

“Soñadores” es tema de fieras negociaciones en Washington, donde el Presidente Donald Trump, Republicanos y Demócratas buscan la manera de permitir que los Soñadores se queden mientras atienden a la vez preocupaciones de seguridad en la frontera. No es claro como la orden impactará esas pláticas.

“Chicago está con los Soñadores. Aplaudo al Juez Alsup por expedir un mandato contra el intento equivocado y despiadado de revocar el programa DACA, exhorto a los Soñadores de Chicago y de todo el país, a que renueven sus inscripciones DACA y pido al Congreso que apruebe una solución legislativa permanente para garantizar el futuro de estos jóvenes y que dejen de jugar a la política mientras muchos jóvenes viven en el limbo”, dijo el Alcalde Emanuel en una declaración a la prensa. La Casa Blanca, la llamó, el miércoles por la mañana, una decisión “indignante”.

“Un problema de esta magnitud debe pasar por el proceso legislativo normal. El Presidente Trump está comprometido con las reglas de la ley y trabajará con miembros de ambos partidos para alcanzar una solución permanente que corrija las acciones inconstitucionales tomadas por la pasada administración”, dijo en una declaración la secretaria de prensa de la Casa Blanca, Sarah Sanders. Trump, maldijo la decisión por Twitter. “Esto solo muestra lo fracturado e injusto que es nuestro Sistema de Cortes cuando el lado opuesto de un caso (como en DACA) corre siempre al 9º Circuito y casi siempre gana, antes de ser revertido

Due to a sold-out show and extreme popular demand from fans, comedian Felipe Esparza has added a second show in Chicago for his highly-anticipated “Bad Decisions Tour.” The second show will take place right after the first on January 12th at 10 p.m. at the Vic Theater on 3145 North Sheffield. “I am very thrilled to perform in Chicago. At first I performed at Joe’s Bar. Before I got to where I am today nobody booked me in Chicago. I got my following thanks to Mickey O who brought me first to Chicago and helped me get a fan base here. Now I am fortunate enough to go and perform at big theaters here alone,” said Felipe to Lawndale News.

After nearly four years of doing his “What’s Up Fool?” podcast, Felipe has found his new voice on stage and explores his tough past experiences to try and find humor in them. With the “Bad Decisions Tour,” Felipe is now bringing material that is edgier and darker than before. “The “Bad Decisions Tour” is 100 percent knew. If you expect the same stuff as you had seen on HBO before you won’t see it on this tour,” said Felipe. “I find humor in everything and my audience knows what to expect. I am an honest comedian and that’s what makes me successful.” Before age 21, Felipe found himself in rehab and someone asked him to list five goals in life. As a young immigrant and teenage father growing up in the projects in Boyle Heights (East L.A.), it was a difficult task. Among the items on that list, “to be happy”, and “be a stand-up comedian” came from his connection to an old Bill Cosby album he listened to when he was younger. “It takes a lot of hard work, knowing the right people, being nice to everyone you meet and show appreciation. Paul Rodriguez told me that you will meet the same people on your way up as you meet them on your way down,” said Felipe. “A lot of Latin comedians try to crossover. Don’t worry about crossing over, if you are good they will cross over to you.” From being raised in the projects in a family of nine living in one of the most gang-infested neighborhoods in the country to winning NBC’s “Last Comic Standing”, to selling out live comedy shows all over the country and being able to act in TV shows and movies, Felipe’s life has been anything but boring. He worked for years as a stand-up comedian, opening on the road for fellow comedians such as Gabriel Iglesias and Paul Rodriguez, then took a leap of faith and went out on his own, which led to very little income and opportunity at first. “Learn to write, go to a library and write every day. Pick up a newspaper and read. Come up with 30 jokes a day and force yourself to do that every day. Write, write, write,” says Felipe in regards to young comedians who want to make it. After the 16-year “overnight success” of winning Last Comic Standing, Felipe went on to produce his first hour-long stand-up comedy special, “They’re Not Gonna Laugh at You” (Netflix). He has also made several TV appearances, including recurring roles on “The Eric Andre Show”, NBC’s “Superstore”, TruTV’s “World’s Dumbest” and “Russell Simmons Presents Stand-Up at the El Rey”. He also served as the spokesman for a national Honda campaign and a national Target Mobile campaign. During his early years as a comedian, Felipe was part of the successful stand-up comedy TV show, “Que Locos” on Galavisión (the only English-speaking show on Spanish television). That show and the resulting tour helped launch the careers of several other Latino comedians such as George Lopez, Gabriel Iglesias and Willie Barcena.

“I love stand up comedy! I love performing! I will do this for the rest of my life and I will die with a microphone in my hand,” said Felipe.

Today, in addition to his live stand-up touring, Felipe hosts a weekly podcast on the All Things Comedy Network called “What’s Up Fool?” that focuses on interesting stories from just about anybody. Felipe believes everyone has a story to tell about how they got where they are, no matter who they are. Recently, Felipe produced his second hour-long stand-up special with his wife Lesa, titled “Translate This”, which premiered on HBO on September 30, 2017. He is also developing a sitcom with fellow comedian Dustin Ybarra and writers Bobby Bowman and Peter Murrietta. Felipe and Dustin will play brothers in the single-camera comedy that will be produced by 3 Arts Entertainment. “The first show is sold out. Hurry up and get your tickets before the second show sells out too,” said Felipe to his fans in Chicago. Tickets are on sale now and fans (18 and over) should scoop them up before they sell out! For the latest news, tour info and to hear from the man himself, you can follow Felipe on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram. You can find more of Felipe’s comedy on iTunes. Tickets are also available on FelipesWorld.com.

Delia Ramirez

Former State Senator and Chicago City Clerk Miguel Del Valle endorsed Delia Ramirez to represent the heavily-Latino IL 4th House District seat being vacated by Rep. Cynthia Soto this Saturday before going out to talk with voters. In a statement, Former Sen. # El Ex-Senador Miguel Del Valle Apoya a Delia Ramírez para Rep. Estatal del 4º Distrito

El Ex-Senador Estatal y Secretario de la Ciudad de Chicago, Miguel Del Valle, apoyó a Delia Ramírez para representar el Distrito 4º, en su mayoría latino, dejado vacante por la Rep. Cynthia Soto, este sábado, antes de salir a hablar con los votantes. En una declaración, el Ex Senador Del Valle dijo:

“Como Representante Estatal, Delia Ramírez traerá consigo la clase de liderazgo y perspectiva fresca que Springfield necesita, ahora más que nunca. Es una reconocida fundadora de comunidades y coaliciones y es el presente & el futuro de nuestro movimiento Progresivo. Delia es la clase de líder que restaurará la fe de nuestras comunidades por cortes más altas”, tweeteó. La Corte del Noveno Circuito de Apelaciones de EU, que ha bloqueado varias versiones de prohibiciones de viajeros de Trump y es considerada una corte más liberal, escucharía una potencial apelación a la decisión de Alsup.

“Necesitamos una solución legislativa permanente para DACA, no una lucha legal prolongada, y este fallo pide al Congreso actuar”, dijo John Rowe, Director Emeritus de Exelon y Co-Director de IBIC.

“Solo existe una vía real: o el congreso aprueba una solución legislativa para DACA, o cerca de 800,000 recipientes de DACA perderán su capacidad de vivir y trabajar legalmente en este país”. Sin una solución legislativa para DACA, el país enfrenta la pérdida de $433.1 mil millones en crecimiento económico a nivel nacional, Illinois perdería $2.3 mil millones en GDP y empresarios a nivel nacional perderían $6.3 mil millones en costos de rotación de empleados a nivel nacional. En Chicago, Resurrection Project (TRP) ofrecerá una reunión educativa de emergencia el jueves, 11 de enero, a las 3:30 p.m. en La Casa, 1815 S. Paulina. ## ‘Gifts Keep Giving’ for Chicago Teachers at Swap Circle for Teachers

Teachers will receive needed supplies and students will be inspired thanks to donations of surplus materials and supplies by local businesses. The Creative Chicago Reuse Exchange (CCRx) is inviting Chicago businesses to donate surplus and overstock items to Chicago teachers to enhance the learning experience of thousands of students. Teachers can “shop for free” from the donations at CCRx’s Swap Circle for Teachers on Saturday January 27, from 10am to 4pm, at Victor Hall Chicago, 3636 S. Iron Street in Bridgeport. Chicago Businesses can drop off donations on January 23-25, from 10am to 4pm, also at Victor Hall Chicago. CCRx surveyed 500 Chicago teachers for their material needs and dreams. They reported spending $500 to $1000 out-of-pocket every year for basic office supplies – xerox paper, pens and pencils, glue, even cleaning and personal hygiene supplies. The list of “Most Wanted Items” is on the CCRx website, www.creativechirx.org. All donations are tax-deductible. People with large items or quantities should contact CCRx for special arrangements at info@creativechirx.org or 312-909-5902.

Consejos para Ayudar a la Mujer a Prepararse para Cuidado de Salud a Largo Plazo

La mujer pasa mucha parte de su vida atendiendo a otros. Como madres y esposas nunca parecen parar de atender a sus familiares y esposos. Entonces ¿Quién va a atender a mamá si necesita atención a largo plazo? O puede ella planear por adelantado para su atención a largo plazo? Es importante que lo haga. La mujer típicamente vive más que el hombre en un promedio de aproximadamente cinco años. De acuerdo a aarp.org. más de dos terceras partes de estadounidenses de 85 años son mujeres. Y aproximadamente el 79 por ciento de mujeres de 65 años necesitarán atención a largo plazo durante su vida, de acuerdo a un estudio de Georgetown University Health Policy Institute. La mujer muchas veces se convierte en cuidadora a largo plazo de su marido u otros miembros de la familia. Y las estadísticas muestran que es más probable que se queden viudas antes de que ellas mismas necesiten cuidado a largo plazo. Las necesidades de su esposo pueden haber disminuídos su bienes, dejando a la viuda con menos solvencia financiera para su propio cuidado. “La mujer muchas veces no planea adecuadamente sus necesidades a largo plazo”, dice Lisa Odoski, profesional financiera enfocada en el bienestar de la mujer y Vicepresidenta de Fried Group, la compañía matriz de TFG Wealth Management. Odoski da tres consejos para ayudar a la mujer a prepararse para su cuidado a largo plazo:

•Eduquese a si misma. La planeación financiera familiar acostumbraba ser casi exclusivamente un

papel del hombre. Esos días han pasado y con tantas casas dependiendo en dos ingresos y las mujeres viviendo más que los hombres, el que la mujer planee para su distante futuro es más que una prioridad. Pero un estudio de AARP mostró que el 60 por ciento de mujeres no habían considerado como podrían pagar su cuidado a largo plazo. “Deben empezar consultando a un experto en inversiones y planeador financiero”, dijo Odoski. “Necesitan ponerse al día sobre los costos de cuidados de ancianos, seguros y planes de ahorro”.

•Conozca los beneficios de su retiro y los de su esposo. La mujer debe aprovechar el plan de retiro de trabajo y no demorar en ahorrar para su futuro, incluyendo los últimos años que pueda pasar sola. Es especialmente importante, en caso de divorcio o de la muerte del esposo, para saber los derechos matrimoniales en cuanto a la pensión de su esposo, seguro social o beneficios del veterano. “No quieren ponerse en el caso donde la mayoría de los beneficios de su esposo van para su propio cuidado”, dice Odoski.

•Piense a largo plazo con su presupuesto. La mujer debe tener metas específicas y un plan de ahorro para ella. las estadísticas dicen que las metas deben incluir una porción dedicada a seguro de cuidado a largo plazo, que cubre una amplia variedad de espectros de productos y servicios. “Debe delinear los gastos mensuales y gastos anuales y las necesidades y comparar los números para determinar que van a necesitar años más tarde para mantener su estilo de vida familiar”, dice Odoski. “Necesitan mirar todas las opciones de cuidado a largo plazo. El Medicare y los seguros privados usualmente ya no son suficientes para cubrir el cuidado a largo.

Lisa Odoski es Vicepresidenta de Fried Group, compañía matriz de TFG Wealth management (www.tfgwealth.com).

Stroger Hospital High Performing in Heart Failure Care: U.S. News and World Report

Lucina Hernandez was expecting her second child when she began experiencing severe pain in her chest. She had developed acute heart failure related to lupus, a chronic autoimmune disease, and needed an emergency C-section. “We take care of some of the sickest heart failure patients and Lucina’s condition was particularly serious. As a doctor and mother myself, I knew I needed to do everything in my power to help her,” said Dr. Nataliya Pyslar, cardiologist and Director of Cardiology Consultation Services at the Cook County Health and Hospitals System’s John H. Stroger Jr. Hospital. “Caring for patients is so much more than running a test and writing a prescription. You have to hold their hand, share their emotions and empower them. Watching a patient recover and resume their life is the most rewarding experience.” Today, Mrs. Hernandez’s heart condition is well controlled and she and her family are thriving. U.S. News and World Report recognized Stroger Hospital with its highest rating for heart failure care in their annual Best Hospital rankings. The 450-bed facility is the flagship hospital of the Cook County Health & Hospitals System. “With extensive clinical expertise and access to the most modern medical technology, the Stroger Hospital team has demonstrated their exceptional ability to care for those suffering from advanced forms of heart failure,” said Dr. Jay Shannon, CEO, CCHHS. U.S. News evaluates hospital performance in heart failure using patient survival data and a variety of other factors related to care.

Tips to Help Women Prepare For Long-Term Health Care

Women spend much of their lives caring for others. As mothers and wives, they never seem to stop giving to their families and husbands. So who will take care of mom if she needs long-term care? Or will she plan ahead for her long-term care? It's important that she does. Women typically outlive men by an average of about five years. According to aarp.org, more than two-thirds of Americans 85 or older are women. And about 79 percent of 65-year-old women will need long-term care during their lifetime, according to a study by the Georgetown University Health Policy Institute. Women often become long-term caregivers for their husbands or other family members. And as statistics show, they are also more likely to become widowed before needing long-term care themselves. Her husband's needs may have further drained assets, leaving the widow with less financial wherewithal to apply to her own care. "Women too often don't adequately plan ahead for LTC needs," says Lisa Odoski, a financial professional focusing on women's well-being and Vice President of the Fried Group, the parent company of TFG Wealth Management. Odoski gives three tips to help women prepare for their long-term care:

- Educate yourself. Family financial planning used to be almost exclusively the men's turf. Those days are long gone, and with many houses running on two incomes and women outliving men, women need to make planning for their distant future more of a priority. But an AARP survey showed 60 percent of women hadn't considered how they would pay for long-term care. "They should start by consulting an investment expert and financial planner," Odoski says. "They need to get up to speed on senior care costs, insurance and savings plans."

- Know your retirement benefits and your spouse's. Women should take advantage of their employer's retirement plan and not delay in saving for their future, including the last years they may spend alone. It's especially important, in the event of divorce or their spouse's death, to know their spousal rights in regard to their spouse's pension, Social Security or veteran's benefits. "They don't want to be in a position where most of their spouse's benefits are going toward their own care," Odoski says.

- Think long-term with your budget. Women should have specific goals and a plan to save toward them. The statistics say the goals should include a portion devoted to long-term care insurance, which covers a wide spectrum of products and services. "They should lay out all monthly and annual spending needs and crunch the numbers to determine what they'll need in later years in order to maintain their familiar lifestyle," Odoski says. "They need to look at all LTC options. Medicare and private insurance usually aren't enough to cover long-term care anymore." Lisa Odoski is Vice President of the Fried Group, the parent company of TFG Wealth Management (www.tfgwealth.com).

Saint Anthony Hospital Earns Recognition with Second Consecutive Award for Commitment to Excellence

Saint Anthony Hospital is pleased to announce that it has been awarded the 2017 Illinois Performance Excellence (ILPEX) Recognition Program Bronze Award for Commitment to Excellence. This is the second consecutive award for the hospital. The award recognizes organizations that have demonstrated earnest efforts to adopt and apply continuous improvement principles from the top of the organization down using the Baldrige Framework for Performance Excellence. "Providing quality care to one of the most underserved communities in Chicago has always been Saint Anthony Hospital's top priority," said Guy A. Medaglia, Saint Anthony Hospital President and CEO. Applying criteria from the Baldrige framework has led to ensuring continuity of care across the hospital for all patients who come to Saint Anthony. With ongoing evaluation of best practices, other achievements garnered include recently being awarded The Joint Commission's Perinatal Care Certification, making Saint Anthony the first among all Illinois hospitals, as well as being named the City of Chicago's "Best Value" Hospital by Amino, a health care transparency company.

"Our community deserves the highest quality of care, and this internationally-recognized framework allows us to show meaningful and significant cycles of improvement," said Eden Takhsh, M.D., Vice President, Chief Quality Officer and Chairman for Obstetrics and Gynecology for Saint Anthony Hospital. For more information on the ILPEX recognition program, visit ilpex.org.

Reconocen al Hospital St. Anthony por su Compromiso con la Excelencia por Segundo Año Consecutivo

El Hospital St. Anthony se complace en anunciar haber recibido el Premio Bronze de Reconocimiento 2017 Illinois Performance Excellence (ILPEX) por su Compromiso con la Excelencia. Este es el segundo premio consecutivo para el hospital. El premio reconoce a organizaciones que han demostrado sinceros esfuerzos por adoptar y aplicar continuos principios de mejoras, de arriba a abajo de la organización, utilizando el Marco Baldrige de Excelencia en Desempeño. "Brindar atención de calidad a una de las comunidades menos atendidas de Chicago ha sido siempre la prioridad del Hospital St. Anthony", dijo Guy A. Medaglia, Presidente y CEO del Hospital St. Anthony. Aplicar el criterio del marco Baldrige nos ha conducido a garantizar la continuidad de cuidado del hospital para todos los pacientes que llegan a St. Anthony. Con evaluación continua de las mejores prácticas, otros logros ganados incluyen haber recibido recientemente la Certificación de Cuidado Perinatal de Joint Commission, haciendo del St. Anthony el primero en recibirlo de entre todos los hospitales de Illinois, así como haber sido nombrado el Hospital "Best Value" de la Ciudad de Chicago por Amino, compañía de transparencia en cuidado de salud. "Nuestra comunidad merece la más alta calidad de cuidado y este marco internacionalmente reconocido nos permite mostrar ciclos de continuas mejoras", dijo Eden Takhsh, M.D., Vicepresidenta, Funcionaria de Calidad en Jefe y Directora de obstetricia y Ginecología del Hospital St. Anthony.
