Golden Apple recently surprised second grade bilingual teacher at Little Village Academy Anita Unzueta with the highly respected Golden Apple Award for Excellence in Teaching, a moment Unzueta will cherish for years to come. "The Golden Apple Award means a lot to me," said Unzueta. "It was one thing to be a finalist, but to receive this award for doing something I truly love is amazing." The annual award recognizes and honors exemplary teachers for their role in building a stronger and better-educated society and among the nearly 700 nominees, Unzueta was presented the award in front of her students, family, and school.

"I grew up with a similar background like my students who face obstacles. It is my responsibility to empower them, to inspire them, to build relationships, and foster a sense of accountability," said Unzueta, who fell in love with teaching in high school. "I had amazing teachers who introduced me to unique opportunities. They taught me how to be my own advocate. They inspired me in so many ways and that's what I want to give my students. I want to provide opportunities to my students, I want them to feel empowered, and I want my students to have a positive attitude and set goals for themselves." Unzueta, understand the importance of providing a safe and secure school environment for her students. El Premio Golden Apple sorprendió recientemente a la maestra bilingüe de segundo grado de Little Village Academy, Anita Unzueta, con el tan altamente respetado Premio Golden Apple por Excelencia en la Enseñanza, momento que la maestra Unzueta atesorará por años. “El Premio Golden Apple significa mucho para mí”, dijo Unzueta. “Una cosa es ser finalista y otra recibir este premio por hacer algo que me encanta, es maravilloso”. El premio anual reconoce y honra a maestros ejemplares por establecer una sociedad más fuerte y mejor educada y entre los cerca de 700 nominados, Unzueta recibió el premio frente a sus estudiantes, su familia y la escuela.

Competitive Edge

For the past six years ComEd has helped countless employees in the construction industry achieve higher accomplishments through its Construct Program where participants go through an intensive track from project management and planning. The program is designed to increase the pool of qualified minority candidates for entry-level construction jobs in Illinois. This year, 108 students will graduate entering a workforce with several possibilities. This week, we spoke to four individuals who participated in the Construct Program who gave their input on how the program has transformed great option to get your foot in the door and gain experience.

Doris Romo

What circumstances were happening in your life that led you to ComEd's Construct program?

The circumstances at the time of my life that led me to ComEd's Construct program was wanting a better life for my children and a lifelong career. Becoming a role model to my children and nieces and nephews as well.

Talk to me about your experience in ComEd's Construct is helpful for those in the construction industry, especially for minority groups?

I believe that this type of program is helpful for those pursuing the construction industry. It gives minorities more opportunities to grow and develop their careers. We are strong, talented people and today's population reflects that. Unfortunately, sometimes we are not given the opportunity to grow but at least through the Construct program we are. God made us different for a reason and we should all be proud no matter what the struggles are. Just find out what opportunities are out there and never give up.

What would you like potential students to know about ComEd's Construct program?

I would like potential students to know that the program definitely opens your career path to many opportunities, you simply have to do what it takes to walk in and make it happen. I feel that it's definitely worth your time.

Damier Allison

What circumstances were happening in your life that led you to ComEd's Construct program?

I was a senior in college in 2014 but was not able finish school so I began looking for a job. It took me 3 years to find one. In 2017 I got a job in sales for an insurance company, but it was commission only. That wasn't enough. I wanted something more but I didn't have enough experience to get a better job.

Talk to me about your experience in ComEd's Construct program? How do you feel it has transformed your career?

ComEd helps you create a 30-second elevator pitch, build your resume, and learn project management skills.

I heard about ComEd in 2015 by my father who graduated at that time, so when they introduced the Project Management and Planning track this year he recommended I apply. It's a wonderful experience with so much learning within 9 weeks. The first 3 weeks you undergo math training in order to take a Math test that is actually a requirement for the job interview process with ComEd. I dreaded math at first; luckily after 3 weeks I realized I became really good in problem-solving. When you're younger you are told that you are not smart if you can't solve a their lives.

Chelsea Simmons

What circumstances were happening in your life that led you to ComEd's Construct program?

I was jumping from job to job and decided I wanted a career, and a stable environment to grow professionally.

Talk to me about your experience in ComEd's Construct program? How do you feel it has transformed your career?

I've always had an interest in the construction industry. The process of constructing a building fascinates me. This program helped me grow professionally, evolving into a better person. I have developed public speaking skills, which is great because now I am able to talk in front of a group of people, whereas before, I was terrified and couldn't do it at all.

What aspect of the program do you feel was most beneficial to you?

The most beneficial to me has been the OSHA training, flagger certification training, and networking. I've never networked so much in my life. It has helped me learn how to sell myself, which I was never able to do at the beginning of the program. I would love to work for ComEd someday as a carpenter or heavy equipment operator.

Why, in your opinion, do you believe this type of program is helpful for those in the construction industry, especially for minority groups?

Yes, very helpful. It is stressful and a lot of work. However, if you do not get a job in the construction industry at least you're certified. The program is a good vehicle to encourage more women into the program. It's empowering.

What would you like potential students to know about ComEd's Construct program?

The program will change your life for the better. It's well worth it, especially if you are a minority or a female. It a program? How do you feel it has transformed your career?

My experience with the program has definitely been very informative and has opened my eyes to opportunities. It is also opening the door for minorities and women to work in the construction field. I always wanted to find out how to get into the construction industry and didn't know where to start. The Construct program gave me that opportunity.

What aspect of the program do you feel was most beneficial to you?

The most beneficial about the program was knowing that as a woman and minority I had a chance of getting into the construction field.

Why, in your opinion, do you believe this type of program challenge, but in reality that's not true. If you are taught the right skills you can learn to solve anything. The next two weeks were Excel training, for which now I am proudly certified. I wouldn't have been to accomplish that if it weren't for the Construct program. We also polished our communications skills and performed public speaking every Friday while in front of different department heads giving presentations.

What aspect of the program do you feel was most beneficial to you?

The most beneficial aspect was being introduced to Shawn Hertzog, VP of Olenick and being able to have a regular one on one conversation where I could sell myself. It's wonderful that ComEd brings established companies and executives to network with us. They get to know who you are and what you have to offer. Someday, I'd love to work for ComEd for the call center or customer center.

Why, in your opinion, do you believe this type of program is helpful for those in the construction industry, especially for minority groups?

It gives minorities the opportunity to connect with people from different backgrounds and industries. Our project coordinators have backgrounds in the construction industry so they are great teachers and they create a teamwork environment that helps you succeed and grow.

Dexter Allison

What circumstances were happening in your life that led you to ComEd's Construct program?

I was working full-time, but there weren't any advancement opportunities. With ComEd's Construct program I felt it could lead me to build a career. I learned about the program through my dad who is a 2015 graduate and then went to orientation at the Chicago Urban League.

Talk to me about your experience in ComEd's Construct program? How do you feel it has transformed your career?

It's been a tremendous and wonderful experience. I've expanded my personal and professional experience. I gained confidence with public speaking, become more assertive with interview techniques and interacting with businesses. I've also enjoyed gaining excel training, customer service training, and going to job fairs to see what companies are looking for.

What aspect of the program do you feel was most beneficial to you?

Being able to meet one on one with people from big companies. We've met CEOs of companies like INTREN and Olenick, interacting with them and learning the skills and requirements they are looking for. You build relationships with people you don't necessarily meet every day.

Why, in your opinion, do you believe this type of program is helpful for those in the construction industry, especially for minority groups?

Absolutely. You get tons of opportunities to meet with presidents and senior executives and companies that otherwise you wouldn't have access to, which is beneficial for your career growth.

What would you like potential students to know about ComEd's Construct program?

I would say be open-minded. Sometimes you might encounter boring tasks, but take pride in it, show interest, and be consistent every day. Every person you come across could be an opportunity. Take the program seriously. It pays off. They will put in a good word for you when they see the hard work you put in. I just finished an application for IT training academy for the company Olenick. I am job shadowing with them tomorrow. I will get a hands on experience day to day operations, the company culture, and the programs they use. I am excited and I hope they hire me.

City of Chicago Join Suit to Block Trump Administration from Citizenship Info in 2020 Census

Mayor Rahm Emanuel and a coalition of 18 Attorneys General, six cities, and the bipartisan U.S. Conference of Mayors filed a lawsuit to block the Trump administration from demanding citizenship information in the 2020 decennial Census. Demanding citizenship information will depress Census responses, and in cities and states with large immigrant populations, the lower response rate will directly threaten those jurisdictions' fair representation in Congress and the Electoral College, as well as billions of dollars in critical federal funds for education, infrastructure, Medicaid, and more. The lawsuit, which was filed Tuesday morning in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York, was led by New York Attorney General Eric Schneiderman and joined by the Attorneys General of New York, Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Iowa, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, New Jersey, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Virginia, Vermont, Washington, and the District of Columbia; the cities of Chicago, New York City, Philadelphia, Providence, San Francisco, and Seattle; and the bipartisan U.S. Conference of Mayors.

In Chicago, 34 percent of households did not mail back their 2010 Census questionnaire, and therefore required the Census Bureau to conduct in-person follow-up. Approximately 48 percent of Chicago's population lives in hard-to-count neighborhoods. Immigrants account for 20.8 percent of Chicago's population, and in 2014, an estimated 425,000 undocumented immigrants lived in the Chicago metro area. On December 12, 2017, the U.S. Department of Justice requested that the Census Bureau demand citizenship information in the 2020 Census form sent to every household in the United States, even though the Census is supposed to count all persons—citizens and non-citizens alike. The Department of Justice argued that the collection of such information was necessary to ensure proper enforcement of the 1965 Voting Rights Act. The lawsuit filed today is brought under the Enumeration Clause of the U.S. Constitution, as this action by the Trump administration will impede an "actual Enumeration" required by the Constitution. It is also brought under the Administrative Procedure Act, which permits courts to set aside unlawful or arbitrary and capricious agency decisions.

Chicago se Une a la Demanda para Bloquear a la Administración Trump por Pedir Información de Ciudadanía en el Censo del 2020

El Alcalde Rahm Emanuel y una coalición de 18 Procuradores Generales, seis ciudades y la Conferencia de Alcaldes Bipartitana de E.U. registraron una demanda para bloquear a la administración Trump por pedir información de ciudadanía en el Censo del 2020. Al pedir la información de ciudadanía se presionará a los encuestados en el censo y en las ciudades y estados con grandes poblaciones inmigrantes y el menor índice de respuestas amenazaría directamente la justa representación de los encuestados en el Congreso y en el Colegio Electoral, así como millones de dólares en fondos federales indispensables para la educación, la infraestructura, el Medicaid y más. La demanda, que fue registrada el martes en la mañana en la Corte del Distrito de E.U. por el Distrito Sureño de Nueva York, fue conducida por el Procurador General de Nueva York, Eric Schneiderman y a ella se unieron los Procuradores Generales de Nueva York, Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Iowa,

Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Nueva Jersey, Nuevo México, North Carolina, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Virginia, Vermont, Washington, y el Distrito de Columbia; Las ciudades de Chicago, Nueva York, Filadelfia, Providence, San Francisco y Seattle; y la

Conferencia bipartitana de Alcaldes de E.U.

En Chicago, el 34 por ciento de las familias no regresaron su cuestionario del censo del 2010 y por lo tanto fue necesario que la Oficina del Censo condujera un seguimiento en persona. Aproximadamente el 48 por ciento de la población de Chicago vive en barrios difíciles de contar. Los inmigrantes suman el 20.8 por ciento de la población de Chicago y en el 2014 se calcula que 425,000 inmigrantes indocumentados vivían en el área metropolitana de Chicago. El 12 de diciembre del 2017, el Departamento de Justicia de E.U. pidió que la Oficina del Censo pidiera información sobre la ciudadanía en las formas del Censo del 2020 enviadas a toda familia en Estados Unidos, aún cuando el Censo se supone que cuente a todas las personas – ciudadanos y no ciudadanos por igual. El Departamento de Justicia alegó que la recaudación de tal información era necesaria para garantizar la aplicación apropiada del Acta de Derecho al Voto de 1965. La demanda registrada hoy fue llevada bajo la Cláusula de Enumeración de la Constitución de E.U., ya que esta acción de la administración de Trump impedirá la “enumeración real” pedida por la Constitución. También se llevó bajo el Acta de Procedimiento Administrativo, que permite a las cortes dejar a un lado decisiones ilegales o arbitrarias y caprichosas de la agencia.

Loretto Hospital to Help End Heroin Crisis on Chicago's West Side

Illinois Lt. Gov. Evelyn Sanguinetti joined the West Side Heroin Task Force's (WSHTF) Leader Rep. La Shawn K. Ford (8th), and The Loretto Hospital's President and CEO George N. Miller, Jr., for a breakfast meeting on April 4th to commemorate Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., on the 50th Anniversary of his assassination, and to fight for freedom from the heroin epidemic plaguing the West Side of Chicago. The event was held at The Loretto Hospital, 645 S. Central Ave., and included the narrative and collaboration of City of Chicago, State, and local health and human services department heads. The increasingly easy availability and lower street cost of heroin has led to an increase of heroin abuse and overdose not only in Chicago but in many parts of the country. But for years now, Chicago's West Side, just off what's known as the "heroin highway" — the I-290 Eisenhower Expressway, has been most affected as indicated in "Hidden in Plain Sight: Heroin's Impact on Chicago's West Side", supporting research conducted by Roosevelt University, which examines heroin's impact on Chicago's West Side. A partnership between Rep. Ford, The Loretto Hospital, Roosevelt University, health care organizations, drug policy experts, drug crisis advocates, physicians, including former users, WSHTF was formed to determine the best strategies to reduce the health and criminal justice consequences of heroin use on Chicago's West Side. The task force's mission is to ensure that evidence-based care and health-centered services are delivered throughout West Side communities.

Guerra comercial: ¡Sálvese quien pueda!

La guerra comercial empieza a florecer alrededor del mundo. Por lo menos, las dos potencias mundiales —China y Estados Unidos— emprendieron un proceso que da rienda suelta a imposiciones arancelarias.

Los nuevos impuestos no son para proteger los productos internos o nacionales, sino para castigar a los productos terminados del país enemigo. El gobierno de Trump dijo que incrementará en un 25% los aranceles de los productos provenientes de China. Así, los televisores planos, el instrumental médico, las partes de aviones, las baterías, entre otros, serán más caros que antes.

Aquellas personas que pensaban comprar un televisor para mirar el mundial de Rusia, mejor que se alisten un dinero extra. Costarán 25% más del precio origia nivel nacional, nunca tuvo repercusión mundial.

Sin embargo, cuando llegó Ronald Reagan al poder en 1980, las políticas de libre mercado no solo se implementaron en Estados Unidos sino que se expandieron alrededor del mundo a través de unas tácticas “desleales” del Fondo Monetario Internacional y el Banco Mundial.

Hoy, este proceso de libre mercado está siendo cuestionado por un tipo que no sabe lo que hace. Irónicamente, Donald Trump y sus empresas —desde sus constructoras hasta sus artículos de vestir— se beneficiaron del libre mercado. Sus productos de vestir fueron, en general, hechos en India y China; luego ingresaron al mercado estadounidense.

La hipocresía de Trump no tiene fin. Los más afectados de esta guerra comercial somos los consumidores. Los productos importados subirán por obra y gracia del mercado. Ya se está viendo la baja de los activos de las industrias nacionales exportadoras en la bolsa de valores. ¡Sálvese quien pueda!

nal. Por su parte, China también anunció que impondrá altos aranceles a más de 125 productos provenientes de Estados Unidos. Uno de los grandes afectados será el sector agrícola. Los chinos gravarán más impuestos a las naranjas y otras frutas de nuestro país. Por ende, el vino californiano tendrá un precio altísimo en el mercado chino.

Lo cierto es que la guerra comercial iniciada por el gobierno de Trump, cuestiona directamente las políticas del modelo económico neoliberal que se inició desde la década de 1980.

Recordemos que el neoliberalismo sigue una lógica económica del mercado libre para beneficiar al sector privado, principalmente a las transnacionales de los países desarrollados.

Fue la dictadura chilena de Augusto Pinochet quien inició este modelo económico. Luego, el gobierno de Margaret Thatcher lo acogió en Inglaterra, convirtiendo a las políticas neoliberales en la crema y nata de su gobierno.

Debido a que Inglaterra ya no era una superpotencia mundial, los efectos del neoliberalismo solo fueron

Trade War: Save Yourself if You Can!

The commercial war begins to flourish around the world. At least, the two world powers —China and the United States— undertook a process that gives free reign to tariff impositions.

The new taxes are not to protect domestic or national products, but to punish the finished products of the enemy country. The Trump government said it will increase tariffs on products from China by 25%.

Thus, flat televisions, medical instruments, parts of airplanes, batteries, among others, will be more expensive than before.

Those people who thought to buy a television to watch the World Cup in Russia, better to get ready some extra money. They will cost 25% more than the original price.

For its part, China also announced that it will impose high tariffs on more than 125 products from the United States. One of the big affected will be the agricultural sector. The Chinese will tax more taxes on oranges and other fruits of our country. Therefore, the Californian wine will have a very high price in the Chinese market.

The truth is that the commercial war initiated by the Trump government, directly questions the policies of the neoliberal economic model that began in the 1980s.

Recall that neoliberalism follows an economic logic of the free market to benefit the private sector, mainly the transnationals of developed countries.

It was the Chilean dictatorship of Augusto Pinochet who initiated this economic model. Then, Margaret Thatcher's government Unzueta entiende la importancia de brindar un ambiente escolar seguro para sus estudiantes. Cree que la educación es más efectiva cuando las familias participan en el aprendizaje y las actividades del estudiante y en los últimos ocho años ha presentado talleres sociales y emocionales para los padres, para ayudarles a promover una cultura de confianza y comunicación en el hogar. En colaboración con el consejero escolar, Unzueta trabaja para ayudar a las familias de sus estudiantes a encontrar el apoyo que necesitan de los recursos escolares y comunitarios.

Trade War...

welcomed him into England, turning neoliberal policies into the cream of his government. Because England was no longer a world superpower, the effects of neoliberalism were only at the national level, never had world repercussion.

However, when Ronald Reagan came to power in 1980, free market policies were not only implemented in the United States but expanded around the world through "unfair" tactics of the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank. Today, this free market process is being questioned by a guy who does not know what he is doing. Ironically, Donald Trump and his companies - from their builders to their clothing - benefited from the free market. Their clothing products were, in general, made in India and China; Then they entered the US market.

Trump's hypocrisy has no end. We are the consumers of this commercial war. The imported products will rise by work and grace of the market. We are already seeing the decline of the assets of the national export industries in the stock market. Save yourself who can!

IN LITTLE VILLAGE: Our congratulations to Anita Unzueta, a 2018 Golden Apple award recipient. She received a surprised visit at Little Village Academy Elementary, 2620 S. Lawndale Ave., Chicago, IL to receive a 2018 Apple Award. Anita is a second-grade bilingual teacher at the school. ON MAY 19, 2018, the Golden Apple organization honored 10 recipients as outstanding Pre-K-3rd grade teachers and one exemplary principal at its 33rd Annual Golden Apple award for Excellence in Teaching and Leadership at the WTTW Studios in Chicago.

ANOTHER FINALIST was Xenia Martinez, a third-grade teacher, at the Little Village Academy who teaches reading and writing at the school.

ANITA SAID: "It is an honor to be a recipient of the 2018 Golden Apple Award. This recognition brings great joy and excitement to our students, families and community. My vision for Little Village Academy is to continue empowering students to take ownership of their current and future education by developing their academic, technological and social emotional skills."

ASA TEACHER, Anita shared the importance of walking into the school each morning with a positive attitude and an open mind to set an example and to help every one of her students. She believes in the power of setting high expectations and goals and holds her students accountable for working hard each day. She understands the importance of providing a safe and secure educational environment for all her students.

ANITA IS also a graduate of the Golden Apple scholars of Illinois program, which provides intensive preparation and mentoring to aspiring teachers who commit to teaching in an Illinois school-of-need for five years. She is a tireless advocate for students' success.... Kudos to Anita Unzueta for her dedication!

lage held the annual re-enactment of the Passion of Christ "Via Crucis" on Good Friday.

A SPECTACULAR tradition to witness. The tradition is a solemn procession of hundreds of faithful walking with "Jesus" [in white gown] who carries a cross down 26th St. in Little Village.

HELPING Jesus carry the cross was "Simon of Cyrene" as Jesus is taken to his crucifixion.

"JESUS" surrounded by "Roman soldiers" who would periodically "whip" and shout at Jesus to keep moving. Walking behind Jesus is "Dimas" the penitent thief carrying his cross. This re-enactment was in Spanish.
