Mayoral Election Overview

By: Ashmar Mandou

The number of candidates running to be Chicago's next mayor is the largest in the city's history. Currently, there are 14 candidates on the ballot and if no candidate receives more than 50 percent of the vote, then under election law, voters will then have to cast their ballots again in a runoff election held on April 2nd.

Overview of Candidates:

Gery Chico: an attorney, was former Mayor Richard M. Daley's chief of staff. He also served as CPS board president, head of the Chicago Park District and chairman of the City Colleges of Chicago board. Chico ran for U.S. Senate in 2004 and mayor in 2011. Chico was able to raise $1.7 million for his campaign, putting him behind only Daley and Preckwinkle for total funds raised. Chico has been endorsed by 15th Ward Alderman Raymond Lopez and 14th Ward Alderman Edward Burke, who has been charged with attempted extortion.

Bill Daley: is the son of former Mayor Richard J. Daley, who served for 21 years. Bill Daley's brother, Richard M. Daley, was the 43rd mayor of Chicago from 1989 to 2011. Bill Daley served as former President Bill Clinton's Secretary of Commerce from 1997 to 2000, and White House chief of staff for former President Barack Obama from 2011 to 2012. Bill Daley ran for Illinois governor in 2013 but dropped out of the race. Former Vice President Al Gore has endorsed Daley. So have Crain's and the Chicago Tribune's editorial boards.

Amara Enyia: is an attorney, community activist, municipal consultant and the Austin Chamber of Commerce Director. She also ran for mayor in 2015. Enyia has a doctorate in public policy and has worked as a public policy advisor for various organizations and community groups. She co-authored the book "Chicago Isn't Broke: Funding the City We Deserve," which includes proposals for fiscally responsible revenue-generation and solving corruption. Enyia has been endorsed by Chance the Rapper and Kanye West.

Bob Fioretti: an attorney and a former 2nd Ward alderman, also ran for mayor in 2015. He served as alderman from 2007 to 2015, but when the ward's map was redistricted, he was pushed outside its boundaries. Prior to his time in office, Fioretti served as the Northern Illinois University's National Alumni Association president from 2000 to 2004. In 2015 Fioretti briefly ran for mayor, but dropped out and endorsed Emanuel. The same year, he campaigned for state Senate in the 5th District but was unsuccessful. He also ran against Preckwinkle for Cook County Board President last year.

La Shawn Ford: an Illinois state representative for the 8th House District on the city's West Side, is a real estate broker and insurance agent. He has represented his district for more than a decade, but plans to step down if he's elected mayor. Ford is the chair of two committees in the general assembly: Financial Institutions and Restorative Justice. He's also a member of several government oversight task forces.

Jerry Joyce, Jr.: is a lobbyist and former assistant Cook County state's attorney. His father is former 19th Ward Alderman and state Senator Jeremiah Joyce, who was a longtime ally of Mayor Richard M. Daley. Jerry Joyce is a former small business owner and is currently in private legal practice. He's served on many local neighborhood and charitable committees in his Beverly neighborhood on the city's Southwest Side.

John Kozlar: an attorney and former alderman candidate, currently works for Aon plc's risk solutions team. At age 21, he unsuccessfully ran for alderman in the 11th Ward, and campaigned for the same position again in 2015, which forced a run-off against Patrick Daley Thompson, who won. Kozlar fundraised just over $1,000 for his 2019 bid for mayor — the lowest amount raised by any candidate.

Lori Lightfoot: former President of the Chicago Police Board, has held various roles in municipal government. Lightfoot was appointed by Emanuel to head the police board in 2015, and to chair the Police Accountability Task Force in 2016 following the shooting of Laquan McDonald. Lightfoot also served as chief of staff for the city's Office of Emergency Management and Communications in 2005. She's been working as a partner at Mayer Brown LLP.

Garry McCarthy: former Superintendent of the Chicago Police Department, was fired by Emanuel in the wake of the murder of 17-year-old McDonald. McCarthy worked as a police officer in New York City from 1981 to 2000, and was promoted to deputy commissioner for operations there until 2006. He was then hired as head of the Newark Police Department, before being hired in 2011 as CPD superintendent. McCarthy was asked to resign in 2015 after the video was released that shows then-officer Jason Van Dyke shooting McDonald 16 times. McCarthy has been endorsed by former Mayor of New York Rudy Giuliani.

Susana Mendoza: who is currently Illinois Comptroller, officially announced her campaign for mayor eight days after she was re-elected to a second term in her current position. In November, a video leaked from her mayoral campaign despite her concurrent run for re-election as comptroller. Mendoza served as an Illinois state representative from 2000 to 2011, then as Chicago city clerk until 2016 when she was elected comptroller. Mendoza has been endorsed by Laura Ricketts, co-owner of the Chicago Cubs.

Toni Preckwinkle: President of the Cook County Board of Commissioners and chair of the Cook County Democratic Party, has a lot of backing from organized labor. She has been board president since 2010, and prior to that served five terms as 4th Ward alderman. Preckwinkle was a big proponent of the unpopular soda tax, which was repealed just months after it went into effect in 2017. Preckwinkle has been endorsed by multiple officeholders in municipal, state and federal levels. She has also been endorsed by the Chicago Teachers Union and Service Employees

Resumen de la Elección para la Alcaldía

Por: Ashmar Mandou

El número de candidatos que corren para la alcaldía de Chicago es el mayor en la historia de la ciudad. Actualmente hay 14 candidatos en la boleta y si ningún candidato recibe más del 50 por ciento de los votos, bajo la ley de las elecciones, los votantes tendrán que depositar sus votos una vez más en una segunda elección el 2 de abril.

Resumen de los Candidatos:

Gerry Chico: abogado, fue jefe de personal del ex Alcalde Richard M. Daley. Fungió también como presidente de la junta de CPS, director del Distrito de Parques de Chicago y presidente de la Junta de los Colegios de la Ciudad de Chicago. Chico corrió para el Senado de E.U. en el 2004 y para la alcaldía en el 2011. Chicago pudo recaudar $1.7 millones para su campaña, quedando solo tras Daley y Preckwinkle en el total de fondos recaudados. Chico ha sido apoyado por el concejal del Distrito 15, Raymond López y por el Concejal del Distrito 14, Edward Burke, quien fue acusado de intento de extorsión.

Bill Daley: es hijo del ex Alcalde Richard J. Daley, quien sirvió por 21 años. El hermano de Bill Daley, Richard M. Daley fue el alcalde de Chicago No. 43, de 1989 al 2011. Bill Daley sirvió como Secretario de Comercio del ex Presidente Bill Clinton, de 1997 al 2000 y como jefe de personal de la Casa Blanca para el ex Presidente Barack Obama, del 2011 al 2012. Bill Daley corrió para gobernador de Illinois en el 2013 pero abandonó la carrera. El ex Vicepresidente Al Gore ha endosado a Daley. También lo hicieron las juntas editoriales de Crian y Chicago Tribune.

Amara Enya: abogada,

activista comunitaria, consultante municipal y Directora de Austin Chamber of Commerce. Corrió también para alcalde en el 2015. Enya tiene un doctorado en política pública y ha trabajado como asesora de política pública para varias organizaciones y grupos comunitarios. Es coautora del libro "Chicago Isn't Broke: Funding the City We Deserve", que incluye propuestas para una generación de ingresos fiscalmente responsable y para solucionar la corrupción. Enya es apoyada por Chance the Rapper y Kanye West.

Bob Fioretti: abogado y ex concejal del distrito 2, también corrió para alcalde en el 2015. Sirvió como concejal del 2007 al 2015, pero al ser redistribuido el mapa del distrito quedó fuera de sus límites. Antes de esta época en la oficina, Fioretti sirvió como presidente de la

The Illinois State Board of Education (ISBE) announced 22 leaders from across the state selected to provide recommendations on increasing teacher diversity and promoting culturally responsive teaching. The Diverse and Learner Ready Teacher (DLRT) Network includes students and representatives from higher education, K-12 classrooms and administration, and policy and advocacy groups. Having teachers of different races and ethnicities benefits all students as they prepare to enter a global society. CCSSO selected Illinois as one of ten states to lead the national Diverse and Learner Ready Teacher initiative. The initiative supports the results of ISBE's Teach Illinois: Strong Teachers, Strong Classrooms project, which proposed solutions to ensure Illinois has a highly qualified and diverse teaching corps across its K-12 classrooms. A few of the Illinois DLRT Network members are:

Live Better with Attainable Goals

Those who set realistic goals can hope for a higher level of well-being. The key for later satisfaction is whether the life goals are seen as attainable and what they mean to the person, as psychologists from the University of Basel report in a study with over 970 participants. Wealth, community, health, meaningful work: life goals express a person's character, as they determine behavior and the compass by which people are guided. It can therefore be assumed that goals can contribute substantially to how satisfied people are in life -- or how dissatisfied if important goals are blocked and cannot be achieved. A team of psychologists from the University of Basel conducted a detailed examination on how life goals are embedded in people's lives across adult; the results are now published in the European Journal of Personality. The researchers used data from 973 people between 18 and 92 years old living in German-speaking parts of Switzerland; more than half of the participants were surveyed again after two and four years. The participants had to assess the importance and the perceived attainability of life goals in ten areas -- health, community, personal growth, social relationships, fame, image, wealth, family, responsibility/care for younger generations, and work -- using a four-point scale.

Exercise in Morning or Afternoon to Shift Your Body Clock Forward

Exercise can shift the human body clock, with the direction and amount of this effect depending on the time of day or night in which people exercise. That's according to new research in published in The Journal of Physiology. These findings suggest exercise could counter the effects of jet lag, shift work, and other disruptions to the body's internal clock (e.g. military deployments) helping individuals adjust to shifted schedules. The circadian "body" clock is the 24-hour cycle that regulates many physiological processes including sleeping and eating. Many factors affect this internal body clock including light and time cues. Exercise has been known to cause shifts in the circadian clock however very little is known about this effect. This study found that exercising at 7 am or between 1 and 4 pm advanced the body clock to an earlier time, and exercising between 7 and 10 pm delayed the body clock to a later time. Exercising between 1 and 4 am and at 10 am, however, had little effect on the body clock, and the phase-shifting effects of exercise did not differ based on age nor gender. The researchers at University of California, San Diego and Arizona State University examined body clocks following exercise in 101 participants for up to five and a half days.

Hacer Ejercicio en la Mañana o en la Tarde Hace Avanzar el Reloj de tu Cuerpo

El ejercicio puede impulsar el reloj del cuerpo humano y la dirección y la cantidad de este efecto depende del tiempo del día o la noche en que la gente hace ejercicio. Esto es de acuerdo a una nueva investigación publicada en The Journal of Physiology. Estos hallazgos sugieren que el ejercicio podría contrarrestar los efectos del jet lag, el turno de trabajo y otras interrupciones del reloj interno del cuerpo (ej. despliegues militares) ayudando a las personas a adaptarse al cambio de horario. El reloj circadiano del cuerpo es el ciclo de 24 horas que regula muchos procesos fisiológicos, incluyendo el sueño y la alimentación. Muchos factores afectan este reloj interno del cuerpo, incluyendo la luz y la hora. Se sabe que el ejercicio causa cambios en el reloj circadiano, sin embargo poco se sabe sobre este efecto. Este estudio encontró que hacer ejercicio a las 7 a.m. o entre 1 y 4 p.m., mueve el reloj del cuerpo a una hora más temprana y el ejercicio entre las 7 y las 10 p.m. demora el reloj del cuerpo a hora más tarde. El ejercicio entre la 1 y las 4 a.m. y a las 10 a.m., sin embargo, tiene poco efecto en el reloj del cuerpo y el efecto de cambio de fase del ejercicio no difiere por edad ni género. Los investigadores de la Universidad de California, San Diego y Arizona State University examinaron los relojes del cuerpo tras el ejercicio de 101 participantes por hasta cinco y medio días.

Vive Mejor con Metas Alcanzables

Las personas que se fijan metas realísticas pueden esperar un nivel más alto de bienestar. La clave para una satisfacción más tarde es si las metas son alcanzables y lo que significan para la persona, como reportan psicólogos de la Universidad de Basel en un estudio hecho con más de 970 participantes. El bienestar, la comunidad, la salud, un trabajo significativo: las metas de la vida expresan el carácter de una persona, ya que determinan el comportamiento y la brújula por la que la gente se guía. Por lo tanto puede asumirse que las metas pueden contribuir substancialmente a cuan satisfecha está la gente en la vida -- o cuan poco satisfecha si las metas importantes quedan bloqueadas y no se pueden lograr. Un equipo de psicólogos de la Universidad de Basel condujo un detallado examen sobre cómo se integran las metas de la vida en la vida de las personas hasta la edad adulta; los resultados se han publicado en European Journal of Personality. Los investigadores utilizaron datos de 973 personas entre 18 y 92 años de edad viviendo en partes de Suiza donde se hablaba alemán; más de la

Heart-Healthy Foods

By: Ashmar Mandou

Heart disease accounts for nearly one-third of all deaths worldwide. Diet plays a major role in heart health and can impact your risk of heart disease. In fact, certain foods can influence blood pressure, cholesterol levels and inflammation, all of which are risk factors for heart disease. Here are a few foods that you should be eating to maximize your heart health.

Leafy Green Vegetables Leafy green vegetables like spinach, kale and collard greens are well-known for their wealth of vitamins, minerals and antioxidants. In particular, they're a great source of vitamin K, which helps protect your arteries and promote proper blood clotting. They're also high in dietary nitrates, which have been shown to reduce blood pressure, decrease arterial stiffness and improve the function of cells lining the blood vessels.

Whole Grains

Whole grains include all three nutrient-rich parts of the grain: germ, endosperm and bran. Common types of whole grains include whole wheat, brown rice, oats, rye, barley, buckwheat and quinoa. Compared to refined grains, whole grains are higher in fiber, which may help reduce "bad" LDL cholesterol and decrease the risk of heart disease.

Alimentos Saludables para el Corazón

Las enfermedades cardíacas suman cerca de una tercera parte de las muertes a nivel mundial. La dieta juega un papel importante en la salud del corazón y puede impactar su riesgo de enfermedades cardíacas. De hecho, ciertos alimentos pueden influenciar en la presión arterial, los niveles de colesterol y la inflamación, todos los cuales son factores de riesgo para las enfermedades cardíacas. A continuación unos cuantos alimentos que debería comer para maximizar su salud del corazón.

Vegetales de Hojas Verdes

Los vegetales de hojas verdes, como la espinaca, la col rizada y el collard son conocidos por su contenido de vitaminas, minerales y antioxidantes. En particular son una gran fuente de vitamina K, que ayuda a proteger sus arterias y promover la coagulación sanguínea adecuada. También son altas en nitratos dietéticos, los que han probado reducir la presión arterial, disminuir la rigidez arterial y mejorar la función de las células que cubren los vasos sanguíneos.

Granos Enteros

Los granos enteros incluyen las tres partes nutritivas de los granos: germen, endosperma y salvado. Los tipos común de granos enteros incluyen, trigo entero, arroz moreno, avena, centeno, cebada, trigo sarraceno y quinoa. Comparados con los granos refinados, los granos enteros son más altos en fibra, lo que puede ayudar a reducir el colesterol "malo" y disminuir el riesgo de un ataque cardíaco.

Bayas (berries)

Las fresas, los arándanos, las moras y las frambuesas están repletas de importantes nutrientes que juegan un papel central en la salud del corazón. Las bayas son también ricas en antioxidantes, como la antocianina, que protege contra el estrés oxidante y la inflamación, que contribuye al desarrollo de las enfermedades cardíacas. Estudios muestran que comer muchas bayas puede reducir varios factores de riesgo para las enfermedades cardíacas.

Aguacates

Los aguacates son una excelente fuente de grasa monoinsaturada saludable para el corazón y se ha vinculado con la reducción de los niveles de colesterol y la disminución al riesgo de un ataque cardíaco. Un estudio hecho sobre los efectos de tres dietas que bajan el colesterol en 45 personas obesas

o con sobrepeso, con uno de los grupos de prueba consumiendo un aguacate por día, dio como resultado que el grupo del aguacate experimentó reducciones en el colesterol "malo" incluyendo menos niveles de colesterol denso, que se cree elevan considerablemente el riesgo de un ataque cardíaco.

Ajo

Por siglos, el ajo ha sido utilizado como remedio natural para tratar una gran variedad de enfermedades. En años recientes, las investigaciones han confirmado sus potentes propiedades medicinales y encontrado que el ajo puede inclusive ayudar a mejorar la salud del corazón. Esto es gracias a la presencia de un compuesto llamado alicina que se cree tiene una multitud de efectos terapéuticos.

Representative Theresa Mah, Hilario Dominguez Call for Investigation into Reported Ballot Theft in Chinatown

By: Ashmar Mandou

State Representative Theresa Mah and 25th Ward candidate Hilario Dominguez called on the Board of Elections to investigate reports of ballot theft among Chinatown seniors. These reports come less than a week before Election Day, providing limited time to ensure hundreds of eligible seniors can exercise their right to vote. "To see a political candidate take advantage of Chinese seniors in this way is unacceptable," said Representative Theresa Mah. "I am deeply concerned that hundreds of seniors in The Chinatown Elderly Apartments and similar facilities throughout the area have been disenfranchised from their right to vote, Chinatown Elderly Apartments. This letter is a ballot. You have already voted; you do not need to vote again. [Editor's note: Personal information was omitted from the translation to protect the privacy of the individual] and I urge the Board of Elections to investigate immediately."

A senior in the Chinatown Elderly Apartments reported that two supporters of Byron Sigcho-Lopez went door to door checking IDs last month. Allegedly, residents were not told at the time that these two individuals were using the information to apply for mail-in ballots. This past Wednesday, after the ballots had arrived, one of the same individuals went door to door to collect ballots that had not been completed. One senior found this strange and challenged the woman, who stated that the senior was required to vote for Sigcho-Lopez because she had previously accepted a meal, and that she did not need to fill out the ballot herself because someone else would take care of it. Still suspicious, the senior asked for a receipt for her ballot, including the ballot number of the candidate who would receive her vote, and the contact information for the individual collecting the blank ballots.

"The fact that any campaign would intentionally manipulate the votes of vulnerable senior citizens is troubling," said Hilario Dominguez. "But for this to come from a candidate who has attempted to brand himself as a progressive, it is outright appalling. I'm calling on Byron to denounce this behavior, and work with the Board of Elections to return these incomplete ballots to the voters." This follows a series of reports from various residents of the same senior building as well as another residential complex in Chinatown. In one instance in December, it appears that nearly 100 seniors were brought to Phoenix Restaurant for a free meal in return for an agreement for vote for Sigcho-Lopez, allegedly. Earlier this week, seniors at the Archer Courts apartment complex reported that they were called to attend a gathering organized by the Sigcho-Lopez campaign in the complex's activity room, where they were given goody bags in exchange for their vote.

La Representante Theresa Mah e Hilario Domínguez Piden una Investigación Sobre el Robo de Boletas Reportado en Chinatown

Por: Ashmar Mandou

La Representante Estatal Theresa Mah y el candidato al Distrito 25, Hilario Domínguez, pidieron a la Junta de Elecciones que investigue reportes del robo de boletas entre los ciudadanos mayores de Chinatown. Estos reportes llegan a menos de una semana antes del Día de Elecciones dando un tiempo límite para garantizar que cientos de ciudadanos mayores elegibles pueden ejercer su derecho al voto. "Ver que un candidato político se aprovecha de esta forma de las personas mayores chinas es inaceptable", dijo la Representante Theresa Mah. "Estoy profundamente preocupada de que cientos de personas mayores de Chinatown Elderly Apartments e instalaciones similares del área hayan sido despojados de su derecho al voto y exhorto a la Junta de Elecciones a que se investigue inmediatamente".

Un ciudadano senior de Chinatown Elderly Apartments reportó que dos simpatizantes de Byron Sigcho-López fueron el mes pasado, de puerta en puerta, revisando las identificaciones (IDs). Supuestamente no se informó a los residentes en esta ocasión quienes eran esas dos personas que estaban utilizando la información para solicitar boletas de votación vía e-mail. El pasado miércoles, después que las boletas llegaron, uno de los mismos individuos fue de puerta en puerta para recoger las boletas que no habían sido completadas. Un ciudadano senior encontró esto extraño y retó a la mujer, quien declaró que se le pedía al senior que votara por Sigcho-López, porque ya había anteriormente aceptado una comida y que no tenía necesidad de llenar la boleta ella misma, porque alguien se iba a encargar de hacerlo. Todavía sospechando, la persona le pidió un recibo por la boleta, incluyendo el número de la boleta del candidato que iba a recibir su voto y la información para comunicarse con

Produced by Common Purpose, brought by many Chicago foundations - Chicago 200 will convene young people from across the metropolitan area to brainstorm, test and refine their visions for the city in response to the program's big question: "What will we make our city known for by its 200th birthday?" National Emergency Sparks Outrage

Caption by Ashmar Mandou

Protesters took over the Federal Plaza on President's Day to oppose President Donald Trump's declaration of a national emergency on the country's southern border. The declaration empowers Trump to mobilize the military and access billions of dollars in funds to construct border walls and barriers. The rally was organized by Indivisible Chicago with partners The Illinois Coalition for Immigrant and Refugee Rights, Women's March Chicago, SEIU Healthcare IL to name a few. “We reject the so-called compromise legislation not only because the GOP negotiated in bad faith but also because it's bad policy. This deal on border security expands funding and other resources for a system that has recklessly separated families without tracking the children they kidnapped from parents, physically abused those seeking asylum, and denied access through lies and deception,” Indivisible Chicago released in a statement.

la persona que estaba recogiendo las boletas en blanco.

“El hecho de que cualquier campaña manipule intencionalmente los votos de los vulnerables ciudadanos senior es preocupante”, dijo Hilario Domínguez. “Pero que esto venga venga de un candidato que ha intentado catalogarse como progresivo, es absolutamente atroz. Pido a Byron que denuncie este comportamiento y que trabaje con la Junta de Elecciones para regresar estas boletas incompletas a los votantes”. Esto sigue a una serie de reportes de varios residentes del mismo edificio de ciudadanos senior, así como de otro complejo residencial en Chinatown. En un caso en diciembre, aparece que cerca de 100 ciudadanos senior fueron llevados a Phoenix Restaurant para disfrutar de una comida gratis a cambio de un acuerdo de que votaran por Sigcho-Lopez, supuestamente. A principios de esta semana, un ciudadano senior del complejo de apartamentos Archer Courts reportó haber sido llamado para asistir a una reunión organizada por la campaña de Sigcho-Lopez en el salón de actividades del complejo, donde les entregaron regalo a cambio de su voto.

raspberries are jam-packed with important nutrients that play a central role in heart health. Berries are also rich in antioxidants like anthocyanins, which protect against the oxidative stress and inflammation that contribute to the development of heart disease. Studies show that eating lots of berries can reduce several risk factors for heart disease.

Avocados

Avocados are an excellent source of heart-healthy monounsaturated fats, which have been linked to reduced levels of cholesterol and a lower risk of heart disease. One study looked at the effects of three cholesterol-lowering diets in 45 overweight and obese people, with one of the test groups consuming one avocado per day. The avocado group experienced reductions in “bad” LDL cholesterol, including lower levels of small, dense LDL cholesterol, which are believed to significantly raise the risk of heart disease.

Garlic

For centuries, garlic has been used as a natural remedy to treat a variety of ailments. In recent years, research has confirmed its potent medicinal properties and found that garlic can even help improve heart health. This is thanks to the presence of a compound called allicin, which is believed to have a multitude of therapeutic effects.

POLITICAL SIDEBAR

Compiled by Ashmar Mandou

Political Sidebar is a weekly round-up of commentary from elected officials around the Chicagoland area discussing topical issues affecting their communities.

Congressman Jesús "Chuy" García Releases Remarks on Funding for ICE and CBP

Congressman García released the following statement after voting against the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2019: "I acknowledge and appreciate the hard-fought compromise that Democratic conferees sought to achieve while crafting this legislation. This bill contains several positive measures including provisions for affordable housing vouchers, funds for Central American aid, and funds for additional immigration judges to reduce the backlog of case adjudications. Additional funds were included for the first time in history to introduce humanitarian relief requirements within Customs and Border Protection (CBP) practices. "However, I cannot support giving additional funds to build the President's border barrier or wall, nor vote to increase enforcement activities by increasing the total base-level funding for detention center beds."

Alderman Gilbert Villegas Responds to WBEZ Report on Water Access

"We need to get harmful lead out of the public water supply yesterday, and the fact that Chicago politics have still kept lead in our water supply is disgusting. My work on this issue with Ald. Waguespack and Ald. Taliaferro to try to identify revenue sources to fund lead abatement is just the start."

Latino Caucus Sounds Off on

President Trump's Emergency at the Border

"Donald Trump's fabricated emergency at the border is a disgrace to the fundamental principles of our democracy. This is nothing more than theatre to distract for his inability to lead and work with Congress to enact comprehensive reforms to our broken immigration system. It is absolutely shameful for the president to fabricate a crisis for the sake of continuing to push his bigoted agenda. As legislators from a state with nearly two million immigrants, we urge the Illinois congressional delegation to act immediately and protect our system of government by initiating the process of rejecting this manufactured crisis and if necessary asking the courts to block the undemocratic actions of Donald Trump."

State Rep. Camille Y. Lilly Fights to Expand Access to Mental Services for Families

"If you don't have your health, you don't have much else," said Rep. Lilly. "Everyone needs help along the way eventually, and I believe it is important to take a proactive role prevent people from suffering from their ills." Rep. Lilly's House Bill 2247 asks the Department of Human Services (DHS) to create local family centers across Illinois to serve families who rely on counseling and mental health services.

Assistant Majority Leader Tony

Munoz Applauds Wage Law

"In order to move our state forward, there needs to be a commitment to the work force that keeps our businesses going," said Munoz. "Our people are our most important asset, and we have a responsibility to take care of them first." The measure also increases the minimum wage for individuals under the age of 18 but at a slower pace, going from $9.25 on Jan. 1st, 2020 to $12 on Jan. 1st, 2022 to $15 on and after Jan. 1st, 2025.

BARRA POLITICA

Recopilado por Ashmar Mandou

Barra Política es un resumen semanal de comentarios de los funcionarios electos del área de Chicago, discutiendo temas de actualidad que afectan a sus comunidades.

El Congresista Jesús "Chuy" García Publica Comentarios sobre Fondos para ICE y CBP

El Congresista García publicó las siguientes declaraciones después de votar contra el Acta de Apropiações Consolidadas del 2019: "Reconozco y aprecio el fuerte compromiso que los conferencistas demócratas buscaron lograr mientras formulaban esta legislación. Este proyecto contiene varias medidas positivas, incluyendo provisiones para vales para vivienda asequible, fondos para ayuda centroamericana y fondos para jueces adicionales de inmigración, para reducir el rezago de la adjudicación de casos. Se incluyeron fondos adicionales por primera vez en la historia para introducir requisitos de ayuda humanitaria dentro de la práctica de Customs and Border Protection (CBP). "Sin embargo, no puedo ayudar a dar fondos adicionales para construir el muro de la frontera del Presidente, ni votar por aumentar las actividades de la aplicación de la ley, mediante el aumento del financiamiento total para camas de centros de detención".

El Concejal Gilbert Villegas Responde al Reporte de WBEZ sobre el Acceso al Agua

"Necesitábamos habaer sacado el plomo dañino del suministro público de agua ayer, y el hecho de que la política de Chicago haya mantenido el plomo en nuestro suministro de agua es asqueroso. Mi trabajo sobre eate tema con el Concejal Waguespack y el Concejal Taliaferro para tratar de identificar fuentes de ingreso para patrocinar los fondos para la limpieza del plomo es solo el comienzo".

Caucus Latino Hace Caso Omiso a la Emergencia de

Presidente Trump en la Frontera

"La emergencia fabricada por Donald Trump en la frontera es una desgracia a los principios fundamentales de nuestra democracia. Esto no es nada más que teatro para distraer su incapacidad para dirigir y trabajar con el Congreso para promulgar reformas completas para nuestro fragmentado sistema de inmigración. Es absolutamente vergonzoso que el presidente fabrique una crisis solo para continuar pugnando su intolerante agenda. Como legisladores del estado, con cerca de dos millones de inmigrantes, exhortamos a la delegación congresional de Illinois para que actúe inmediatamente y proteja nuestro sistema del gobierno, iniciando el proceso de rechazar esta crisis fabricada y si es necesario pedir a las cortes que bloqueen las acciones antidemocráticas de Donald Trump".

La Rep. Estatal Camille Y. Lilly Lucha por Ampliar el Acceso de las Familias a Servicios Mentales

"Si no gozas de salud, no gozas de nada más", dijo la Rep. Lilly. "Todos necesitamos ayuda eventualmente y yo creo que es importante tomar un papel proactivo para evitar que la gente sufra por sus enfermedades". Pide el Proyecto de la Cámara 2247 de la Rep. Lilly al Departamento de Servicios Humanos (DHS) para crear centros familiares locales en Illinois para atender a las familias que dependen de consejería y servicios de salud mental.

El Líder Asistente Auxiliar de las Mayorías, Tony Muñoz, Aplauda la Ley del Salario

"Para hacer que nuestro estado siga adelante, necesitamos comprometernos con la fuerza laboral que mantiene activos nuestros negocios", dio Muñoz. "Nuestra gente es nuestro haber más importante y tenemos la responsabilidad de cuidar de ella antes que nada". La medida aumenta también el salario mínimo para personas menores de 18 años, pero a un ritmo más lento, de $9.25 el 1° de enero del 2020 a $12 el 1° de enero del 2022 a $15 en y después del 1° de enero del 2025.

Willie Wilson is a wealthy businessman who owns several McDonald's restaurants and founded a medical supply company. He ran for mayor in 2015 and president in 2016. Last year Wilson was accused by opponents of buying votes after he gave away cash from his charitable foundation at community events and church to help people pay for property taxes. The Illinois State Board of Elections ruled that he did not violate any campaign finance laws, however. Wilson has been endorsed by the Cook County Republican Party and several other GOP groups.

Kozlar recaudó solo más de $1,000 para su propuesta para alcalde del 2019 – la cantidad más baja recaudada por un candidato.

Lori Lightfoot: Ex presidente de la Junta de Policía de Chicago ha tenido varios papeles en el gobierno municipal. Lightfoot fue nombrada por Emanuel para encabezar la junta de policía en el 2015 y para dirigir el Grupo Especial de Responsabilidad Policial

Garry McCarthy: Ex superintendente del Departamento de Policía de Chicago, fue despedido por Emanuel a raíz del asesinato de McDonald, de 17 años. McCarthy trabajó como oficial de policía en la Ciudad de Nueva York, de 1981 al 2000 y fue promovido a comisionado diputado de operaciones ahí hasta el 2006. Después fue contratado como director del Departamento de Policía de Newark, antes de ser contratado en el 2011 como superintendente CPD. A McCarthy se le pidió renunciar en el 2015 después de publicarse el video que mostraba al entonces oficial Jason VanDike disparando 16 veces contra McDonald. McCarthy es apoyado por el ex Alcalde de Nueva York, Rudy Giuliani.

Susana Mendoza: quien actualmente es Interventora de Illinois, anunció oficialmente su campaña para alcaldesa ocho días después de haber sido reelegida a un segundo término en su actual posición. En noviembre se filtró un video de su campaña para la alcaldía a pesar de que corría para la re-elección como interventora. Mendoza sirvió como representante estatal de Illinois del 2000 al 2011, después como secretaria de la ciudad de Chicago hasta el 2016 cuando fue elegida interventora. Mendoza ha sido apoyada por Laura Ricketts, co-propietaria de Chicago Cubs.

Condado de Cook, tiene mucho respaldo del trabajo organizado. Ha sido presidenta de la junta desde el 2010 y antes de eso sirvió cinco términos como concejal del Distrito 4. Preckwinkle fue una gran proponente del inpopular impuesto a la soda, que fue retirado solo meses después de haber entrado en efecto en el 2017. También ha sido apoyada por el Sindicato de Maestros de Chicago y el Sindicato Internacional de Empleados de Servicio Local 1.

Sin embargo, la Junta de Elecciones del Estado de Illinois declaró que no violó ninguna ley de finanzas de campaña. The balance, including the Judicial Sale fee for the Abandoned Residential Property Municipality Relief Fund, which is calculated on residential real estate at the rate of $1 for each $1,000 or fraction thereof of the amount paid by the purchaser not to exceed $300, in certified funds/or wire transfer, is due within twenty-four (24) hours. No fee shall be paid by the mortgagee acquiring the residential real estate pursuant to its credit bid at the sale or by any mortgagee, judgment creditor, or other lienor acquiring the residential real estate whose rights in and to the residential real estate arose prior to the sale.

The subject property is subject to general real estate taxes, special assessments, or special taxes levied against said real estate and is offered for sale without any representation as to quality or quantity of title and without recourse to Plaintiff and in "AS IS" condition. The sale is further subject to confirmation by the court. Upon payment in full of the amount bid, the purchaser will receive a Certificate of Sale that will entitle the purchaser to a deed to the real estate after confirmation of the sale.

The property will NOT be open for inspection and plaintiff makes no representation as to the condition of the property. Prospective bidders are admonished to check the court file to verify all information.

If this property is a condominium unit, the purchaser of the unit at the foreclosure sale, other than a mortgagee, shall pay the assessments and the legal fees required by The Condominium Property Act, 765 ILCS 605/9(g)(1) and (g)(4). If this property is a condominium unit which is part of a common interest community, the purchaser of the unit at the foreclosure sale other than a mortgagee shall pay the assessments required by The Condominium Property Act, 765 ILCS 605/18.5(g-1).

IF YOU ARE THE MORTGAGOR (HOMEOWNER), YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO REMAIN IN POSSESSION FOR 30 DAYS AFTER ENTRY OF AN ORDER OF POSSESSION, IN ACCORDANCE WITH SECTION 15-1701(C) OF THE ILLINOIS MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE LAW.

You will need a photo identification issued by a government agency (driver's license, passport, etc.) in order to gain entry into our building and the foreclosure sale room in Cook County and the same identification for sales held at other county venues where The Judicial Sales Corporation conducts foreclosure sales.
