Senators Announce Groundbreaking Reproductive Health Bill

By: Ashmar Mandou

U.S. Senators Tammy Duckworth (D-IL), Patty Murray (D-WA), Mazie Hirono (D-HI), Kamala Harris (D-CA), Jeanne Shaheen (D-NH), Kirsten Gillibrand (D-NY), Richard Blumenthal (D-CT), Ron Wyden (D-OR), Tina Smith (D-MN), Jacky Rosen (D-NV) and Amy Klobuchar (D-MN) introduced legislation on Tuesday, March 12th protecting every woman's constitutionally-guaranteed right to reproductive healthcare and helping ensure access to care to each woman, regardless of income, race or where in the country they may live. The Equal Access to Abortion Coverage in Health Insurance (EACH) Woman Act—which was also introduced in the House by U.S. Representatives Barbara Lee (CA-13), Jan Schakowsky (IL-09) and Diana DeGette (CO-01)—would lift the prohibition in current law preventing women who receive their health coverage through government-sponsored plans such as Medicaid, Medicare and the DOD from obtaining legal healthcare services.

“The Supreme Court has repeatedly affirmed women's constitutional right to make their own reproductive decisions, making clear that the government has no place getting in between women and their doctors,” Duckworth said. “But for decades, conservative lawmakers have worked to whittle down that constitutionally-protected right to the point where it's now effectively inaccessible for low-income women who rely on Medicaid, for female service members and for millions more women nationwide. The Supreme Court didn't protect these rights only for wealthy women, and they didn't say only for women who live in certain states. That kind of discrimination is not right, not fair and it's certainly not equal—so I'm proud to join my colleagues in introducing the EACH Woman Act so that every woman in this country has equal access to her constitutionally-protected rights, no matter her income, her race or her zip code.” Duckworth recently spoke on the Senate floor urging her colleagues to vote against S.311, GOP legislation that could have scared doctors into performing ineffective, inappropriate procedures on fetuses born with fatal abnormalities, even if such treatment went against recommended standards of care and was against the best interests of the child and the expectant mother. Duckworth also helped introduce legislation with Senators Murray and Bob Casey (D-PA) to safeguard a woman's access to birth control against the Trump Administration's efforts to make it harder for women to access contraceptive coverage.

“Though the Trump Administration is bending over backwards to erase reproductive rights for women, the EACH Woman Act takes a giant and important leap forward. I am proud to once again introduce legislation that will allow every woman to make her own health care decisions regardless of her income, her race, where she works, or how she gets her insurance,” said Schakowsky.

“The Hyde Amendment has impacted millions of women across this nation for far too long, and I am glad that my colleagues in the Senate have now joined us to say: enough is enough. Comprehensive health care is a human right, and the EACH Woman Act affirms that promise.”

Bridgeview Venue Renamed SeatGeek Stadium at Ribbon-Cutting

Bridgeview's multipurpose venue was renamed SeatGeek Stadium during a ribbon cutting ceremony Thursday, with officials from the village and venue promising to bring news entertainment performances. The venue is already home to the Chicago Fire and Chicago Red Stars. SeatGeek is a mobile-focused ticketing platform that provides tickets to sporting events, entertainment and concert performances throughout the country. Formerly called "Toyota Park," the new SeatGeek Stadium is the first to carry the online ticketing company's name. Officials from SeatGeek said they will work with Bridgeview to bring in more big name entertainers in coming years to the stadium which was first built in 2006 and is the home stadium for the Chicago Fire, who host its first home game this season on Saturday. Major events scheduled in the coming months in addition to Chicago Fire and Red Star games includes music festival Chicago Open Air, the Nitro Circus Live and a visit from the new Premier Lacrosse League.

Bridgeview Venue Nombrado SeatGeek Stadium en el Corte de Cinta

El Centro de Eventos Bridgeview fue renombrado SeatGeek Stadium durante una ceremonia del corte de cinta, el jueves, en la que funcionarios de la villa y el lugar prometieron llevar nuevos actos de entretenimiento. El lugar es ya sede de Chicago Fire y Chicago Red Stars. SeatGeek es una plataforma de venta de entradas para dispositivos móviles que ofrece boletos para eventos deportivos, de entretenimiento y conciertos en todo el país. Anteriormente llamado "Toyota Park", el nuevo SeatGeek Stadium es el primero en llevar el nombre de la compañía de venta de boletos en línea. Funcionarios de SeatGeek dijeron que trabajarán con Bridgeview para llevar al estadio, en los próximos años, intérpretes de gran renombre, estadio que fue construido en el 2006 y es el estadio sede del Chicago Fire, quien presenta su primer juego de esta temporada, el sábado. Eventos principales programados en los próximos meses, además de los juegos del Chicago Fire y el Red Star incluyen el festival musical Chicago Open Air, el Nitro Circus Live y una visita de la nueva Liga Première LaCrosse.

Humana Opens New Community Center

By: Ashmar Mandou

Earlier this month, Humana opened a new community location in Norridge dedicated to providing an array of services, such as cooking demonstrations, exercise classes, and social activities. Lawndale Bilingual Newspaper recently interviewed Associate Director for Humana community locations Daryl Fohr to discuss what people can expect to see when they enter the new location.

Lawndale Bilingual News: Talk to me about the inspiration behind the Humana community location?

Daryl Fohr: Humana is dedicated to improving the health and well-being of the communities we serve. We want to break down barriers to health and provide in Norridge is part of a companywide effort to bring our health and well-being goals to life, and offer a real resource for the community.

What can visitors expect to learn from the Humana community location?

The new location is a resource that's open to the public. It's a place where community members can go and take advantage of programs and classes and resources at no charge – Humana membership is not required for most activities - and make friends, have fun, and engage in healthy activities. We offer cooking demonstrations, exercise classes, educational seminars (such as “Ten Tips for Better Sleep” or “COPD: Breathe Easier”), and social activities (including crafts, bingo, and coloring for relaxation). When you stop by the center, you can pick up an activities schedule we’ve compiled for each month. In addition, anyone with a Humana health plan can get help with customer service questions from an on-site Humana representative.

What is the most rewarding component of creating this type of space?

Norridge is a wonderful community and we’re excited to become a part of it. At our other community locations in 18 states across the country, it’s been rewarding to hear from folks who say they made new friends, learned a skill, or began to incorporate exercise into their lives because they found a class they really liked. To be able to serve the community in this way is a privilege.

For those interested in checking out the new space, what would you like for them to know?

We welcome all members of the community to our new center at Harlem Irving Plaza (at Center Court near Gloria Jean’s Coffee and near entrances “C” and “H” from the parking garage). No appointment is needed, so we invite everyone to stop each Tuesday from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. For more information, your readers can call 331-315-5219.

femeninos de servicio y para millones de mujeres más a nivel nacional. La Corte Suprema no protege estos derechos solo para la mujer con dinero, y no dijeron que solo para mujeres que viven en ciertos estados. Esa clase de discriminación no es correcta, no es justa y ciertamente no es equitativa – por lo que me enorgullezco de unirme a mis colegas en presentar el Acta EACH Women, para que toda mujer de este país, tenga igual acceso a sus derechos protegidos por la constitución, sin importar su ingreso, su raza o su zona postal”.

Duckworth habló recientemente en el Senado exhortando a sus colegas a que voten contra la legislación W.311, GOP Legislación que podría haber asustado a los médicos de realizar procedimientos ineficaces e inadecuados en fetos nacidos con anomalías fatales, aún cuando tal tratamiento fuera contra las normas recomendadas de cuidado y contra los mejores intereses del niño y la madre embarazada. Duckworth ayudó también a presentar la legislación con los Senadores Murray y Bob Casey (D-PA) para salvaguardar el acceso de la mujer al control de la natalidad contra los esfuerzos de la Administración Trump de hacer más difícil el que la mujer tenga acceso a cobertura anticonceptiva. Aunque la Administración de Trump está echándose para atrás para borrar los derechos reproductivos de la mujer, el Acta EACH Women da un paso gigantesco e importante. Me siento orgullosa de introducir una vez más esta legislación que permitirá que toda mujer haga sus propias decisiones sobre su cuidado de salud, sin importar su ingreso, su raza, donde trabaja o como consigue su seguro de salud”, dijo Schakowsky. La Enmienda Escondida ha impactado a millones de mujeres de esta nación, por demasiado tiempo y me alegro que mis colegas en el Senado se nos hayan unido para decir: Basta. El cuidado de salud integral es un derecho humano y el Acta EACH Woman afirma esa promesa”.

Humana Abre Nuevo Centro Comunitario

Por: Ashmar Mandou

A principios de este mes, Humana abrió un nuevo centro comunitario en Norridge, dedicado a proveer una gran variedad de servicios, como demostraciones de cocina, clases de ejercicios y actividades sociales. Lawndale Bilingual Newspaper entrevistó recientemente al Director Asociado de los lugares comunitarios de Humana, Daryl Fohr, para discutir lo que la gente puede esperar cuando entren al nuevo lugar.

Lawndale Bilingual News: Hábleme sobre la inspiración tras la ubicación de la comunidad de Humana

Daryl Fohr: Humana está dedicada a mejorar la salud y el bienestar de las comunidades a quienes servimos. Queremos quitar las barreras a la salud y brindar recursos cerca a donde vive la gente. Por lo que estamos entusiasmados de confirmar nuestro compromiso con el área local, abriendo este nuevo centro comunitario en Harlem Irving Plaza, lo que es nuestro segundo centro comunitario en el Condado de Cook – abrimos un centro en Evergreen Plaza en Evergreen Park, el verano pasado. También tenemos otros dos centros comunitarios en Illinois, uno en Yorktown Center en Lombard y otro en Peoria. ¿Cómo espera que este nuevo servicio transforme la vida de los miembros de la comunidad?

No es suficiente decir solo que queremos ayudar a que la gente está “más saludable” – nuestro nuevo centro en Norridge es parte de un esfuerzo de la compañía de hacer realidad nuestras metas de salud y bienestar y ofrecer un verdadero recurso a la comunidad.

¿Que puede esperar aprender del centro comunitario Humana las personas que visiten Humana?

El nuevo local es un recurso abierto al público. Es un lugar donde los miembros de la comunidad pueden ir y aprovechar programas y clases y recursos en forma gratuita – Para la mayoría de las actividades no se requiere la membresía de Humana – y puede hacer amigos, divertirse y participar en actividades saludables. ofrecemos demostraciones de cocina, clases de ejercicios, seminarios educativos (como “Diez Consejos para Dormir Mejor” o “COPD: Respire Mejor”), y actividades sociales (incluyendo artesanías, bingo y colorear para relajarse). Cuando pase por el centro puede tomar un programa de actividades que hemos recopilado para cada mes. Además, cualquier persona con un plan de salud Humana puede obtener ayuda con preguntas de servicio al cliente de un representante de Humana.

Norridge es una maravillosa comunidad y estamos entusiasmados de ser parte de ella. En nuestros otros locales comunitarios, en 18 estados del país, es gratificante oír a las personas que dicen que han hecho nuevos amigos, aprendido una destreza o comenzado a incorporar el ejercicio a su vida, porque encontraron una clase que verdaderamente les gustaba. Poder servir a la comunidad de esta manera es un privilegio.

Para los interesados en conocer el nuevo centro, ¿Qué le gustaría decirles?

Damos la bienvenida a todos los miembros de la comunidad a nuestro nuevo centro en Harlem Irving Plaza (en el Centro del Mall, cerca de Gloria Jean's Coffee y las entradas “C” y “H” del estacionamiento). No se necesita hacer cita, les invitamos a pasar todos los martes, de 9:00 a.m. a 3:00 p.m. Para más información, las personas interesadas pueden llamar al 331-315-5219. Crédito de Foto: Humana

Posible Exposición de Salmonela en Tienda de Abarrotes de Chicago

El Departamento de Salud Pública (CDPH) está investigando un brote de Salmonela, bacteria que es causa común de envenenamiento por alimentos. Por lo menos seis personas asociadas con el brote consumieron carnisas u otros alimentos comprados el 23 o 24 de febrero del 2019 en la cocina del Super Mercado Rivera, localizado en el 4334 W. 51st St., Chicago. Si usted ha comprado carnisas u otros alimentos del mostrador de la cocina de este establecimiento el 23 o el 24 de febrero y las tiene en su congelador, no las coma – tírelas. CDPH llevó a cabo una evaluación ambiental de la tienda de abarrotes y ofreció una guía sobre prácticas seguras para manejar los alimentos y limpieza ambiental para evitar la proliferación de la enfermedad. Los artículos alimenticios implicados ya no estaban en la tienda el 1º de marzo del 2019 y a partir de entonces no hay evidencia de que los alimentos hechos después de esta fecha hayan estado contaminados. CDPH ha expedido una alerta a los doctores del área sobre el brote, para que faciliten consejo médico. Para más información sobre la Salmonela, visite la red de CDC en www.cdc.gov. Se aconseja a las personas llamar al 312-746-7425.

Potential Salmonella Exposure at Chicago Grocery Store

The Chicago Department of Public Health (CDPH) is investigating an outbreak of Salmonella, a bacterium that is a common cause of food poisoning. carnitas or other food purchased from the kitchen counter at this establishment on February 23 or 24 in your freezer, do not eat—discard. CDPH performed an environmental assessment of the grocery store and provided guidance on safe food handling practices and environmental cleaning to prevent further spread of disease. Implicated food items were no longer available at the store as of March 1, 2019 and at this point there is no evidence that food made after this date was contaminated. CDPH has also issued an alert to area physicians about the outbreak, providing medical guidance. For more information on Salmonella, go to the CDC website at www.cdc.gov. 500th Veteran Graduates from Gas Utility Workers Training Program

Last Thursday, the Utility Workers Military Assistance Program (UMAP) hosted a celebration at the Pritzker Military Library and Museum to honor the 500th veteran to graduate from the Gas Utility Workers Training Program. The Utility Workers Union of America (UWUA) established UMAP in Chicago with UWUA

Local 18007 and Peoples Gas after identifying a critical need to put veterans who had honorably served their country into skilled careers. The Peoples Gas System Modernization Program (SMP), focused on upgrading over 2,000 miles of aging natural gas infrastructure within the city of Chicago, created the jobs that made the program possible. During the seven-month "training-to-placement" program, veterans develop the technical skills needed to work in Illinois' natural gas industry through in-the-field training and classroom instruction administered by City Colleges of Chicago's Kennedy-King

College Dawson Technical Institute. The program is a public-private partnership and includes support from multiple partners including the Chicago Federation of Labor Workforce and

Community Initiative, the UWUA Power for America Trust, Peoples Gas, City Colleges of Chicago, the Workforce Investment Act, the Illinois Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity, and the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs. For information on how to participate in this program, visit www.power4america.org.

"TAKING PRIDE IN OUR COMMUNITY"

500 Veteranos se Gradúan del Programa de Capacitación para Trabajadores de Servicios Públicos de Gas

El pasado jueves, el Programa Utility Workers Military Assistance (UMAP) presentó una celebración en la Biblioteca y Museo Pritzker Military para honrar a los 500 veteranos que se graduaron del Programa de Entrenamiento de Servicios Públicos de Gss. El Sindicato de trabajadores de Servicios Utilitarios de Estados Unidos (UWUA) estableció UMAP en Chicago con UWUA Local 18007 y Peoples Gas, después de identificar una necesidad indispensable de poner a los veteranos que han servido con honores a su país, en carreras especializadas. El Programa de Modernización del Sistema de Peoples Gas (SMP), se enfocó en actualizar más de 2,000 millas de la antigua infraestructura de gas de la ciudad de Chicago, creando los empleos que hizo el programa posible. Durante los siete meses del programa de "entrenamiento-a-colocación", los veteranos desarrollaron las destrezas técnicas necesarias para trabajar en la industria de gas natural de Illinois gracias a entrenamiento en el campo e instrucción en el salón de clases, administradas por el Instituto Técnico Kennedy-King College Dawson de los

Colegios de la Ciudad. El programa es una afiliación pública-privada e incluye apoyo de múltiples afiliados, incluyendo Chicago Federation of Labor Workforce y Community Initiative, UWUA Power for America Trust, Peoples Gas, Los Colegios de la Ciudad de Chicago, el Acta de Inversión de la Fuerza Laboral, el Departamento de Comercio y Oportunidades Económicas de Illinois y el Departamento de Asuntos del Veterano de E.U. IBIC Statement on Proposed ICE Detention Center in Dwight, Illinois

Chicago, Illinois: Illinois Business Immigration Coalition (IBIC) strongly opposes the construction of a new U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) immigrant detention facility in Dwight, Illinois. Ahead of the hearing, we urge the Dwight Planning Commission to join bipartisan opposition from Governor JB Pritzker here, from municipalities of Crete, Joliet, Winnebago, Hobart, Gary, Elkhart to reject ICE immigrant detention center, value economic growth and community and police relations over fiscally murky revenue. International trade supports 1,711,100 Illinois jobs – nearly 1 in 4. Future economic growth and jobs for Dwight, for Illinois and America depend on expanding U.S. trade and investment opportunities in the global marketplace. In the past two years alone, Department of Homeland Security reported over 150 percent increase in the arrest and deportation of undocumented immigrants with no criminal record across the US. Lastly, immigrant detention centers seriously damage the relationship between local law enforcement and immigrant communities. Law enforcement agencies across the country already report dramatic drops in the number of immigrants reporting sexual assault and other violent crimes compared to 2016 numbers.

Declaración de IBIC sobre el Propuesto Centro de Detención de ICE en Dwight, Illinois

Cortesía de IBIC

Chicago, Illinois: Illinois Business Immigration Coalition (IBIC) se opone fuertemente a la construcción del nuevo centro de detención de inmigrantes de U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) en Dwight, Illinois. Antes de la audiencia, exhortamos a la Comisión de Planeación de Dwight unirse a la oposición bipartidaria del Gobernador JB Pritzker aquí y de las municipalidades de Crete, Joliet, Winnebago, Hobart, Gary, Elkhart para rechazar el centro de detención de inmigrantes de ICE, Y que valoren el crecimiento económico y las relaciones de la comunidad y la policía antes que los ingresos fiscalmente turbios, Comercio internacional apoya 1,711,100 empleos en Illinois – casi 1 de 4.

El futuro crecimiento económico y los empleos para Dwight, para Illinois y para Estados Unidos dependen de expandir el comercio de E.U. e invertir en oportunidades en el mercado mundial. En los últimos dos años, Department of Homeland Security reportó más de 150 por ciento de aumento en arrestos y deportación de inmigrantes indocumentados sin récord criminal en E.U.

Finalmente, los centros de detención de inmigrantes dañan gravemente las relaciones entre las fuerzas del orden locales y las comunidades inmigrantes. Las agencias de fuerzas del orden del país reportan ya un dramático descenso en el número de inmigrantes reportados por asalto sexual y otros crímenes violentos, comparados con las cifras del 2016.
