Senate Passes RISE Act, Awaits Pritzker's Signature

By: Ashmar Mandou

House Bill 2691 that would create the Retention of Illinois Students and Equity (RISE) Act to ensure financial aid equity for minority and marginalized young people, passed the Senate on Wednesday. "Every student, regardless of their immigration status or gender identity, deserves full access to higher education," said Senator Omar Aquino. "Our state has an obligation to these students to make sure that we can provide them with the economic means to be successful and enter the work force."

The legislation will expand access to state aid by increasing the credit hour limit in place that disproportionately locks out African-American and other people of color from state aid. In 2018, 1,700 students who applied for the Monetary Award Program (MAP) grant were denied because they had surpassed the current credit hour limit. Often times, students who come from inadequately funded schools districts have to take additional coursework to catch up to their peers, which is why they reach the credit hour threshold much quicker. RISE Act will also allow Illinois students who are not U.S. citizens or lawful permanent residents, such as DACA recipients, to be eligible for state financial aid, as well as transgender students who do not register for required military purposes and as result are ineligible for federal aid. The measure was recently approved by the House Higher Education Committee.

Under current law, undocumented students are ineligible for State financial assistance. Transgender students who do not register for selective service are also barred from receiving aid. "This is a matter of priorities," said Aquino. "You need to ask yourself as a legislator, 'Do I prioritize students?' 'Do I prioritize undocumented immigrants?' 'Do I prioritize transgender people and their rights?' All of these people pay taxes in our state and deserve to receive the benefits they pay into."

Last month HB 2691 passed the House. "Retaining Illinois students and creating equitable access to colleges and universities is a moral imperative and benefits all residents in Illinois," said Assistant Majority Leader Elizabeth "Lisa" Hernandez (D-24), chief sponsor of the RISE Act in a statement to the press.

"We applaud the efforts of leaders of the black and brown caucuses, especially Leader Hernandez, Leader Gordon Booth, and Rep. Ammons for recognizing and representing the needs of our diverse communities," said Mony Ruiz-Velasco, executive director of PASO-West Suburban Action Project and board president of the Illinois Coalition for Immigrant and Refugee Rights (ICIRR). "This is a vital step forward in ensuring that all students in Illinois have equitable access to higher education." "For many Trans students, they choose to not even file the FAFSA for fear of being outed and the consequences, safety, and civil rights concerns that might come with it," said Myles Brady Davis, communications manager and press secretary for Equality Illinois. "College represents a fresh start, and today's House passage of the RISE Act recognizes the rights of Trans students to have that start, too."

House Bill 2691 awaits the governor's signature.

El Senado Aprueba el Acta RISE y Espera la Firma de Pritzker

Por: Ashmar Mandou

El Proyecto 2691 de la Cámara, que crearía la Retención y Equidad de los Estudiantes de Illinois (RISE) garantizando la equidad en ayuda financiera para las personas de la sminorías y jóvenes marginados, fue aprobada por el Senado el miércoles. “Todo estudiante, sin importar su estado de inmigración o identidad de género, merece un total acceso a la educación superior”, dijo el Senador Omar Aquino. “Nuestro estado tiene una obligación con estos estudiantes de garantizarles que podemos proveerles los medios económicos para triunfar y entrar en la fuerza laboral”.

La legislación ampliará el acceso a la ayuda estatal incrementando el límite de horas de crédito en vez de negar desproporcionadamente a los afroamericanos y otra gente de color la ayuda estatal. En el 2018, a 1,700 estudiantes que solicitaron el subsidio del Programa Monetary Award Program (MAP) se les negó porque habían sobrepasado el límite de horas de crédito. Muchas veces, los estudiantes que vienen de distritos escolares inadecuadamente financiados, tienen que tomar cursos adicionales para emparejarse con sus compañeros, por lo que alcanzaron el límite de horas de crédito mucho más pronto. el Acta RISE permitirá también a los estudiantes de Illinois, que no son ciudadanos de E.U. ni residentes permanentes legales, como los recipientes de DACA, ser elegibles para ayuda financiera estatal, así como los estudiantes transgénero que no se registran por los propósitos militares requeridos y como resultado son inelegibles a ayuda federal. La medida fue recientemente aprobada por el Comité de Educación Superior de la Cámara.

Bajo la ley actual, los estudiantes indocumentados son inelegibles para ayuda financiera estatal. Los estudiantes transgénero que no se registran para el servicio selectivo tienen también prohibido recibir ayuda. “Esto es cuestión de prioridades”, dijo Aquino. “Uno necesita preguntarse a sí mismo como legislador, ¿Doy prioridad a los estudiantes? ¿Doy prioridad a los estudiantes indocumentados? ¿Doy prioridad a la gente transgénero y a sus derechos? Todas estas personas pagan impuesto en nuestro estado y merecen recibir los beneficios para los que pagan”.

El mes pasado HB 2691 fue aprobada por la Cámara. “Retener a los estudiantes de Illinois y crear acceso equitativo a colegios y universidades es un imperativo moral y beneficia a todos los residentes de Illinois, dijo la Asistente de las Mayorías Líder Elizabeth “Lisa” Hernández (D-24), principal patrocinadora del Acta RISE en una declaración a la prensa.

“Aplaudimos los esfuerzos de líderes de los caucus negro y bronce, especialmente a la Líder Hernández, al Líder Gordon Booth y al Rep. Ammons por reconocer y representar las necesidades de nuestras comunidades diversas”, dijo Mony Ruiz-Velasco, directora ejecutiva de PASO-West Suburban Action Project y presidente de la junta de Illinois Coalition for Immigrant and Refugee Rights (ICIRR). “Este es un paso vital hacia la garantía de que todos los estudiantes de Illinois tienen acceso equitativo a la educación superior”.

“Muchos de los estudiantes Trans, escogen no llenar una solicitud de FAFSA por temor a ser expulsados y a las consecuencias, seguridad y temor a derechos civiles que pueda conllevar”, dijo Myles Brady Davis, gerente de comunicaciones y secretario de prensa de Equality Illinois. “La universidad representa un comienzo y la aprobación de hoy de la Cámara al Acta RISE reconoce los derechos de los estudiantes Trans a tener también ese comienzo”.

Big Shoulders Fund and the Chicago office of EY are celebrating the third year of a partnership to improve science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) in Big Shoulders Fund schools. The Entrepreneurship Program, sponsored by EY Chicago and featuring mentorship from EY employees, teaches students in 20 Big Shoulders Fund network schools basic lessons in entrepreneurship and helps them think critically about their community and identify innovative ways to make it better. Throughout the school year, students from Big Shoulders schools work hand-in-hand with EY mentors to develop a product or service that will improve the Chicago community, along with a financial plan, market analysis, and assessment of materials needed to execute the idea. EY mentors help the students work through their ideas and provide hands-on education and collaboration on business strategy and development. On Friday, May 3rd, this year's program culminated in the annual team entrepreneurship competition, held at 1871, Chicago's technology incubator. Students from 20 schools had the opportunity to present their business idea to a panel of judges, answer questions, and explain why their idea was worth investing in. The winning team was St. Ferdinand School for their idea, Uniform Uniform, a business that sells used school uniforms. They were awarded a gift of $1,000 for their school.

Mujeres Latinas en Acción Launches New Funding Initiative

Mujeres Latinas en Acción (Mujeres) announced this week the launch of The Family Rehabilitation Fund, to support vital and underfunded programming for breaking the cycle of family violence, specifically the Parent Support Program and its component of Supervised Visitation/Safe Exchange. The Family Rehabilitation Fund was propelled forward in early 2019 with seed funding from Sidley Austin LLP. The fund has already raised over $86,000 in the first few months of Year One. Early partners were instrumental. BMO Harris Bank provided a gift and a matching opportunity which inspired a generous donation from an anonymous donor. In April 2019, Verizon committed support to The Family Rehabilitation Fund which will also underwrite the Parent Support Program's expansion and move to our new offices in the Brighton Park neighborhood of Chicago in late Spring 2019. The Parent Support Program and Supervised Visitation/Safe Exchange focuses on the challenges of parenting while confronting barriers such as poverty, racism, and other systematic oppressive forces often culminate in tense family dynamics. Programming often available for these families is based on safety-net models that lack holistic, long-term engagement to move clients towards true healing. Mujeres is looking to the legal, medical, and professional communities throughout the Greater Chicagoland Area to grow The Family Rehabilitation Fund, intended as a patronage for these much needed healing services. Mujeres Latinas en Acción Lanza Nueva Iniciativa de Financiamiento

Mujeres Latinas en Acción (Mujeres) anunció esta semana el lanzamiento del Fondo de Rehabilitación Familiar para apoyar programación con fondos insuficientes para romper el ciclo de violencia familiar, específicamente el Programa de Apoyo a los Padres y su componente de Visitas Supervisadas/Intercambio Seguro. El Fondo de Rehabilitación familiar fue impulsado a principios del

2019 con financiamiento base de Sidley Austin LLP. El fondo ha alcanzado ya más de $86,000 en sus primeros meses del Año Uno. Los primeros socios fueron instrumento clave. BMO Harris Bank brindó un regalo y una oportunidad acorde que inspiró una generosa donación de un donante anónimo. En abril del 2019, Verizon se comprometió a apoyar el Fondo de Rehabilitación

Familiar, que también suscribirá la ampliación del Programa de Apoyo a los Padres y se pasará a nuestras nuevas oficinas en el barrio de Brighton Park de Chicago a finales de la primavera del 2019. El Programa de Apoyo a los Padres y de Visitas Supervisadas/Intercambio Seguro se enfoca en los retos de la paternidad mientras comfronta barreras como la pobreza, el racismo y otras fuerzas opresivas sistemáticas que muchas veces culminan en tensa dinámica familiar. La programación a menudo disponible para estas familias se basa en modelos de redes de seguridad que carecen de un compromiso holístico a largo plazo para que los clientes avancen hacia una verdadera recuperación. Mujeres busca las comunidades legales, médicas y profesionales del área de Chicago para hacer crecer el Fondo de Rehabilitación Familiar, destinado como patrocinio para estos servicios tan necesarios. Sandoval Works to Improve Student Safety on School Busses

A measure sponsored by State Senator Martin A. Sandoval (D-Chicago) that would improve the safety of children on school busses passed the Senate Transportation Committee on Tuesday. House Bill 2121 makes changes to the eligibility standards for individuals with criminal convictions applying for a bus driver license. The legislation would add several criminal offenses to the list of those that would make an individual eligible for a lifetime ban from receiving a license. “We need to make sure that schools are safe and nurturing environments for our students and that includes ensuring that they have a safe commute to and from school every day,” Sandoval said. “It’s critical that those charged with transporting our children safely have been properly vetted and are deemed fit to carry out their work.” Criminal offenses that would newly allow an individual to be banned for life under the legislation include permitting the sexual abuse of a child, all aggravated battery offenses and loitering of a sexual predator near a public park. The measure will now go before the entire Senate.

Making the Most of Mother's Day: Five Tips to Consider to Help Support Women's Health

By: Dr. Gary Grosel, Chief Medical Officer,
UnitedHealthcare of Illinois
Edited by Lawndale Bilingual News

Mother's Day is part of the springtime cycle of renewal and rebirth. It's also an ideal time to think about ways to help improve the health of women in Illinois and nationwide, and honor the important role they play in their families' well-being. Promoting the health of women, infants and children is a fundamental priority for our county, especially efforts to reduce the number of women and babies who die before, during or after childbirth. In Illinois, 6.3 babies die (before age 1) per 1,000 live births, while about 16 women die during pregnancy or after childbirth per every 100,000 births, according to the United Health Foundation's America's Health Rankings®. To recognize Mother's Day and National Women's Health Week (May 12-18), here are five tips to consider to support the health of all women, especially expectant and new mothers:

Work in a Well-Woman Visit: About two-thirds of women each year receive a well-visit nationally, with the rate in Illinois at 67 percent. These annual visits can include important screenings, counseling and immunizations based on age and risk factors, while providing an opportunity to discuss with your health professional ways to encourage a healthier lifestyle.

Mammograms Matter: One in eight American women will get a breast cancer diagnosis at some point in her lifetime, and most cases are detected by a mammogram before symptoms appear. According to the National Institutes of Health, the five-year breast cancer survival rate has increased significantly in recent years, now reaching more than 90 percent. For patients diagnosed with early-stage breast cancer, the five-year survival rate is close to 100 percent.

Take Charge of Your Health: This means eating well, staying active, getting sufficient sleep and limiting stress as much as possible. For expectant mothers, the U.S. Surgeon General advises that no amount of alcohol is safe during pregnancy, and smoking is unsafe for you and your baby. For support, your health plan may have programs and online services at no additional cost that can help you adopt a healthier lifestyle or, if needed, improve the management of chronic conditions, which is especially important for expectant women.

Avoid Early or Elective Deliveries: For expectant mothers, it is important to understand the risks associated with elective deliveries before 39 weeks of pregnancy and their potential impacts. Studies have shown that early, non-medically indicated cesarean (C-section) deliveries are linked to a higher risk of complications, including infection, hemorrhage or blood clots, and admission to the neonatal intensive care unit (NICU).

Babies born before 39 weeks are more likely to have respiratory problems and developmental delays, according to a published study.

Know Your Maternity Benefits and Rights at Work:

If you work full time and plan to return to your job after your baby is born, it is helpful to know your company's maternity leave policy. The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) enables mothers and fathers who have worked at least one year for a company with 50 or more employees to take up to 12 weeks of unpaid time off, while many employers offer full or partial paid leave. Under the law, your employer is required to give you the same – or the substantially equivalent – job back after your leave.

Aprovechando al Máximo el Día de las Madres Cinco Consejos a Considerar Para Ayudar a Apoyar la Salud de la Mujer

Por: Dr. Gary Grosel, Funcionario Médico en Jefe,
UnitedHealthcare of Illinois
Editado por Lawndale Bilingual News

El Día de la Madre es parte del ciclo de renovación de primavera. También es el momento ideal para pensar en la forma de ayudar a mejorar la salud de la mujer, en Illinois y a nivel nacional y honrar el importante papel que desempeñan en el bienestar de sus familias. Promover la salud de la mujer, los infantes y los niños es una prioridad fundamental de nuestro país, y se hacen esfuerzos especiales para reducir el número de mujeres y bebés que mueren antes, durante o después del nacimiento. En Illinois, 6.3 bebés mueren (antes de 1 año) por 1,000 nacidos

Sandoval Lucha por Mejorar la Seguridad Estudiantil en los Autobuses Escolares

Una medida patrocinada por el Senador Estatal Martin A. Sandoval (D-Chicago) que mejoraría la seguridad de los niños en los autobuses escolares, fue aprobada por el Comité de Transporte del Senado el martes. El Poyecto 2121 de la Cámara hace cambios a las normas de elegibilidad para personas con condenas criminales que soliciten licencia de conductor de autobus. La legislación agregaría varias ofensas criminales a la lista de aquellas que hacen a un individuo elegible para una prohibición de por vida para recibir una licencia. “Necesitamos asegurarnos que las escuelas están seguras y tienen un buen ambiente para nuestros estudiantes y eso incluye garantizar que tienen un transporte seguro para ir y venir de la escuela”, dijo Sandoval. “Es indispensable que las personas encargadas de transportar a nuestros niños de manera segura hayan sido debidamente examinadas y se consideren aptas para llevar a cabo su trabajo”. Las ofensas criminales que permitirían que un individuo tuviera prohibido de por vida este servicio, bajo la legislación, incluye el permitir el abuso sexual de un niño, todas las infracciones agravadas por agresiones y el merodear de un depredador sexual cerca de un parque público. La medida pasará ahora al Senado en pleno.

Disney, Will Smith, and Make-A-Wish Launch #FriendLikeMe Challenge

Disney, Will Smith and Make-A-Wish® launched the #FriendLikeMe Challenge pegged to the upcoming release of “Aladdin.” Will Smith, who stars in the film as the wish-granting Genie, is encouraging fans and celebrities to participate in the challenge and help show the world: Where there’s a wish, there’s a way. Tag a friend on Twitter and/or Instagram. For every public post with #FriendLikeMe through May 24, 2019, Disney will donate $5 up to $1 million to Make-A-Wish to help grant life-changing wishes to children battling critical illnesses all over the world. For more information, go to FriendLikeMe.org” or see the official release below. And be sure to check out the new 30-second spot and Make-A-Wish video and share them with your readers, and don’t forget to see “Aladdin” when it opens in theaters nationwide May 24, 2019.

Cinco Consejos a Considerar Para Ayudar a Apoyar la Salud... Viene de la página 9

vivos, mientras 16 mujeres mueren durante el embarazo o después del nacimiento en cada 100,000 nacimientos, de acuerdo a United Health Foundation's America's Health Rankings®. Para reconocer la Semana Nacional de Salud de la Mujer y el Día de la Madre (mayo 12-18) a continuación cinco recomendaciones a considerar para apoyar la salud de todas las mujeres, especialmente las embarazadas y las nuevas madres:

Programe una Visita de Bienestar: Aproximadamente dos

terceras partes de mujeres hacen cada año, a nivel nacional, una visita de bienestar, teniendo Illinois un índice del 67 por ciento. Estas visitas anuales pueden incluir importantes exámenes, consejería y vacunas, en base a la edad y factores de riesgo, mientras tiene la oportunidad de discutir con su profesional de salud la forma de estimular un estilo de vida más saludable.

Los Mamogramas son Importantes: Una de cada ocho mujeres estadounidenses recibirán un diagnóstico de cáncer de mama en algún momento de su vida y la mayoría de los casos son detectados por un mamograma antes de que los síntomas aparezcan. De acuerdo a los Institutos Nacionales de Salud, el índice de supervivencia de cáncer de mama ha aumentado considerablemente en años recientes, alcanzando ahora más del 90 por ciento. Para pacientes diagnosticados con un cáncer de mama en su primeras etapas, el índice de supervivencia de cinco años es cerca al 100 por ciento.

Ocúpese de su Salud: Esto significa comer bien, mantenerse activo, dormir lo suficiente y limitar el estrés tanto como sea posible. Para las madres embarazadas, el Cirujano General de E.U. aconseja no consumir alcohol durante el embarazo ni fumar, para el bienestar suyo y de su bebé. Para apoyo, su plan de salud deben tener programas y servicios en línea sin costo adicional que pueden ayudarle a adoptar un estilo de vida más saludable o, si lo necesita, mejorar el manejo de condiciones crónicas, lo que es especialmente importante para la mujer embarazada.

Evite Partos Prematuros o Electivos: Para las madres embarazadas, es importante que entiendan los riesgos asociados con los partos electivos antes de las 39 semanas de embarazo y sus posibles impactos. Estudios han demostrado que los partos prematuros, cesáreas no indicadas por un médico, están vinculados a un mayor riesgo de complicaciones, incluyendo infecciones, hemorragias o coágulos sanguíneos y la admisión a una unidad intensiva neonatal (NICU). Los bebés nacidos antes de 39 semanas es más probable que tengan problemas respiratorios y desarrollen retrasos, de acuerdo a un estudio publicado.

Conozca sus Beneficios de Maternidad y su Derechos en el Trabajo: Si trabaja tiempo completo y planea regresar a su trabajo después de nacer el bebé, es conveniente conocer la póliza de licencia de maternidad de su compañía. El Acta de Licencia Familiar y Médica (FMLA) hace posible que madres y padres que han trabajado por lo menos un año para una compañía con 50 o más empleados, tome hasta 12 semanas de tiempo sin paga, aunque muchas empresas ofrecen paga total o parcial. Bajo la ley, su empleador debe darle el mismo - o el sustancialmente equivalente - empleo, cuando regrese de su licencia.
