"I was very proud to appoint Maria as Cicero's first Hispanic clerk. She was a trustee for eight years and she brings a lot of talent to the town. She manages her one of the most important functions in the town." President Larry Dominick

Maria Punzo-Arias, Town Clerk

Unwavering in her desire to assist Cicero families, Cicero Town Clerk made history when she became Cicero's first Latina town clerk, a moment in her life Punzo still finds incredible. "I began working for the Town in 1995, I worked hard, and always loved interacting with people, but I never would have thought I'd be representing my town in this capacity," said Punzo. Maria Punzo-Arias is the first Latina to hold the office of Town Clerk in Cicero. While she was born in Mexico City, Punzo moved to Cicero as a child, graduating from Morton East High School and staying here for more than 34 years. She has been working for the Town since 1995 when she was hired on to clerk for the Water Department. Punzo shared with Lawndale Bilingual News the importance of her role as Town Clerk and the importance of her upbringing playing a vital role to her success.

Hispanic Heritage Month

Despite the negativity we see on the television that often bombards the Latino community across the country, we have to remember the accomplishments that

Hispanic Heritage Month Series: María Punzo-Arias

Latinos have contributed to this country. We have to remember the hard-working families who sacrificed to create a better life for their children; my parents sacrificed and left everything they knew to have a better life. We have to honor the Latinos who have made this country what it is.

Lessons

From early on my parents always instilled in me and my siblings the importance of an education. To get ahead in this country, to be stable, to be successful, to be independent we needed to study and work hard. My father was dependent on government assistance while he worked hard, my mother stayed at home to raise us. My parents always expressed to us that they wanted a better life for us. So throughout high school and college I worked hard. I tapped into the work ethic my parents instilled in me and knew from early on I could be whatever I wanted if I just focused and studied hard.

Town Clerk

This job is always fascinating. I truly feel pride when I step into my office knowing that I am representing a community that has given so much to me. I am representing all voice, all ethnicities, all religions, all backgrounds. I am there voice, therefore I take my job seriously and work around-the-clock to help families through their struggles. It can be challenging, it can be emotional, it can be daunting, but what motivates me, what I love most about my position as Town Clerk is the ability to meet with so many people living in Cicero.

Message

My message for the youth in Cicero is to honor their roots, their community, their parents and study hard. Stay in school, volunteer and learn new skills sets so you can one day gain the confidence to become community activists, to hopefully represent your community in a larger capacity.

Sculptor Honors Maya Angelou

Miguel Sandoval entered a contest held by the Chicago Urban Art Retreat Center to create a sculpture for their Peace Park to honor black heroes. He was inspired by Maya Angelou who had many jobs other than a poet and a writer. She was a ballet dancer, director, cook, and civil rights leader. He created a sculpture that highlighted her many talents. At the end he created a sculpture that resembled a sunflower. He hand painted the petals resembling the many jobs she had. He also molded a hand from recycled wire and put it on top of a cable dish. Miguel won first prize and a cash prize of $200 for his sculpture. News la importancia de su papel como Secretaria del Ayuntamiento y la importancia de que su educación desempeñe un papel vital para su éxito.

Mes de la Herencia Hispana

A pesar de la negatividad que vemos en la televisión, que muchas veces bombardea a la comunidad latina de todo el país, tenemos que recordar los logros con que los latinos han contribuido a este país. Tenemos que recordar a las familias trabajadoras que se sacrificaron para lograr una mejor vida para sus hijos; mis padres se sacrificaron y dejaron todo lo que conocían para tener una vida mejor. Tenemos que honrar a los latinos que han hecho de este país lo que es.

Lecciones

Desde el principio, mis padres nos inculcaron, a mí y a mis hermanos, la importancia de una educación. Para salir adelante en este país, para estar estable, para tener éxito, para ser independiente necesitamos estudiar y trabajar mucho. Mi padre dependía de la asistencia del gobierno mientras trabajaba mucho, mi madre se quedaba en casa criándonos. Mis padres siempre nos dijeron que querían una vida mejor para nosotros. Así que, en la secundaria y la universidad me apliqué mucho. Apliqué la ética del trabajo que mis padres me inculcaron y supe desde el principio, que podría ser lo que quisiera si me enfocaba y estudiaba mucho.

Secretaria del Ayuntamiento

Este trabajo es siempre fascinante. Verdaderamente me siento orgullosa cuando entro a mi oficina sabiendo que represento a una comunidad que me ha dado tanto. Represento todas las voces, todas las etnicidades, todas las religiones, todos los antecedentes. Soy su voz, por lo tanto tomo mi trabajo con mucha seriedad y trabajo las 24 horas para ayudar a la familias con sus luchas. Puede ser un reto, puede ser emocional, puede ser desalentador, pero lo que me motiva, lo que más me gusta de mi posición como Secretaria del Ayuntamiento es poder conocer a toda la gente que vive en Cicero.

Mensaje

Mi mensaje a los jóvenes de Cicero es que honren sus raíces, su comunidad, sus padres y que estudien mucho. Siguen en la escuela, sean voluntarios y aprendan nuevas destrezas para que un día puedan tener la confianza de convertirse en activistas comunitarios y para que puedan representar a su comunidad con una mayor capacidad.

Hispanic Heritage Month Series: Marco Polo

By: Ashmar Mandou

Cicero resident Marco Polo harnessed his entrepreneurial spirit from watching his father work exceptionally hard as a farmer back in Mexico. "My father had this immense piece of land and he always, day and night, worked so hard. He worked with integrity and truly showed me the meaning of hard work and how to give back," said Polo, proprietor of several businesses including restaurant and banquet hall Pescadon in Summit, IL. Polo, who was born in Texas, but moved back with his family to Mexico, always knew his purpose in life. "I witnessed how my parents worked, I learned from their stories, I grew up with such pride for my culture, our story, which is something that I want to pass on to my children and to the younger generations living in a time when it is increasingly difficult." During Hispanic Heritage Month we honor Polo not only for his entrepreneurial spirit, but his philanthropic work in past years dedicating his time and services holding fundraisers across the city and suburbs, including Cicero to assist children in need. "We have to continue to our efforts to help the younger generations because after all, as they say, the children are our future. It is my calling in life to help, through the tools that have been given to me, to create a pathway that children can access to create a better life. Whether it is through scholarships, or mentorships, my sole purpose is give as much back to the community, to teach the younger generations that they are valued and that they have the capabilities to create their own reality. Their own path in life."

El residente de Cicero, Marco Polo, aprovechó su espíritu emprendedor de observar a su padre trabajar excepcionalmente fuerte como granjero en México. "Mi padre tenía ese inmenso terreno y siempre, día y noche, trabajaba tanto. Trabajaba con integridad y me mostró verdaderamente el significado del trabajo árduo y como retribuir", dijo Polo, propietario de varios negocios, incluyendo el restaurante y hall de banquetes el Pescadón en Summit, IL. Polo, quien nació en Texas, pero que se fue con su familia a México, siempre supo su propósito en la vida. "Fui testigo de lo mucho que trabaron mis padres, aprendí de sus historias, crecí con tanto orgullo por mi cultura y nuestra historia que es algo que yo quiero pasar a mis hijos y a las generaciones jóvenes que viven un momento de crecientes dificultades". Durante eo Mes de la Herencia Hispana honramos a Polo no solo por su espíritu empresarial, sino por su labor filantrópica en los años pasados, dedicando su tiempo y servicios a hacer recaudaciones de fondos en la ciudad y los suburbios, incluyendo Cicero, para asistir a los niños neesitados. "Tenemos que continuar nuestros esfuerzos para ayudar a las generaciones más jóvenes porque después de todo, como dicen, los niños son nuestro futuro. Es mi llamado en la vida, ayudar con los instrumentos que se me han dado, para crear un camino que los niños puedan seguir para tener una mejor vida. Ya sea a través de becas, o tutorías, mi solo propósito es retribuir a mi comunidad, enseñar a las generaciones más jóvenes que son valoradas y que tienen la capacidad de crear su propia realidad. CHA Joins Partners to Celebrate Opening of Pierce House at La Casa Norte

Chicago Housing Authority (CHA) officials joined La Casa Norte, the City of Chicago Department of Housing, local elected officials and members of the community to dedicate Pierce House, which brings 25 units of supportive housing to the Humboldt Park community. The one and two-bedroom apartments are supported by CHA project-based vouchers and will be leased to individuals and families from the CHA waiting list and Chicago's Coordinated Entry System. Other support for the $18.5 million project came from the City of Chicago, which provided Tax Increment Financing (TIF) funds and a loan. The 25 housing units at Pierce House are part of a larger neighborhood investment that also includes space for La Casa Norte's social, community and administrative service offices on the first and second floor, along with a nutrition center with a food pantry and teaching kitchen. The new center also has space that will enable La Casa Norte to provide programs that offer clients employment readiness and life skills. The development is anchored by a newly-opened Howard Brown

Health Center which operates a federally-funded, qualified health center on the ground floor of the property.

CHA se Une a Asociados para Celebrar la Apertura de Pierce House en La Casa Norte

Funcionarios de la Autoridad de la Vivienda de Chicago (CHA) se unieron a La Casa Norte, Departamento de Vivienda de la Ciudad de Chicago, funcionarios electos locales y miembros de la comunidad, para dedicar Pierce House, que ofrece 25 unidades de vivienda de apoyo a la comunidad de Humboldt Park. Los apartamentos, de uno y dos dormitorios, son respaldados por cupones basados en proyectos de CHA y serán rentados a personas y familias de la lista de espera de CHA y Coordinated Entry System de Chicago. Otro apoyo para el proyecto de $18.5 millones procede de la Ciudad de Chicago quien brindó fondos y un préstamo de (TIF) [Tax Increment Financing]. Las 25 unidades habitacionales de Pierce House son parte de una inversión mayor en el barrio que incluye también espacio para oficinas de servicio administrativo, comunitario y social de La Casa Norte, en el primer y segundo piso, junto con un centro de nutrición con despensa y cocina docente. El nuevo centro tiene también espacio que hará posible que La Casa Norte provea programas que ofrezcan a los clientes preparación para empleo y destrezas de vida. El desarrollo está anclado por un Centro de Salud Howard Brown recientemente inaugurado, que opera con fondos federales, centro de salud calificado en la planta baja de la propiedad.

St. Augustine College is Changing Lives

My name is Gerardo A. Valdivia and I live in the West Lawndale neighborhood. I was born in Ocotlan, Jalisco, Mexico. At the age of four I came to Chicago with my family. I was raised in the Pilsen neighborhood learning about how beautiful Chicago is and remembering where I come from. The last two months of my senior year in high school I learned that I was going to be a father. I needed a few credits to finish but instead of summer school I decided to go straight to work and start being a responsible future husband and father.

Working in factories and temp agencies taught me how important it is to have an education. This was not about how much money I could make but more of what a better future I could provide for my son. On July 10th, 2015 my family was in a house fire while we were all sleeping, we were then living in the West Lawndale neighborhood. My wife Korissa passed away while my children, ages seven and two, and I suffered burns and were intubated in the hospital. Thanks to family and friends my children and I were able to get back on our feet.

I remarried to someone who has helped me remember the important things in life. My wife Teresa had gone through the same thing after Adan, her son, at the age of three had lost his father Emmanuel. What an amazing big blended family with a sad sour background story we've become. Teresa and I now raise three handsome boys and two beautiful princesses. But I still wanted to provide a better future for all my kids. With the support of my wife I was able to attend St. Augustine College's GED program, which prepared me to obtain my high school equivalence certificate (GED) in ten weeks. Part of completing this program also included a free credit course at SAC. So after this accomplishment in my life, I decided to take advantage of this opportunity, so I took the incentive class at St. Augustine College. I realized that although I am thirty years old it is never too late to fight in life for a better future.

My wife is currently working to receive her bachelor's in social work at St. Augustine College. Three of my children are at St. Ann Catholic School in Chicago. I am currently on hold with my dream to continue college and graduate. Every day I remember what I've been through, from migrating to a new country, learning a new language, a new culture, the heartbreaking loss of my former wife to the economic struggles of being an adult. But nevertheless, my faith, my wife, my children, my culture and the resilience in me, help me move forward in this on-going fight for a better future, a better life and a better me for tomorrow.

St Augustine College Cambia Vidas

Mi nombre es Gerardo A. Valdivia y vivo en el barrio de West Lawndale. Nací en Ocotlán, Jalisco, México. A la edad de cuatro años vine a Chicago con mi familia. Fui criado en el barrio de Pilsen, aprendiendo lo bello de Chicago y recordando de donde venía. Los dos últimos meses de mi último año de secundaria supe que iba a ser padre. Necesitaba unos cuantos créditos para terminar, pero en vez de la escuela de verano decidí trabajar y empezar a ser un esposo y padre responsable.

Trabajando en fábricas y agencias aprendí cuan importante es tener una educación. No se trataba de cuanto dinero podría ganar, sino de que mejor futuro podría ofrecerle a mi hijo. El 10 de julio del 2015 tuvimos un incendio en la casa mientras todos dormíamos, vivíamos en el barrio de West Lawndale. Mi esposa, Korissa murió mientras mis hijos de siete y dos años y yo sufrimos quemaduras y estuvimos entubados en el hospital. Gracias a familiares y amigos mis niños y yo pudimos ponernos de pie.

Me volví a casar con alguien que me ayudó a recordar las cosas importantes de la vida. Mi esposa, Teresa, había pasado por lo mismo con su hijo Adán, quien a la edad de tres años había perdido a su padre, Emmanuel. Qu asombrosa combinación de familia arrastrando una historia tan triste. Teresa y yo criamos tres buenos muchachos y dos hermosas princesas. Pero yo todavía quería un mejor futuro para todos mis hijos. Con el apoyo de mi esposa pude asistir al programa de GED de St. Augustine College, lo que me preparó, en diez semanas, para obtener mi certificado equivalente a la secundaria. Parte de completar este programa incluyó también un curso de crédito gratis en SAC. Después de este logro en mi vida, decidí aprovechar este oportunidad y tome la clase incentiva en St. Augustine College (SAC). Me di cuenta de que aunque tenía treinta años nunca es demasiado tarde para luchar en la vida por un mejor futuro.

Mi esposa estudia actualmente para recibir su bachillerato de servicio social en St. Augustine College. Tres de mis hijos están en St. Ann Catholic School en Chicago. Yo actualmente sigo mi sueño de continuar el colegio y graduarme. Recuerdo todos los días por lo que he pasado, desde emigrar a un nuevo país, aprender un nuevo idioma, una nueva cultura, la dolorosa pérdida de mi primera esposa y la lucha económica como adulto. Pero sin embargo, mi fe, mi esposa, mis hijos, mi cultura y la resistencia que tengo me ayudan a seguir adelante en esta continúa lucha por un mejor futuro, una mejor vida y un mejor yo en el futuro.

City Announces Investment for Accurate Count in 2020 U.S. Census

Mayor Lori E. Lightfoot announced a $2.7 million investment in the City's 2020 census efforts for an all-hands-on deck outreach strategy to ensure that every Chicagoan is counted. With nearly half of Chicago's 2.7 million residents considered "hard-to-count" by the U.S. Census Bureau, this year's outreach method will be even more important than in years past and for achieving a complete, full count that accurately reflects the City's electoral representation and federal funding needs. The City's census investment will be used to cast a wide net and to fund strategies for connecting with residents in the hardest to reach communities. If its residents are not accurately reflected in the census count, the City of Chicago stands to lose $1,400 per person missed in 2020, or $14,000 in critical federal funds over the next decade. The census is also used for redistricting at all levels of government and to inform local policymaking. Also, this funding includes a mix of federal and local grant funds, including Medicaid, Head Start, SNAP, Section 8, Title I, and Special Education

Grants. To help provide residents more real-time information about the 2020 census, the City also created a new website – census2020.chicago.gov.

La Ciudad Anuncia Inversiones para la Cuenta Exacta en el Censo de E.U. del 2020

La Alcaldesa Lori E. Lightfoot anunció una inversión de $2.7 millones en los esfuerzos del censo de la Ciudad del 2020 para una estrategia de alcance para garantizar que todo residente de Chicago es contado. Con cerca de la mitad de los 2.7 millones de residentes de Chicago considerados "difíciles-de-contar" por la Oficina del Censo de E.U., el método de enlace de este año será aún más importante que en años pasados para lograr un conteo completo y total, que refleje exactamente la representación electoral de la Ciudad y la necesidad de fondos federales. La inversión del censo de la Ciudad será utilizada para lanzar una amplia red y tener estrategias para conectar con los residentes en las comunidades más difíciles de alcanzar. Si sus residentes no son reflejados exactament en el conteo del censo, la Ciudad de Chicago perderá $1,400 por persona no contada en el 2020, o $14,000 en fondos federales indispensables en la próxima década. El censo es utilizado también para la redistribución de distritos en todos los niveles del gobierno y para informar a los legisladores locales. Estos fondos, también, incluyen una mezcla de fondos de subsidios, locales y federales, incluyendo el Medicaid, Head Start, SNAP, Sección 8, Título I y Subsidios de Educación Especial. Para ayudar a dar a los residentes más información en tiempo real sobre el censo del 2020, la Ciudad creó también una nueva red – census2020.chicago.gov.

Miller says she has found that a few ways to live life like you're on a treasure hunt include:

Start each day with a prayer of gratitude. This doesn't have to be a religious thing. Miller says it means savoring and showing appreciation for family and friendships; for the joy a favorite song brings; for every experience that teaches you a little more about yourself and the world; and for any small thing that might be insignificant to others, but holds meaning for you.

Engage with people, even strangers. Technology makes it easy these days to become isolated from others. "The antidote to that is putting down our phones, looking someone in the eye and saying, 'How is your day going?'" Miller says. "If they don't want to tell you, they won't. But chances are, no one else has asked them. Who knows what treasures these conversations will reveal?"

Look for clues and signs everywhere. "I try to stay open to the found things on my path; from words, to signs, to love that announces itself to us in hundreds of ways each day," Miller says.

"That bird. That baby in the stroller. An early spring daffodil. I feel pleased with where I am in my life, and I'm not looking for something else to make me happy. But I still stay aware of all these treasures around me."

Sandra A. Miller, author of Trove: A Woman's Search for Truth and Buried Treasure, teaches in the English Department of the University of Massachusetts, Lowell. She previously worked in the editorial department at NAL/Penguin and later worked as a literary agent.

Born Before 1955 or Living with a Disability? Here are questions to Help You Choose a Medicare Plan

By: Chuck Dow, Humana Regional
President of Medicare
for Illinois Humana

If you're one of 56 million Americans eligible for Medicare, it's important to understand coverage options when selecting your plan for 2020. Research can take time, and many people find a licensed health insurance agent helpful. Answering these questions can help you make an informed choice during the Medicare Annual Election Period, October 15 to December 7:

- Are my doctors and hospitals in network? Most Medicare Advantage plans offer online tools to help you find who's in a plan's network.

- Which plans will cover my prescription drugs? Original Medicare does not cover most prescription drugs. Many Medicare Advantage plans include prescription drug coverage, or you can sign up for a Part D Prescription Drug Plan separately.

- Are there innovative benefits I should consider? Beyond vision, dental and hearing coverage, look for fitness program benefits and transportation services.

- Do I need to sign up for Medicare Parts A and B if I'm still working? If you have health insurance from an employer, you can delay enrolling in Medicare until the employment or the coverage stops. At that point, you're entitled to a special enrollment period of up to eight months.

- Resources are available, including licensed sales agents, local seminars, and websites such as medicare.gov and humana.com/Medicare. You can also call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227) (or TTY: 1-877-486-2048) 24 hours a day, seven days a week, or call Humana at 1-800-213-5286 (TTY: 711) 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. local time seven days a week.

As with any major decision, proper research will go a long way toward making the best plan choice.

¿Nació Antes de 1955 y Tiene una Discapacidad? A Continuación Preguntas Para Ayudarle a Escoger un Plan de Medicare

Por: Chuck Dow,
Presidente Regional de Humana de Medicare
for Illinois Humana

Si usted es uno de los 56 millones de estadounidenses elegibles para el Medicare, es importante entender las opciones de cobertura cuando seleccione su plan para el 2020. La investigación puede llevar tiempo y mucha gente encuentra útil una agencia licenciada en seguros de salud. Responder estas preguntas puede ayudarle a hacer una decisión informada durante el Período de Elección Anual de Medicare, del 15 de octubre al 7 de diciembre:

- ¿Están mis doctores y hospitales en la Red? La mayoría de planes de Medicare Advantage ofrece informes en línea para ayudarle a encontrar quien está en la red de su plan.

- ¿Qué planes cubrirán mis medicinas? El Medicare original no cubre la mayoría de medicinas con receta. Muchos planes de Medicare Advantage incluyen la cobertura de medicinas con receta, o puede inscribirse por separado en el Plan de Medicinas Parte D.

- ¿Hay beneficios extra que deba considerar?

Además de la cobertura de la vista, los dientes y el oído, busque beneficios de programas de acondicionamiento físico y servicios de transporte.

- ¿Necesito firmar para las Parts A y B del Medicare si todavía estoy trabajando? Si usted tiene seguro de salud de su empleador, puede demorar inscribirse en Medicare hasta que el empleo o la cobertura pare. En ese punto usted tiene derecho a un período especial de inscripción de hasta 8 meses.

Hay recursos disponibles, incluyendo agentes de ventas licenciados, seminarios locales y redes como medicare.gov y humana.com/Medicare. También puede llamar al

1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227) o (TTY: 1-877-486-2048) 24 horas al día, siete días a la semana, o llamar a Humana al 1-800-213-5286 (TTY: 711) 8 a.m. a 8 p.m. hora local, siete días a la semana.

Y como con cualquier decisión importante, una investigación apropiada le ayudará infinitamente a tomar la mejor alternativa.
