The Editor's Desk

We enter a crucial time in March as we are less than two weeks away from elections and while candidates are scouring neighborhoods across the state, we are doing our civic duty by highlighting those who are on the ballot. Last week, we featured Judge Jesse Reyes and this week we focus our efforts on Sandra Ramos who is running for a seat on the Appellate Circuit Court. Ramos, who is first generation Latino, discusses her vision for the Appellate Court and the importance of everyone getting involved in the political sphere. In this week's edition we also touch upon a new community center headed to Brighton Park as well as bring attention to the health risks affecting Illinois children. Read on~

Entramos en una época crucial en marzo, ya que en menos de dos semanas serán las elecciones y mientras los candidatos están recorriendo los barrios en todo el estado, nosotros cumplimos con nuestro deber cívico destacando a quienes están en la boleta. La semana pasada, presentamos al Juez Jesse Reyes y esta semana enfocamos nuestros esfuerzos en Sandra Ramos, quien corre para el puesto de la Corte del Circuito de Apelaciones. Ramos, quien es primera generación de latinos, discute su visión para la Corte de Apelaciones y la importancia de que todos participemos en la esfera política. En la edición de esta semana, también tocamos un nuevo centro comunitario dirigido a Brighton Park y llamamos la atención sobre los riesgos para la salud que afectan a los niños de Illinois. # 'It's our time'

Despite running on vapors, Judge Sandra Ramos is knocking on every day, visiting every church with great fervor to generate support for her run to become the first Latina on the Appellate Circuit Court. "For far too long I heard, 'this isn't your time,' or 'wait in line' and I'm not going to subscribe to those beliefs anymore," said Judge Ramos. "We as Latinas have to make our own time, we have to carve our own space, we have to push to see ourselves, our community represented." Growing up as a first-generation Hispanic in Chicago, one of six children with parents who barely spoke English, was no easy task. Ramos's parents instilled in each of them the desire, discipline and structure to attain a college education and pursue the American dream. Ramos graduated from DePaul University where she also went to gain her law degree. "While practicing law, it was jarring to me that there still was almost no Hispanic judiciary representation in our court system, despite Cook County being one of the largest Latino communities in the United States. It was then I realized that in order to see this future I kept waiting for, I would have to become part of the solution and fight for the representation our courts so desperately needed," said Judge Ramos. It would take 17 years and five election attempts to achieve that dream. In 2010 she was finally elected into the Circuit Court. Now almost ten years later, Hispanics make up 25.5 percent of the population of Cook County, yet still hold only one of 24 (4 percent) Appellate Court seats. It is for that very reason; Judge Ramos is running for the Appellate

Circuit Court. "We need representation," said Ramos. Ramos shares with Lawndale Bilingual News her core issues.

Diversity

Diversity on the Bench is extremely important as it allows for a more dynamic dialogue in our upper court system. Right now there is only 1 Latino Justice in the Appellate Court, and far contrast from the 25 percent of Latinos living in Cook County. And not just Latinos are being underrepresented, Asian Americans are completely absent from both the Appellate and Supreme Court. In an age when Cook County is the face of diversity, its time

A pesar d todo, la Juez Sandra Ramos toca a todas las puertas y visita todas las iglesias con gran fervor para generar apoyo para su carrera para convertirse en la primera latina en la Corte del Circuito de Apelaciones. “Por mucho tiempo escuché, “Este no es tu momento” o “espera en línea” y “ya no voy a hacer caso a esas palabras” dijo la Juez Ramos. “Nosotras, como latinas, tenemos que hacer nuestro propio tiempo, tenemos que cavar nuestro propio espacio, tenemos que pugnar por vernos representadas, nosotras mismas y nuestra comunidad”. Crecer como primera generación hispana en Chicago, una de seis hijos, con padres que apenas hablaban inglés, no fue tarea fácil. Los padres de Ramos inculcaron en cada uno de ellos el deseo, la disciplina y la estructura para lograr una educación universitaria y para más tarde que ella obtuviera su diploma de leyes.

“Mientras practicaba leyes, fue chocante para mi que casi no hubiera representación judicial hispana en nuestro sistema de cortes, a pesar de ser el Condado de Cook una de las comunidades latinas más grandes de Estados Unidos. Fue entonces que me di cuenta de que para ver ese futuro necesitaba esperar, tendría que convertirme en parte

Brighton Park to Construct New Community Center

By: Ashmar Mandou

The Brighton Park Neighborhood Council announced their plans to construct a new multi-service community center during a press conference on Monday. The community center will become a new headquarters space for the organization and will house a plethora of violence prevention, financial services, and youth development programs. The facility will be fully accessible to all in the community. This new center is an opportunity to expand the organization's programming and services even further into the community. "The planning for this center began ten years ago. With a growing need for services and youth programming in Brighton Park and on the southwest side, the center will greatly expand our capacity to provide further support for families in our community," explains BPNC Executive Director, Patrick Brosnan. Brighton Park Neighborhood Council received the support from various legislators, including Representative Aaron Ortiz, Representative Theresa Mah, Senator Celina Villanueva, and Senator Tony Muñoz, who fought for capital dollars in Springfield, has been instrumental in making BPNC's dream a reality. The four elected officials will be present at the unveiling of the community center plans. Through previous capital grants, BPNC awarded nearly $2,000,000 in funds. BPNC has partnered with Juan Gabriel Moreno from the award winning architectural firm, JGMA, to design the new community center. Brighton Park Neighborhood Council (BPNC) is a community-based, grassroots organization on Chicago's southwest side, a predominantly Latinx and immigrant community. BPNC empowers community through school and community based services and programs as well as engaging leaders in social justice organizing campaigns.

Chicago to Mark 2020 Equal Pay Day on Latina Equal Pay Day

Women still face an average wage gap of almost 20 percent, and many women of color face much larger gaps. That is why the Equal Pay Day Chicago coalition announces that they will hold Chicago's 2020 rally to end the gender wage gap on the last equal pay day observed in 2020—Latina Equal Pay Day on October 29th—rather than on March 31st when Equal Pay Day, marking the average gap for women, is observed nationally. With this move, the coalition recognizes that they will not close the gender wage gap until every woman is compensated with equal pay for equal work. While on average, women earn 82 cents for every dollar men earn, women of color routinely experience much wider wage gaps due to the compounding effects of gender and racial discrimination, and in recent years, some of those gaps have widened. Asian American and Pacific Islander women make an average of 90 cents for every dollar paid to white men, but some ethnic subgroups make as little as 50 cents. Black women make 62 cents. Native women make 57 cents. And Latinas make just 54 cents for every dollar paid to white men. It takes more than 22 months of work on average for Latinas to earn what white men do in 12.

Este nuevo centro es una oportunidad para ampliar aún más la programación y servicios a la comunidad. "La planeación de este centro comenzó hace diez años. Con la creciente necesidad de servicios y programas para jóvenes en Brighton Park y en el sector sudoeste, el centro ampliará considerablemente nuestra capacidad de proveer más apoyo a la familias de nuestra comunidad" explica el Director Ejecutivo de BPNC, Patrick Brosnan.

El Concilio del Barrio de Brighton Park recibió el apoyo de varios legisladores, incluyendo al Representante Aaron Ortiz, a la Representante Theresa Mah, a la Senadora Celina Villanueva y al Senador

Tony Muñoz, quien luchó por capital en Springfield y ha sido instrumento clave en convertir el sueño de BPNC una realidad. Los cuatro funcionarios electos estarán presentes en una develación de los planes del centro comunitario. Por medio de subsidios de capital, BPNC otorgó cerca de $2,000,000 en fondos. BPNC se ha asociado con Juan Gabriel Moreno de la firma premiada de arquitectura, JGMA, para diseñar el nuevo centro comunitario. # Triton College Women's Basketball Player Bethany Baldwin Named Conference 'Player of the Year'

Triton College is proud to have women's basketball player Bethany Baldwin voted as the 2019-2020 North Central Community College (N4C) conference Player of the Year. It has been 27 years since a Triton women's basketball player was selected as the top conference contributor. Baldwin is from Watersmeet, Mich. and transferred to Triton

College in 2019. The sophomore guard is a leader in both the Region IV and the nation in rebounds, assists, steals, field goal percentage and three-point field goal percentage. In scoring, she is among the top 10 players in Region IV and among the top 30 players in the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Division II programs. Baldwin is proud to be Native American, a member of the Forest County Potawatomi tribe. Making the transition to the Chicagoland area was a big change for Baldwin, but the support she has received, especially from family has been key to her success on and off the court. As a student-athlete, excelling in her sport and completing her course work has been a delicate balancing act. Baldwin said student athletes have to persevere to succeed.

our Judiciary reflected its constituency.

Civil Rights

Many of our constituents now fear having family members deported or misplaced, while others fear losing the right to choose what happens to their bodies, or who they can marry. Unfortunately, we live in a time when many of our basic civil liberties are being jeopardized. It goes beyond gender, race, religion, or even political bias: these civil rights protect who we are as individuals, family members, neighbors and citizens of America. When these liberties are jeopardized, as they are now, we need strong leaders in prominent roles who are not afraid to stand up and defend our constitutional freedom.

Equal Access to justice

During my five year stay as Judge in Branch 48 in Englewood, I was reminded every day of the importance of equal access to justice in every aspect of our judicial system. How any lack of due diligence could severely impact the often disenfranchised lives of any our citizens here in Cook County. It truly made me want to work more ardently each and every day, knowing I was doing everything I could to fairly preside over each case before me. Today, I still see that lack of equal access all across the county, and it continues to drive and inspire me while fighting for what I know is right.

de la solución y luchar por la representación que nuestras cortes tan desesperadamente necesitaban", dijo la Juez Ramos. Tomaría 17 años y cinco intentos de elección lograr ese sueño. En el 2010 finalmente fue elegida a la

Corte del Circuito. Ahora, casi diez años más tarde, los hispanos componen un 25.5 por ciento de la población del Condado de Cook, sin embargo aún tienen solo 24 puestos en la Corte de Apelaciones (4 por ciento). Es por esta misma razón; que la Juez Ramos está corriendo para la Corte del Circuito de Apelaciones. "Necesitamos representación", dijo Ramos. Ramos comparte con el Lawndale Bilingual News sus problemas principales.

La diversidad en la Banca es sumamente importante, ya que permite un diálogo más dinámico en el sistema de nuestro tribunal superior. En este momento solo hay 1 Juez Latino en la Corte de Apelaciones a pesar de que 25 por ciento de latinos viven en el Condado de Cook. Y no solo los latinos están subrepresentados. Los Asiático Americanos están completamente ausentes en ambas cortes, la de Apelaciones y la Suprema. En un momento en que el Condado de Cook es el rostro de la diversidad, es tiempo de que nuestro poder judicial refleje su circunscripción.

Muchos de nuestros constituyentes temen ahora que miembros de su

familia sean deportados o desaparezcan, mientras otros temen perder el derecho de escoger que ocurre con sus cuerpos, o con quien quieren casarse. Desafortunadamente vivimos en un momento en que muchas de nuestras libertades civiles básicas están en peligro. Va más allá del género, la raza, la religión e inclusive la parcialidad política; estos derechos civiles protegen lo que somos, como individuos, como miembros de una familia, como vecinos y como ciudadanos de Estados Unidos. Cuando estas libertades se ven en peligro, como ahora, necesitamos líderes fuertes en puestos prominentes, que no tengan miedo de levantarse y defender nuestra libertad

Acceso Equitativo a la Justicia

Durante mis cinco años como Juez en Branch 48 en Englewood, se me recordaba todos los días la importancia del acceso equitativo a la justicia en todos los aspectos de nuestro sistema judicial. Cómo cualquier falta de la debida diligencia podría afectar gravemente las vidas, a menudo privadas, de los ciudadanos del Condado de Cook. Esto verdaderamente me hizo desear trabajar con más fuerza cada día, sabiendo que estaba haciendo todo lo que podía para presidir justamente cada caso que me traían. Hoy en día, aún veo la falta de acceso equitativo en todo el país y continúa impulsándome e inspirándome mientras lucho por lo que yo sé es lo correcto.

New Report: Cavities and Obesity Key Issues Affecting Illinois Children

By: Ashmar Mandou

The Illinois Department of Public Health, last week released the “2018-2019 Healthy Smiles, Healthy Growth” study, which specifies that tooth decay and obesity continue to pose significant health problems to Illinois children.

“Good oral health and healthy weight are important to a child’s social, physical, and mental development and oral disease and excessive body weight have been identified as important health issues affecting a significant segment of the Illinois school aged population,” said Dr. Ngozi O. Ezike, Director of the Illinois Department of Public Health. “Study findings will help state and local, public, and private partners formulate programmatic and policy strategies that address the health care needs of Illinois’ children.” “An estimated 5,600 third-grade children sitting in classrooms with pain and infection from a dental issue, this increased when compared to this same measure in the 2013-2014 study,” said Dr. Alejandra Valencia whose organization, Oral Health Forum, collaborated on this study.

Untreated tooth decay or cavities rate remained 22.2 percent and is higher in Illinois children than national data reported

(15.3%) for a similar age group. Nearly one in five Illinois third-grade children lives with obesity (18.0%) as defined by U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), this also is higher than the national obesity rate of 15 percent for similar aged children.

The report also revealed positive trends. Statewide, 53 percent of Illinois third graders have dental sealants – a protective coating on teeth that prevents the starting of dental caries. This rate is a percent increase of six percent over the 2013-2014 study period.

Nuevo Reporte: Caries y Obesidad, Problemas Clave que Afectan a los Niños de Illinois

Por: Ashmar Mandou

El Departamento de Salud Pública de Illinois, publicó la semana pasada el estudio “2018-2019 Sonrisas Saludables, Crecimiento Saludable”, que especifica que los dientes con caries y la obesidad continúan siendo un considerable problema de salud para los niños de Illinois.

“Una buena salud dental y un peso saludable son importantes para el desarrollo social, físico y mental y las enfermedades dentales y un peso excesivo del cuerpo han sido identificados como importantes problemas de salud que afectan a un considerable segmento de la población en edad escolar de Illinois”, dijo el Dr. Ngozi O. Ezike, Director del Departamento de Salud Pública de Illinois. “Los hallazgos del estudio ayudarán a afiliados estatales y locales, públicos y privados a formular estrategias que atiendan las necesidades de cuidado de salud infantil en Illinois”.

“Un estimado de 5,600 niños de tercer grado en los salones de clase tienen dolor e infecciones por un problema dental, esto aumentó al compararse con esta misma medida en el estudio del 2013-2014”, dijo la Dra. Alejandra Valencia, cuya organización, Oral Health Forum, colaboró en este estudio.

El índice de cavidades o caries dentales que no se atienden sigue siendo un 22.2 por ciento y es más alto en los niños de Illinois que datos nacionales reportados (15.3%) en un grupo similar. Cerca de uno de cada niño de tercer grado en Illinois tiene obesidad (18.0%) según lo definen los Centros para el Control y Prevención de Enfermedades (CDC), esto es más alto que el índice nacional de obesidad del 15 por ciento en niños de edad similar.

El reporte reveló también tendencias positivas. 53 por ciento de los niños de tercer grado de Illinois tienen sellos dentales – una capa protectora en los dientes que evita las caries. Este índice da un 6 por ciento de aumento del estudio anterior del 2013-2014.

TERRENOS DE VENTA EN ECUADOR

Aproveche esta oportunidad de hacer rendir su dinero en forma segura y rentable.

Plusvalía - Alto retorno a su inversión

TERRENOS con agua abundante, con 6 puntos de agua y dos ríos,

Excelente oportunidad de invertir en agricultura orgánica. Los terrenos están rodeada de árboles de balsa. Ubicación inmejorable, se encuentra cerca de la carretera principal en el pueblo San Pedro cerca a El Triunfo, provincia del Cañar a tan solo 1 hora de Guayaquil y 3 horas a Cuenca. La tierra siempre gana plusvalía. Su valor siempre sube a pesar de cualquier circunstancia económica del país.

La agricultura es la mejor inversión en este momento. El rendimiento de su inversión supera con creces los intereses bancarios. Es una gran oportunidad para jóvenes o personas que estén pensando en retirarse con deseos de poner a trabajar su dinero con ganancias seguras.

El clima es perfecto para sembrar árboles de alto rendimiento económico como la teca y balsa y plantaciones comerciales de cacao, yuca, banano o bien pastizales para ganadería. Las opciones son innumerables. Su inversión puede ser en muchísimas plantaciones de alto valor y rendimiento.

Las plantaciones de árboles necesitan poca supervisión durante su crecimiento, por ello es que esta es una oportunidad inmejorable para residentes en el extranjero.

No es necesario el cuidado constante de las plantaciones. Es una oportunidad de inversión inmejorable. Ud. puede recuperar su inversión en tan solo un par de años con una plantación de cacao o bien a lo más en 4 años si es una plantación de balsa.

Por su ubicación, la finca es también susceptible de lotificación y urbanización.

Dale forma al futuro de tu familia.

Cada 10 años, el censo cuenta a todas las personas que viven en los Estados Unidos. Es importante contar a todas las personas que viven en tu hogar para asegurarnos de que tu comunidad y las comunidades de todo el país reciban fondos y estén representadas de manera precisa durante la próxima década.

Cuenta a todos, desde los abuelos hasta los recién nacidos.

Sin importar quién viva en tu hogar, asegúrate de contarlos a todos en el Censo del 2020. Esto incluye a los abuelos, niños pequeños, niños adoptivos y los que no son tus parientes pero que viven o se están quedando contigo. La información recopilada en el censo ayudará a informar cómo distribuir más de $675 mil millones en fondos federales cada año. Eso incluye dinero para cosas como:

- > Servicios de emergencia
- > Comidas escolares
- > Medicare y Medicaid
- > Asistencia para adopciones
- > Programas de asistencia alimentaria
- > Bibliotecas y centros comunitarios

Tus respuestas están seguras.

Por ley, tu información personal se mantiene en confidencialidad. Tus respuestas solo pueden ser utilizadas con fines estadísticos. No se pueden usar para propósitos de cumplimiento de la ley ni para determinar tu elegibilidad personal para beneficios del gobierno.

Tu familia puede ayudarte a responder.

El formulario del censo por internet está disponible en inglés y en otros 12 idiomas. Si tú no hablas alguno de estos idiomas, otra persona en tu hogar puede llenar el formulario por ti. Si los adultos en tu casa no hablan ninguno de estos idiomas, alguien puede ayudarlos a traducirlo, como por ejemplo, un niño en tu hogar o un amigo.
