

FSIS Issues Public Health Alert

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's Food Safety and Inspection Service (FSIS) is issuing a public health alert for approximately 49 pounds of frozen, fully cooked, not shelf stable chicken sriracha ravioli products due to misbranding and an undeclared allergen. The product may contain soy, a known allergen, which is not declared on the product label. FSIS is issuing this public health alert out of the utmost of caution to ensure that consumers with allergic reactions to soy are aware that these products should not be consumed. The product labeled as "FRESH THYME FARMERS MARKET CHICKEN RAVIOLI Ovals" was formulated with a different sriracha chili sauce than normally utilized in the product formulation because the firm was unable to obtain the usual brand from their supplier. The sriracha chili sauce used on Dec. 8, 2020 contains soy, while the sauce normally used in the formulation does not. These items were shipped to distributors/sold in retail in Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin. Consumers with food safety questions can call the toll-free USDA Meat and Poultry Hotline at 1-888-MPHotline (1-888-674-6854) or live chat via Ask USDA from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. (Eastern Time) Monday through Friday.

Illinois Department of Public Health Monitoring New Coronavirus Variant

A new variant of the virus that causes COVID-19 was identified in the United Kingdom a few weeks ago. Cases have been reported in two states and are not known to be linked to travel, which could indicate community spread. No cases caused by this new variant have been confirmed in Illinois yet. As more information is learned, IDPH will provide updates and notify the public if/when the variant is detected in Illinois. Illinois is increasing its surveillance for the variant by performing genomic sequence testing on an increased number of specimens that have been collected. Virus mutation is common and can emerge and disappear quickly. Some mutations can emerge that help a virus spread more easily, cause infection to be more or less severe, or lead to resistance to treatments or vaccines. Based on the information available now, the effectiveness of the vaccine has not changed. Public health experts are working to better understand the potential impact of this variant, including how the variant spreads and how it affects people who are infected.

ISAC Provides Free Assistance for Students Completing FAFSA

While students are struggling nationwide with remote education and college plans seem to be more up in the air than ever, there is some good news in Illinois: Illinois closed out the year ranking the #1 state for completions of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA®), the form most students use to apply for federal and state financial aid for postsecondary education. Ensuring that students have this important information drove passage of the state's FAFSA Mandate. This new law, which took effect with the 2020-2021 school year, requires public high school seniors to complete the FAFSA or, if eligible, the Alternative Application for Illinois Financial Aid, as a prerequisite to receiving a high school diploma. (A waiver provision allows a parent, guardian, or the student – if 18 or emancipated – to opt out of the requirement.)

Information about FAFSA Mandate training and support for school counselors and other professionals is available at <https://www.isac.org/pd/fafsa-mandate.html>. ISACorps members are available throughout the state offering free assistance to help students and families complete and submit an application. Find your ISACorps member at studentportal.isac.org/isacorps.

Setting Financial Goals for the New Year

By: Martha Dominguez of COUNTRY Financial There's no doubt that 2020 was a tumultuous year that has affected everything from our health, social lives and our finances. At COUNTRY Financial, we've spent a lot of time helping our clients strategize how to get through difficult financial times and reassess the financial priorities that matter most. We've learned that even when times are tough, many are finding ways to make the best of the situation we have been dealt. According to a recent survey from COUNTRY Financial, 76 percent of Americans said they were able to gain or further develop a personal finance skill during the pandemic. The top skills included cutting back on spending, paying down debt and/or making debt payments on time and regularly putting money into savings.

Additionally, as we say goodbye to 2020, many are feeling optimistic about the new year. In fact, 38 percent of Americans believe their finances will improve in 2021, while 36 percent believe their finances will stay the same. Only 18 percent believe they will worsen. So which goals are top of mind for you in 2021? Our survey found that Americans' top financial goal for 2021 is to control spending, followed by saving an emergency fund and paying down debt. Here are a few tips to get you started:

1. One of the first ways to get a handle on your spending is to change your mindset. The COUNTRY Financial survey found that Americans' top financial regret of 2020 was overspending. It's easy in a pandemic to think that everything is out of your control, but the truth is, spending is one of the things we CAN take charge of.

It's also easy to think, "I'm just like everyone else," or "this is just temporary." But that kind of mentality can prevent you from making changes that could have a positive impact on overall financial health.

2. Get creative about finding ways to save. Interest rates are low; talking with your local lender about refinancing options could lower your mortgage payments. You can also talk with your insurance representative about potential discounts or changing your deductible to lower your costs.

3. Ask for help. A financial professional can help you identify your priorities and develop a plan that can withstand uncertainty.

ISAC Ofrece Ayuda Gratuita a Estudiantes que Completan FAFSA

Mientras los estudiantes están luchando a nivel nacional con la educación remota y los planes para la universidad parecen estar más en el aire que

nunca, hay algunas buenas noticias en Illinois: Illinois cerró el año clasificándose como el estado número 1 en completar la Solicitud Gratuita de Ayuda Federal para Estudiantes (FAFSA®), la forma que la mayoría de los estudiantes usa para solicitar ayuda financiera federal y estatal para la educación postsecundaria. Garantizar que los estudiantes tengan esta importante información impulsó la aprobación del Mandato FAFSA del estado. Esta nueva ley, que entró en efecto con el año escolar 2020-2021, requiere que los estudiantes de último año de secundaria pública completen la forma FAFSA, o, si son elegibles, la Aplicación Alternativa para Ayuda Financiera de Illinois, como un pre-requisito para recibir su diploma de secundaria. (Una disposición de exención permite a un padre, tutor o estudiante, si tiene 18 años o es independiente, optar por no cumplir con el requisito). Información sobre la capacitación y el apoyo del Mandato FAFSA para consejeros escolares y otros profesionales está disponible en <https://www.isac.org/pd/fafsa-mandate.html>. Los miembros de ISACorps están disponibles en todo el estado, ofreciendo asistencia gratuita para ayudar a los estudiantes y sus familias a completar y enviar una solicitud. ## State Announces Reduced Co-Pays for Parents in Illinois' Child Care Assistance Program

Following the launch of a new initiative to direct additional funds to support child care providers in the Child Care Assistance Program (CCAP), Governor JB Pritzker announced parents in the program will pay a maximum of $1.25 in monthly co-pays. CCAP provides low-income families with access to high-quality childcare throughout Illinois and the reduced rates will provide financial relief to families across the state as Illinois continues to feel the impact of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. The lower rates are applicable in January and February 2021. Support for eligible families includes paying for all eligible days of child care regardless of the child's attendance. These changes are effective for December, January and February. As of last month, 98,000 children were enrolled in CCAP. Earlier this year, the Pritzker administration provided $270 million in relief funding to child care providers across the state as part of Illinois' Business Interruption Grant Program, the largest business-relief program in the nation. The state is dedicating an additional $20 million in funding from the CARES Act to provide aid to additional providers in Illinois.

Pan-Seared Salmon with Kale and Apple Salad

1. Bring the salmon to room temperature 10 minutes before cooking.

2. Meanwhile, whisk together the lemon juice, 2 tablespoons of the olive oil and 1/4 teaspoon salt in a large bowl. Add the kale, toss to coat and let stand 10 minutes.

3. While the kale stands, cut the dates into thin slivers and the apple into matchsticks. Add the dates, apples, cheese and almonds to the kale. Season with pepper, toss well and set aside.

4. Sprinkle the salmon all over with 1/2 teaspoon salt and some pepper. Heat the remaining 1 tablespoon oil in a large nonstick skillet over medium-low heat. Raise the heat to medium-high. Place the salmon, skin-side up in the pan. Cook until golden brown on one side, about 4 minutes. Turn the fish over with a spatula, and cook until it feels firm to the touch, about 3 minutes more.

5. Divide the salmon, salad and rolls evenly among four plates.
