Teatro ZinZanni Returns:

Cast Member Storm Marrero Talks New Role

By: Ashmar Mandou

Live comedy, music, and unique thrills once again returns to Chicago with Teatro Zinzanni beginning July 8 at the Chicago Theatre District. An incomparable experience, Teatro Zinzanni is a whirlwind of international cirque, comedy, cabaret served with a multi-course gourmet feast. As one of the most anticipated shows makes its return, we interviewed one of the newest cast members Storm Marrero, a Brooklyn native, in her role as Cleopatra.

Lawndale Bilingual News: I had the pleasure of experiencing Teatro ZinZanni, which instantly became one of my favorite shows; it was thrilling, hilarious, and unforgettable. As a new cast member playing the role of Cleopatra what are you looking forward to the most when Teatro ZinZanni returns to Chicago?

Storm Marrero: I look forward to sharing the stage with a lot of amazing actors, dancers and specialty acts that I've admired for years. But more than anything, I look forward to performing for an audience again. I miss making people happy.

You are a Brooklyn native that has cultivated quite the career working alongside veteran opera singers at the University of Puerto Rico, releasing a record, and becoming the first Afro-Latin ringmaster for the Big Apple Circus 2019-2020 season. What has each experience meant to you personally and professionally? Coming from such an interesting background, being a part of such astounding career opportunities has given me an interesting perspective regarding my creativity. Each experience has allowed me to be even more appreciative of my upbringing and the blessings I've been given. The culmination of all of that was being the first Afro-Latina (and only the 3rd woman) to be at the helm as the ringmaster for the Big Apple Circus in its 42 years running, before the lockdown.

When was the tipping point for you to decide to pursue a career in music?

I've been a professional singer since the age of 18 and though I've always worked in the arts, I always had a day job. I decided on pursuing my career full time in 2016, at the age of 40. I saw myself investing so much of my time in work I hated, I made it my business to look at my career as my full-time work. So, I quit my day job and started living life as a working artist/working musician. It's trying because, as artists, there's no such thing as a sick-day or a day off. If you do not work, you do not get paid. So as an artist, I have to take extremely good care of myself and my instrument (my voice). So, no hard partying, no hanging out late, no loud places. My life and work is my art.

What element of your musical style are you looking forward to sharing in Teatro ZinZanni?

To be perfectly honest, just being able to be around artists, being able to work in what I love! That's what I'm looking forward to the most!! I'm definitely looking forward to singing with my friend Michael Cunio, who is a powerhouse singer and part of my artistic family.

For kids who dream of having a career in music/theatre what advice can you give to them on how to prepare?

My advice; study absolutely everything! All the ins and outs of theater, all the musical styles under the sun. Even pick up on things that you never thought you'd do. I know so many singers and dancers that are fabulous costume designers, amazing photographers, know about lighting and design. Make yourself indispensable, all while still honing your craft. And above all, believe in yourself. Believe it even if others don't see it. If it's as clear as day in your minds' eye, it's yours. No one can take it from you.

Individual tickets, which include a four-course meal, are on sale now and range in price from $119 - $189. Front Row VIP tickets are available at a premium price. Regresa el Teatro ZinZanni:

Una de los Miembros del Reparto, Storm Marrero, Habla Sobre un Nuevo Papel

Por Ashmar Mandou

Comedia en vivo, música y emociones únicas regresan una vez más a Chicago con el Teatro Zinzanni, que comienza el 8 de julio en Chicago Theatre District. Una incomparable experiencia, el Teatro Zinzanni es un torbellino de circo internacional, comedia y cabaret, presentado con un banquete gourmet de varios platos. Al regresar uno de los shows más anticipados, entrevistamos a una de los más nuevos miembros del reparto, Storm Marrero, nativa de Brooklyn en su papel de Cleopara. LawndaleBilingualNews: Tuve el placer de conocer el Teatro ZinZanni, que instantáneamente se convirtió en uno de mis shows favoritos; era emocionante, divertidísimo e inolvidable. como nuevo miembro del elenco interpretando el papel de Cleopatra, ¿qué es lo que más esperas cuando el Teatro ZinZanni regrese a Chicago?

Storm Marrero: Espero compartir el escenario con muchos brillantes actores, bailarines y actos especializados que he admirado por años. Pero más que nada, Espero con ansias volver a actuar para una audiencia. Extraño hacer feliz a la gente. Eres nativa de Brooklyn y has cultivado una gran carrera trabajando junto a cantantes de ópera veteranos en la Universidad de Puerto Rico, lanzando un disco y convirtiéndote en la primera maestra de ceremonias afro-latina para la temporada Big Apple Circus 2019-2020. ¿Qué ha significado cada experiencia para ti, personal y profesionalmente? El venir de un pasado tan interesante y ser parte de una carrera tan maravillosa me ha dado una perspectiva única sobre mi creatividad. Cada experiencia me ha permitido apreciar aún más la forma en que me crié y las bendiciones que he recibido. La culminación de todo fue el ser la primera afro-latina (y solo la 3er mujer) en estar al timón como maestra de ceremonias del Big Apple Circus en sus 42 años consecutivos, antes del cierre.

¿En que punto de la vida decidiste seguir una carrera en la música? He sido cantante profesional desde los 18 años y aunque siempre trabajé en las artes, siempre tuve un trabajo de día. Decidí seguir mi carrera de tiempo completo en el 2016 a la edad de 40 años. Me vi a mi misma invirtiendo demasiado tiempo en trabajar y no me gustó, decidí considerar mi carrera como mi trabajo de tiempo completo. Por lo tanto, renuncié a mi trabajo de día y empecé a vivir la vida trabajando como artista/ trabajando como música. Es difícil, porque como artista no hay tal cosa como un día por enfermedad o un día libre. Si no trabajas, no te pagan. Entonces, como artista, tengo que cuidarme muy bien a mí misma y a mi instrumento (mi voz). Por lo tanto, no hay grandes fiestas, no salgo tarde, no voy a lugares ruidosos. Mi vida y mi obra son mi arte. ¿Qué elemento de tu estilo musical deseas compartir en Teatro ZinZanni?

Para ser honesta, solo quiero estar alrededor de los artistas, poder trabajar en lo que más me gusta! eso es lo que más deseo! Definitivamente espero con ansia cantar con mi amigo Michael Cunio, que es un maravilloso cantante y parte de mi familia artística.

Para los niños que sueñan con tener una carrera en la música/el teatro, ¿Que consejo les darías para prepararse para ello?

Mi consejo: estudiar absolutamente todo! todos los entresijos del teatro, todos los estilos musicales bajo el sol. Inclusive escoger algo que nunca pensaste hacer. Conozco tantos cantantes y bailarines que son fabulosos diseñadores de trajes, asombrosos fotógrafos, expertos sobre la luz y el diseño. Háganse indispensables, sin abandonar lo que más quieren. Y sobre todo, crean en ustedes mismos. Crean en ustedes aunque otros no lo hagan. Si en tu mente está claro como el día, eso es lo que es. Nadie te lo puede quitar.

Marcha Juvenil de Chicago Contra la Violencia Armada

El lunes, jóvenes y miembros de Good Kids Mad City (GKMC) Black Lives Matter Women of Faith, AMPR, Nita's Love Train, Erase the Gang Database Coalition, Legisladores Estatales y familias que han perdido a sus seres queridos a manos de la violencia armada, sostuvieron una conferencia de prensa y una marcha para atender la violencia armada. Hablaron sobre la Marcha de la Paz que están llevando a cabo en respuesta a los más de 100 jóvenes, de 24 años

y menos, que perdieron la vida a la violencia armada y las ocho balaceras en masa de este año en Chicago. Hablaron también sobre las políticas que quieren ver aprobadas, como el cuidado de salud mental gratuito para las comunidades negras y latinas impactadas por la violencia armada, vivienda justa, empleos y el El Libro de la Paz, que establecerá una cultura de paz y justicia restaurativa en barrios negros y latinos en los sectores sur y oeste, que reducirán la violencia armada. GKMC pide que 2 por ciento del presupuesto sea utilizado para pagar la Ordenanza del Libro de la Paz. GoodKids MadCity quiere establecer la práctica de la paz como norma en comunidades más golpeadas por la violencia armada. Dado que GKMC está dirigido por jóvenes y tiene el dedo en el pulso de la cultura adolescente, planean utilizar prácticas restaurativas y justicia transformadora para influir en cómo los jóvenes enfrentan los conflictos y responden a la violencia.

CDPH Announces Changes at City-Run Vaccination Sites

By: Ashmar Mandou

The Chicago Department of Public Health on Wednesday announced plans to decommission a number of City-run vaccination sites and stated their focus is now on hyperlocal distribution to reach Chicagoans who still need their COVID-19 vaccine. "As our COVID-19 vaccination strategy continues to evolve, we know that hyperlocal efforts and meeting people where they are offer us the best chance to vaccinate even more Chicagoans," said CDPH Commissioner

Allison Arwady, M.D. "I am very proud of our team and what we accomplished at these sites to move the city through this crisis." The Chicago State University drive-thru closed on Saturday, June 19, but there is still a walk-in vaccination site at CSU, open for appointments or walk-ups. Thursday, June 24, will be the final day of operations at the United Center vaccination site, run by the City of Chicago in partnership with County and State partners. As the United Center closes, a vaccination site at Malcom X College will reopen on June 28, administering the Pfizer vaccine, operating Monday through Friday from 1:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. and Saturdays from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. As the City switches from fixed vaccination sites, it continues to offer vaccine at dozens of neighborhood-based pop-up and mobile vaccination events,

Chicago Youth March Against Gun Violence

On Monday youth and members from Good Kids Mad City (GKMC), Black Lives Matter Women of Faith, AMPR, Nita's Love Train, Erase the Gang Database Coalition, State legislators, and families who've lost loved ones to gun violence held a press conference and march to address gun violence. They spoke about the Peace March they're hosting in response to the 100 plus youth, 24 and younger lost to gun violence and the eight mass shootings this year in Chicago. They also spoke about the policies they want to see passed like free mental health care for Black and Brown communities impacted by gun violence, fair housing, jobs and the PeaceBook, that will build a culture of peace and restorative justice in Black and Brown neighborhoods on the South and West side, that will reduce gun violence. GKMC is demanding that two percent of CPD's budget be used to pay for the PeaceBook Ordinance. GoodKids MadCity wants to establish the practice of peace as a norm in communities most harmed by gun violence. Since GKMC is youth-led and has its finger on the pulse of teen culture, they plan to utilize restorative practices and transformative justice to influence how young people deal with conflict and respond to violence.

Creamy Lemon Pasta with Shrimp

Ingredients

1. 8 ounces whole-wheat fettuccine
2. 1 tablespoon extra-virgin olive oil
2. 12 ounces sustainably sourced peeled and deveined raw shrimp (26-30 per pound)
3. 2 tablespoons unsalted butter
4. 1 tablespoon finely chopped garlic
5. ¼ teaspoon crushed red pepper
6. 4 cups loosely packed arugula
7. ¼ cup whole-milk plain yogurt
8. 1 teaspoon lemon zest
9. 3/2 tablespoons lemon juice
10. ¼ teaspoon salt
11. 1/3 cup grated Parmesan cheese, plus more for garnish
12. ¼ cup thinly sliced fresh basil

Directions

Step 1
Bring 7 cups of water to a boil. Add fettuccine, stirring to separate the noodles. Cook until just tender, 7 to 9 minutes. Reserve 1/2 cup of the cooking water and drain.

Step 2 Meanwhile, heat oil in a large nonstick skillet over medium-high heat. Add shrimp and cook, stirring occasionally, until pink and curled, 2 to 3 minutes. Transfer the shrimp to a bowl.

Step 3 Add butter to the pan and reduce heat to medium. Add garlic and crushed red pepper; cook, stirring often, until the garlic is fragrant, about 1 minute. Add arugula and cook, stirring, until wilted, about 1 minute. Reduce heat to low. Add the fettuccine, yogurt, lemon zest and the reserved cooking water, 1/4 cup at a time, tossing well, until the fettuccine is fully coated and creamy. Add the shrimp, lemon juice and salt, tossing to coat the fettuccine. Remove from the heat and toss with Parmesan.

Step 4 Serve the fettuccine topped with basil and more Parmesan, if desired.
