

State of Illinois Takes Action on Baby Formula Shortage

By: Ashmar Mandou

Outrage over the shortage of safe baby formula has spread across the country leaving elected officials scrambling for a solution. On Wednesday morning, the State of Illinois announced that vital steps to help primarily low-income families enrolled in the Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC) program will be taken in coordination with the USDA Food and Nutrition Service.

"The ongoing formula shortage has brought undue stress into the lives of new parents, and my administration will do everything in our power to help families maintain access to formula," said Governor JB Pritzker. "We've partnered with our suppliers and continue to ramp up our support centers to ensure our residents, especially low-income families, have what they need to care for their babies."

Chicago Curfew Goes into Effect

By: Ashmar Mandou

The City of Chicago announced two curfews for minors goes into effect on May 19th, for those under the age of 18-years-old, following a string of recent violence in the downtown area.

“I’m urging parents, guardians and responsible adults in the lives of children to make sure that you know what the rules are, and that you make a plan with your children and young people to make sure that they safely abide by this curfew that’s been in effect for a very long time,” Mayor Lori Lightfoot said. “You need to make sure that you understand what your young people are doing, who they are with and where they are going.”

The weekend curfew for Millennium Park takes effect and includes unaccompanied minors under the age of 18-years-old, according to guidance issued. The new rule bans unaccompanied minors under the age of 18 from visiting the park after 6 p.m. Thursday through Sunday. The city will also enact a 10p.m. citywide curfew. The curfews were enacted following the fatal shooting of 16-year-old last weekend near Millennium Park. “Tragically, a young person – a teenager – lost his life last night in Millennium Park. I suspect an overwhelming majority of the youth who were in the Park were there to have a good time and enjoy a summer evening. But the scene devolved into one of chaos and unnecessary violence,” said Lightfoot.

Effective immediately, from Thursday through Sunday, unaccompanied minors are not allowed in Millennium Park after 6p.m. The new policies

“will be strictly enforced and violations will be dealt with swiftly,” stated in a press release. All residents and visitors under the age of 18 are welcome at the Park during the evening hours as long as they are accompanied by at least one responsible adult. According to the City of Chicago, they intend to partner with Chicago Public Schools and other local school systems to fully explain this new policy to students, as well as to encourage guardians to ensure that their children are conducting themselves appropriately and safely at all times.

The last citywide curfew in place was in 1992, 11p.m. weekend curfew for teens 16-years-old and under.

Baby Formula

has also trained caseworkers to assist families with formula questions IDHS Help Line at 1-800-843-6154. The Help Line is designed for Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) and WIC customers primarily but is open to all residents of Illinois. As of March 2022, there were 43,568 infants active on the WIC program.

“We understand that the ongoing recall leaves parents and caregivers very concerned about how they will feed their babies and children with rare diseases and conditions who rely on formula,” said IDPH Acting Director Dr. Amaal Tokars. “We want to remind families during this time to avoid attempting to make ‘homemade’ formula, or to hoard supplies of formula from stores.” The formula shortage has been caused by a combination of issues. In mid-February, the FDA recalled products from several brands of baby formula produced by Abbott Laboratories, including some types of Similac, Alimentum and EleCare after babies became sick from consuming them.

Illinois contracts with Mead Johnson, the Chicago-based manufacturer of “Enfamil” to exclusively supply standard infant formulas for Illinois’ WIC customers. Mead Johnson has ramped up production of its two most used products by over 10 percent in March and April and 60 percent in May as compared to pre-recall.

Entra en Vigor el Toque de Queda en Chicago

Por: Ashmar Mandou

La Ciudad de Chicago anunció dos toques de queda para menores, mismos que entran en efecto el 19 de mayo, para quienes tienen menos de 18 años de edad, tras la reciente serie de violencia en el área del centro de Chicago.

“Exhorto a los padres, tutores y adultos responsables de la vida de sus hijos, que se aseguren de saber cuales son las reglas y hacer un plan con sus hijos y los jóvenes para garantizar que cumplan con seguridad este toque de queda que no ha estado vigente durante mucho tiempo”, dijo la alcaldesa Lori Lightfoot. “Necesitan estar seguros que entienden lo que hacen los jóvenes, con quienes están y a donde van”.

El toque de queda del fin de semana para el Millennium Park entra en efecto e incluye a menores no acompañados menores de 18 años, de acuerdo a la guía publicada. La nueva regla prohíbe que menores de 18 años no acompañados visiten el parque después de las 6 p.m. de jueves a domingo. La ciudad promulga también un toque de queda en la ciudad a las 10 p.m. “Trágicamente, un joven – un adolescente – perdió la vida anoche en el Millennium Park. Sospecho que una abrumadora mayoría de los jóvenes que estaban en el parque se estaban divirtiendo y disfrutando una tarde de verano. Pero la escena se convirtió en caos y en violencia innecesaria”, dijo Lightfoot.

Efectivo de inmediato, de martes a domingo, no se permiten menores no acompañados en el Millennium Park después de las 6 p.m. Las nuevas políticas “se harán cumplir estrictamente y los visitantes menores de 18 años son bienvenidos en el parque durante las horas de la tarde, siempre que están acompañados por lo menos por un adulto responsable. De acuerdo a la Ciudad de Chicago, intentan asociarse con las Escuelas Públicas de Chicago y otros sistemas escolares locales para explicar de lleno esta nueva política para los estudiantes y exhortar a los tutores a asegurarse que sus hijos se conducen apropiadamente y con seguridad en todo momento.

El último toque de queda de la ciudad fue en 1992, 11 p.m., toque de queda de fin de semana para adolescentes de 16 años y menores.
