Mujeres on the Run un Proyecto para los Programas de Centro Romero

Centro Romero es una organización sin ánimos de Lucro, nombrada en honor al Obispo Oscar Romero, nacido en El Salvador quien dio su vida por los más necesitados de su país, en busca de la paz, justicia y salvación de todos. Centro Romero se funda en Chicago con el fin de acoger a las personas que huyen de la guerra, tal como hoy día huyen de Ucrania, Palestina, Siria, Centroamérica y otras regiones del mundo donde hay conflictos armados. Razón por la que, actualmente honrando la memoria del Obispo Romero esta organización busca servir a las comunidades más vulnerables, por medio de clases de inglés, servicios legales (inmigración), alfabetización, violencia doméstica, programas de arte y deporte para estudiantes de primaria y secundaria, entre otros programas, con el objetivo de integrar a los migrantes a la sociedad estadounidense. “Centro Romero sirve aproximadamente a 25,000 personas al año y la demanda por nuestros servicios sigue creciendo” afirma Daysi Funes, directora ejecutiva de Centro Romero.

El año pasado, Daysi Funes y José Torres, voluntario de la Pastoral Migratoria, mientras conversaban en La Humita sobre la visita a El Salvador durante la beatificación de monseñor Óscar Romero, se inspiraron y decidieron organizar la primera carrera Mujeres on the Run 5k, con la motivación de continuar sirviendo a los más necesitados y así recaudar fondos para lograr seguir apoyando los diferentes programas que tiene Centro Romero, puesto que después de un difícil año fiscal durante pandemia, se vieron

Travel enthusiasts are making up for the last two years of lockdown and restrictions, as nearly seven in ten Americans, 69 percent, are planning to travel this summer and 60 percent saying they are likely to take additional vacations this year compared to 2020-21, according to a recent survey conducted by Morning Consult and commissioned by the American Hotel and Lodging Association (AHLA).

To take advantage of the latest travel boom, hospitality and business leaders in Chicago held a press conference Wednesday morning at the Allegro Royal Sonesta Hotel in the Chicago Loop, to discuss strategies on how to reignite travel and tourism to the Chicago area. "The COVID-19 pandemic has left an indelible mark on travel, but we are optimistic about the future," said Chip Rogers, president & CEO of the American Hotel and Lodging Association. "Now is the time for places like Chicago to help us promote the return of travel – especially meetings and events. Hotels have always been a major economic engine in our country, including Illinois. We stand ready to continue this role as we emerge from the pandemic."

Due to pandemic-related travel reductions in 2020 and 2021, Illinois and Chicago hotels lost more than $5.4 billion in room revenue, resulting in a drop of more than $1 billion in state and local tax revenue. Another national survey shows that 77 percent of business travelers say it is more important than ever to bring back business travel. The same survey showed nearly two-thirds of business travelers said increased reliance on virtual work during the pandemic negatively impacted both productivity, 64 percent, and workplace culture, 65 percent.

"Tourism is an essential element of our city's overall economic health, and we are thrilled to see both leisure and business travelers returning to Chicago following the pandemic," said Jack Lavin, President & CEO of Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce. "As the voice of the Chicago business community, the Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce and its members are working to help bolster tourism in Chicago in partnership with our city's hotels, restaurants, and our invaluable workforce to continue to grow this important industry."

"I have the opportunity to see the hard work of our hotel industry workforce up close every day. Through the trials and tribulations of the pandemic, our workforce is stronger and ready to take on the renewed wave of travel to our city," said Juan Leyva, Vice President of Operations, Oxford Hotels and Resorts and General Manager, LondonHouse Chicago. "As tourism picks up, our hotels stand ready to give travelers the highest quality of service and experiences possible." Members of The American Hotel and Lodging Association, Choose Chicago, Chicagoland

Chamber of Commerce, Illinois Hotel and Lodging Association, and the Oxford Hotels and Resorts, LondonHouse Chicago were all present on Wednesday's press conference.

En un esfuerzo por capitalizar el reciente auge de los viajes al área de Chicagoland, los líderes empresariales y hoteleros se reunieron esta semana para discutir planes sobre cómo aumentar el turismo y hacer que Chicago regrese al lugar que le corresponde como principal destino turístico. Además, Chicago será la sede del festival musical inaugural Mas Flow, donde todos los grandes del reggaetón subirán al escenario para cantar sus éxitos icónicos. Y para los espíritus empresariales, el Departamento de Asuntos Comerciales y Protección del Consumidor de Chicago (BACP) anunció que regresarán en vivo para su exposición BACP Small Business Expo, donde los asistentes tendrán la oportunidad de establecer contactos y aumentar sus recursos, así que marque sus calendarios.

en la necesidad de innovar y buscar medidas creativas que logren contribuir a sus esfuerzos. Esta carrera y caminata de 5k lleva ese título para honrar la lucha de mujeres como Rigoberta Menchú y Rosa Parks, entre muchas otras, pero está abierta a hombres, mujeres y niños, todo mundo es bienvenido. Daysi reconoce que hay una gran demanda por los servicios de Centro Romero, "pero no tenemos espacio" dice, "recientemente recibimos fondos para programas de música y arte, sin embargo, necesitamos un edificio donde ofrecer más y mejores programas" por lo que José Torres está seguro de que la comunidad dará su apoyo por medio de este proyecto para que el sueño de comprar un edificio para Centro Romero sea una realidad.

La fecha de este evento

será el 13 de agosto en Lincoln Park, Chicago en relación al natalicio de San Romero de América (15 de agosto), por lo que espera conmemorarse este día corriendo en solidaridad al pueblo migrante, al mismo tiempo contribuir a nuestra actividad física y a la salud como menciona José Torres, uno de los inmigrantes a quien Centro Romero acogió años atrás y que hoy quiere agradecerles por toda su ayuda prestada contribuyendo con sus esfuerzos y organización a esta carrera.

Incentivando los Viajes a Chicago

Por: Ashmar Mandou

Los entusiastas de los viajes se están recuperando por los últimos dos años de encierro y restricciones, ya que cerca de siete de cada diez estadounidenses, el 69 por ciento, están planeando viajar este verano y el 60 por ciento dice que es probable que tomen vacaciones adicionales este año, comparado al 2020-2021, de acuerdo a un reciente estudio conducido por Morning Consult y comisionado por American Hotel and Lodging Association (AHLA).

Para aprovechar el último auge de los viajes, los líderes empresariales y hoteleros de Chicago realizaron una conferencia de prensa el miércoles por la mañana en el hotel Allegro Royal Son esta en el Chicago Loop, para discutir estrategias sobre cómo reactivar los viajes y el turismo en el área de Chicago. La pandemia del COVID-19 ha dejado una marca indeleble en los viajes, pero somos optimistas sobre el futuro”, dijo Chip Rogers, presidente & CEO de American Hotel and Lodging Association. “Ahora es el momento en que lugares como Chicago nos ayuden a promover el regreso de los viajes – especialmente juntas y eventos. Los hoteles siempre han sido una importante maquinaria económica para nuestro país, incluyendo Illinois. Estamos listos para continuar este papel al salir de la pandemia”.

Debido a las reducciones de viaje relacionadas con la pandemia en el 2020 y el 2021, Los hoteles de Chicago e Illinois perdieron más de $5.4 mil millones en ingreso por cuartos, dando como resultado una baja de más de $1 mil millones en ingresos de impuestos locales y estatales. Otro estudio nacional muestra que 77 por ciento de los que viajan por negocios dicen que es más importante que nunca regresar el negocio del viaje. La misma encuesta mostró que casi dos tercios de los viajeros de negocios dijeron que la mayor dependencia del trabajo virtual durante la pandemia afectó negativamente tanto la productividad, 64 por ciento, como la cultura del lugar de trabajo, 65 por ciento.

hoteles, restaurantes y nuestra invaluable fuerza laboral de Chicago, para continuar creciendo esta importante industria”.

“Tengo la oportunidad de ver de cerca todos los días, el fuerte trabajo de la fuerza laboral de la industria hotelera. Al pasar por las pruebas y tribulaciones de la pandemia, nuestra fuerza laboral es más fuerte y está lista para tomar la renovada ola de viajes a nuestra ciudad”, dijo Juan Leyva, Vicepresidente de Operaciones, Oxford Hotels and Resorts y Gerente General de LondonHouse Chicago. “Al aumentar el turismo, nuestros hoteles están listos para dar a los viajeros la más alta calidad de servicio y experiencias posibles”. Los miembros de American Hotel and Lodging Association, Choose Chicago, Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce, Illinois Hotel and Lodging Association y los Hoteles y Resorts Oxford, LondonHouse Chicago estuvieron presentes en la conferencia de prensa del miércoles.

Chicago Resilient Communities Pilot Program Distributes First Set of Cash Payments

The Department of Family and Support Services (DFSS) Commissioner Brandie Knazze announced that the first cash payments have been distributed to Chicago households through the Chicago Resilient Communities Pilot (CRCP), the $31.5 million monthly cash assistance program to benefit low-income Chicago residents and families who have faced disproportionate economic hardships during the COVID-19 pandemic. The CRCP is one of the largest monthly cash assistance programs in the nation, supporting 5,000 low-income households with $500 a month for 12 months to provide greater financial stability and support an equitable economic recovery. During the 3-week application window this spring, the City received more than 176,000 applications with at least 300 applications from all of Chicago's 77 communities. Selected participants will receive $500 cash payments every month for the next 12 months via direct deposit into their bank account or through a prepaid debit card. In order to ensure selected participants can use the monthly cash assistance to best support their household needs, the City of Chicago strategically designed the pilot to provide flexibility and choice for households through unrestricted payments. For more information on the CRCP, visit chicago.gov/cashpilot.

El Programa Piloto de Comunidades Resilientes de Chicago Distribuye el Primer Conjunto de Pagos en Efectivo

El Comisionado del Departamento de Servicios Familiares y de Apoyo (DFSS), Brandie Knazze, anunció que los primeros pagos en efectivo han sido distribuidos a las familias de Chicago a través de Chicago Resilient Communities Pilot (CRCP), programa de $31.5 millones de ayuda en efectivo para beneficio de los residentes y familias de Chicago de bajos ingresos que han enfrentado desproporcionados problemas económicos durante la pandemia del COVID-19. El CRCP es uno de los programas más grande de ayuda en efectivo de la nación, que apoya a 5,000 familias de bajos ingresos con $500 al mes por 12 meses para brindar una mayor estabilidad y apoyo financiero y una recuperación económica equitativa. Durante el plazo de solicitud de tres semanas, esta primavera, la Ciudad recibió más de 176,000 solicitudes con por lo menos 300 solicitudes de las 77 comunidades de Chicago. Los participantes seleccionados recibirán pagos en efectivo de $500 cada mes por los próximos 12 meses vía depósito directo en su cuenta de banco o a través de una tarjeta de débito pre-pagada. Para garantizar que los participantes seleccionados puedan utilizar la ayuda mensual en efectivo para un mejor apoyo de sus necesidades, la Ciudad de Chicago designó estratégicamente el programa piloto para proveer flexibilidad y alternativa a las familias durante los pagos, sin restricción. Illinois Medical Practices Selected for Statewide ‘House Call’ Project

In Illinois, nearly 200,000 residents who require home-based primary care (HBPC) are not receiving this critical medical service. To address this urgent need, 17 Illinois medical practices, some independent, others representing hospital systems, and three supporting subspecialty groups including dentistry, dermatology, and wound care, will participate in a new 3-year project, the Illinois House Call Project, building on their track record of caring for the state’s most vulnerable residents—homebound adults with chronic conditions. Among the 2.1 million older adults living in Illinois, at least 12 percent are 85 years of age or older. More than 700,000 residents have ambulatory difficulties, and 40 percent of Medicare beneficiaries across the state have four or more chronic conditions. Approximately 260,000 individuals are homebound*, with only 26 percent receiving HBPC. The House Call Champions—in addition to their existing base of patients—seek to collectively enroll and serve 3,000 new homebound or home-limited people in their homes by 2024. Without HBPC, many forego primary care or rely on their local emergency rooms and hospitals to help them when crises arise. Chicago hospitals selected for the “House Call” Project are:

- Comprehensive Care @ UChicago Medicine, Chicago, IL
- Duo Health, Chicago, IL
- Elder Derm (Dermatology), Chicago, IL
- Frontier Healthcare Systems, Chicago, IL
- H2Home Med, Chicago, IL
- In-Home Physicians, Chicago, IL

- Joyful Dental (Dentistry), Chicago, IL
- Lifesaver Healthcare, Chicago, IL
- Mendota Health (Wound Care) – based in St. Paul, MN, serves Chicago and outlying areas
- Shifa Nephrology Associates, Chicago, IL

Prácticas Médicas de Illinois Seleccionadas Para el Proyecto ‘House Call’ Estatal

En Illinois, cerca de 200,000 residentes que requieren cuidado primario en casa (HBPC) no están recibiendo este indispensable servicio médico. Para atender esta urgente necesidad, 17 practicantes médicos de Illinois, algunos independientes, otros representando sistemas de hospitales y tres grupos de subespecialidades de apoyo, que incluyen odontología, dermatología y cuidado de heridas, participarán en un nuevo proyecto de 3 años, el Proyecto de visita a domicilio de Illinois, que se basa en su historial de cuidado de los residentes más vulnerables del estado: adultos confinados en sus hogares con afecciones crónicas. Entre los 2.1 millones de adultos mayores que viven en Illinois, por lo menos el 12 por ciento tiene 85 años de edad o más. Más de 700,000 residentes tienen dificultades ambulatorias y 40 por ciento de beneficiarios de Medicare del estado tienen cuatro o más condiciones crónicas. Aproximadamente 260,000 individuos están confinados en casa, y solo el 26 por ciento recibe HBPC. House Call Champions – además de su base existente de pacientes – buscan en forma colectiva inscribirse y servir para el 2024 a 3,000 nuevas personas confinadas en casa o personas que tienen limitaciones en sus casas. Sin HBPC, muchos
