Cook County Board President Toni Preckwinkle was joined by Cook County Commissioners Brandon Johnson, Dennis Deer, Frank Aguilar, Alma Anaya and Bridget Degnen and Avik Das, Executive Director of the Justice Advisory Council, to announce the recipients of the County's Gun

Violence Prevention and Reduction Grant awards. Over 75 representatives from the newly awarded organizations attended the inaugural convening to connect and discuss their work. The American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) funded grant program, is managed by the Cook County Justice Advisory Council (JAC). This new grant initiative was designed as a direct response to the increased levels of gun violence experienced during the COVID-19 pandemic. The grant program prioritizes community areas and municipalities in Cook County that have endured the highest rates of gun violence. In total, nearly $75 million in grants were approved by the Cook County Board of Commissioners for this round of funding. Under the grant initiative, 34 awards were made to individual organizations and coalitions providing an array of evidence-based violence prevention services including street outreach, case management, counseling and mental health services, employment support and youth programming. Work will be carried out by 68 separate organizations funded through this initiative.

Illinois Homeowners See Nearly $13,000 Increase in First-Year Costs Since Pandemic

The first-year cost of owning a house has increased by $12,717 in 2022 compared to the same exact house in 2019, new Illinois Policy Institute research finds. This leaves the Illinois housing market with its lowest affordability level since 2007. The cost increases include:

- An increase of $7,792 for a down payment to cover a median price increase of $38,961 on a typical home.
- $3,876 more per year on mortgage principal and interest payments.
- Property tax payments worth $1,048 more per year.

Amendment 1, a proposed constitutional amendment at the top of the ballot, would increase taxes an average of $2,149 over four years for property owners and be passed on to renters if voters accept it on November 8th. ## Los Propietarios de Viviendas de Illinois Ven un Aumento de Casi $13,000 en los Costos del Primer Año Desde la Pandemia

Comprar y ser dueño de una casa en Illinois se ha vuelto mucho más caro que solo hace tres años. El costo del primer año de tener una casa ha aumentado en $12,717 en el 2022 comparado con la misma casa en el 2019, encuentra la investigación de Illinois Policy Institute. Esto deja al mercado inmobiliario de Illinois con su nivel de asequibilidad más bajo desde el 2007. Los aumentos de costos incluyen:

- Un aumento de $7,792 del pago inicial para cubrir un aumento de precio medio de $38,961 en una casa típica.
- $3,876 más por año en pagos de la hipoteca principal e intereses.

- Pagos de impuestos de propiedad con un valor de $1,048 más por año.

La Enmienda 1, una enmienda constitucional propuesta en la parte superior de la boleta, aumentaría los impuestos en un promedio de $2,149 durante cuatro años para los propietarios y se aprobaría para los inquilinos si los votantes la aceptan el 8 de noviembre. # Governor Pritzker Announces an Invitation for Bid Issued for Historic Chicago Damen Silos Location

Governor JB Pritzker and the Illinois Department of Central Management Services (CMS) announced the issuance of an Invitation for Bid (IFB) for the sale of the Damen Silos located at 2900 South Damen Avenue. Information on the IFB can be viewed at www.bidbuy.illinois.gov. CMS is responsible for the management of over 800 leased and owned facilities and is continuously analyzing this portfolio to meet operational needs while maximizing efficiencies. As part of its due diligence, CMS determined the sale of the Damen Silos was in the State's best interest as the property was deemed to have no future use for its operations. In accordance with the State Property Control Act, 30 ILCS 605, the State is establishing a minimum bid of $3.25 million to purchase the property in "AS-IS" condition. The 23.4-acre property is bifurcated by Damen Avenue and is comprised of two parcels of land having extensive frontage along the South Branch of the Chicago River. Responses to the IFB for the sale of the Damen Silos are due at 3p.m. on October 19, 2022. A copy of the IFB is available on the General Services Illinois Procurement Bulletin (i.e. BidBuy) at www.bidbuy.illinois.gov. Vendors must register in BidBuy to provide a bid or offer to solicitations. The Pre-proposal conference meeting will be held on August 25, 2022.
