submit an application to the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) to make St. Augustine College a part of Lewis University. The joining of both schools is centered around a shared mission to expand access and opportunity for students who are often underrepresented underserved in traditional higher education. "Our two institutions are wellmatched in mission and values," said Dr. David Livingston, Lewis University president. "We fill a unique niche within higher education, serving students from all walks of life with affordable programs that deliver a liberal arts core and an emphasis on career and workforce preparation. Through this merger, we will build upon the legacy and tradition of St. Augustine College, offering an expanded range of bilingual education programs, services and outreach to the growing Hispanic population in Chicago."

The merger builds on the legacies of both institutions each established to meet the needs of underserved communities – providing education as a lifechanging pathway to expanded opportunity. In a unified university, more degree programs than ever before will be at the forefront of an expanded educational bilingual experience. Students are expected to be able to attend courses in bilingual format at urban or suburban locations. "We are excited for this once-in-lifetime opportunity. La única,' said Dr. Reyes Gonzalez, St. Augustine College president. "Together, we will realize the dreams held by our founders; dreams of providing education to all, regardless of social class. Our combined strength will allow us to support more students with a life-changing educational experience that equips them for success in the marketplace. We will create a wider bridge to economic prosperity, one that is as expansive as the enterprising spirit of our students. This is the educational experience that will make us a leader for our entire region."

Plan de fusión de la Universidad de Lewis y St. Augustine College

Los presidentes de Lewis University y St. Augustine College anunciaron el martes un plan para fusionar ambas instituciones. y ambas juntas directivas aprobaron la decisión por unanimidad. Las escuelas ahora presentarán una solicitud a la Comisión de Educación Superior (HLC) para que St. Augustine College forme parte de la Universidad de Lewis. La unión de ambas escuelas se centra en una misión compartida de ampliar el acceso y las oportunidades para los estudiantes que a menudo están subrepresentados y desatendidos en la educación superior tradicional. "Nuestras dos instituciones coinciden en misión y valores", dijo el Dr. David Livingston, presidente de la Universidad de Lewis. "Cubrimos un nicho único dentro de la educación superior, sirviendo a estudiantes de todos los ámbitos de la vida con programas asequibles que brindan un núcleo de artes liberales y un énfasis en la preparación profesional y laboral. A través de esta fusión, construiremos sobre el legado y la tradición de St. Augustine College, ofreciendo una gama ampliada de programas, servicios y alcance de educación bilingüe a la creciente población hispana en Chicago".

La fusión se basa en los legados de ambas instituciones, cada una establecida para satisfacer las necesidades de las comunidades desatendidas, brindando educación como un camino que cambia la vida hacia una mayor oportunidad. En una universidad unificada, más programas de grado que nunca estarán a la vanguardia de una experiencia educativa bilingüe ampliada. Se espera que los estudiantes puedan asistir a cursos en formato bilingüe en ubicaciones urbanas o suburbanas. "Estamos emocionados por esta oportunidad única en la vida. La única", dijo el Dr. Reyes González, presidente de St. Augustine College. "Juntos, realizaremos los sueños de nuestros fundadores; sueña con brindar educación a todos, independientemente de la clase social. Nuestra fuerza combinada nos permitirá apoyar a más estudiantes con una experiencia educativa que les cambiará la vida y los equipará para el éxito en el mercado.

Crearemos un puente más amplio hacia la prosperidad económica, uno que sea tan expansivo como el espíritu emprendedor de nuestros estudiantes. Esta es la experiencia educativa que nos convertirá en un líder para toda nuestra región".
