The deadline to apply for FEMA assistance is around the corner and those impacted by the severe storms and flooding this past summer are encouraged to begin the registration process. We spoke to a FEMA representative who shared how FEMA and the Disaster Recovery Centers will be able to assist you leading up to the application deadline. We also continue our celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month with a series of recommendations to honor and make the most of this month, whether it be a museum visit, a road trip, or catching a play. Ways to Celebrate National Hispanic Heritage Month

By: Ashmar Mandou

As we are in the middle of celebrating Hispanic Heritage Month, there are several ways to acknowledge and appreciate the talent, contributions, and history of the Latino community. From embracing storytelling at the Chicago International Latino Theater Festival and Goodman Theatre to learning the rich history of the Latino community with the help of the National Museum of Mexican Art and the National Museum of Puerto Rican Arts and Culture. To help you make the most of Hispanic Heritage Month, we have listed a few of our recommendations for you to enjoy.

•Destinos Chicago International Latino Theater Festival: Get ready for a theatrical, cultural experience at Destinos. From Sept. 28 to Nov. 12, this city-wide event will showcase the talent of Latino theater artists and companies from Chicago, the U.S., and Latin America. Immerse yourself in vibrant stories and perspectives that celebrate the richness of Latino theater.

•Latinx Heritage Month at the Field Museum: Through October 15, guests can embark on a cultural journey of Latin America through music, dance, and performances from Ballet Folklórico and La Escuelita Bombera de Corazon. Additional activities include bilingual storytime, exhibitions, and stories that showcase Latinx contributions from Chicago to the Amazon rainforest.

•Lucha Teotl at the Goodman Theatre: Step into the captivating world of Lucha Teotl, where pro-wrestling takes the stage starting Sept. 29 – Oct. 29. This 90-minute bilingual production promises a night of unforgettable theater that dives into the rich heritage of Lucha Libre through a tale about family, honor, tradition, and redemption.

•Hispanic Heritage Night with the White Sox: The Chicago White Sox hosts Hispanic Heritage Night at the ballpark every year. Fans can enjoy Latino music, performances, and food. This year's celebration takes place on Saturday, Sept. 30. The first 10,000 fans will receive a bobblehead paying tribute to a Day of the Dead cultural icon, La Catrina.

•Visit The National Museum of Mexican Art, where you can immerse yourself in the richness of Mexican art and culture in Chicago.

•Pilsen Arts and Community House: This non-profit art gallery and community center in Pilsen provides art workshops, exhibits, film screenings, book clubs, panel discussions, music performances, and more to help the community engage with the arts across mediums.

•The National Museum of Puerto Rican Arts and Culture is hosting a pop-up exhibit titled Resistencia y Libertá that celebrates the community expression of Afro-Puerto Rican Bomba music through fashion.

•The Mexican Cultural Center DuPage encourages and promotes Mexican heritage through cultural, ethnic and civic activities designed to educate the City of West Chicago's Mexican community and the community at large.

•The first itinerary, "Immersed in Hispanic Cultural Heritage," showcases various ways to celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month in Chicago and Rockford over three days, covering 89 miles of travel.

•The second itinerary, "Community Treasures with a Latino Flavor," offers ways to celebrate Latin food, culture, and local businesses in Peoria and the Quad Cities over three days, covering 104 miles of travel.

Deadline Approaching for FEMA Assistance

By: Ashmar Mandou

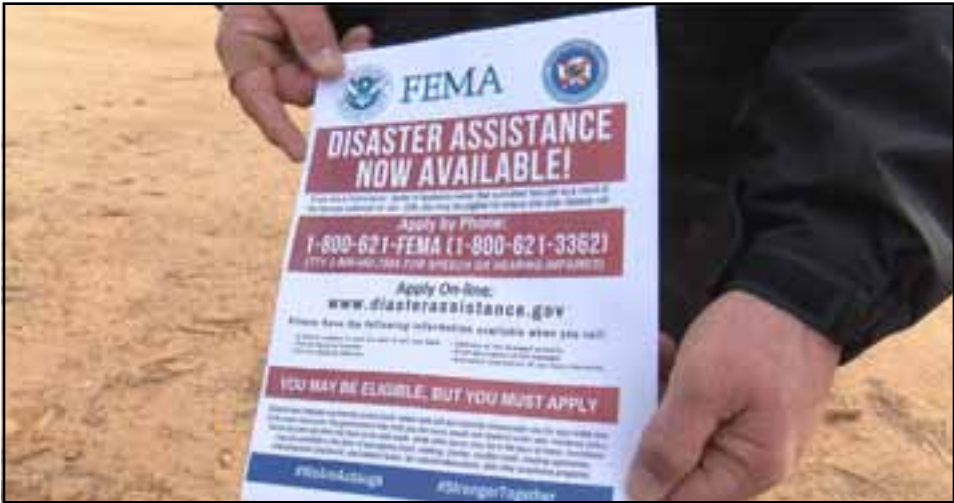

Cook County residents impacted by this summer's storms and flooding have a window of opportunity to apply for FEMA assistance as the deadline quickly approaches. "Do not wait, the sooner you get the process started the better," said FEMA Media Relations Specialist Leyla Gulen. "We have DRC reps who speak multiple languages ready to assist you in the process, so we encourage anybody to come and get registered." FEMA Disaster Recovery Centers (DRC) opened all across Cook County late summer, so far with the help of loans provided by the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA), more than $125 million have been distributed to families across Chicagoland and FEMA has received over 50,000 registrations.

"We can't do it without the support from town leadership, district leadership, town halls and events. It's a tremendous feeling to know how many we have helped, and we just want to make sure we don't miss anybody. Which is why it is crucial to apply before the deadline," said Gulen. DRC locations provides assistance which can include grants for temporary housing and home repairs, low-interest loans to cover uninsured property losses and other programs to help individuals and business owners recover from the effects of the disaster. Federal funding is also available on a cost sharing basis for hazard mitigation measures in Cook County. When meeting with a DRC rep applicants must show proof of residence, then the initial registration process begins, the applicant will go through the SBA loan application process, and finally will set up an appointment with an inspector. The whole process, depending on the individual need, can take anywhere between seven to 10 days, according to Gulen.

In addition, a DRC location will also help the applicant learn their status, help the applicant understand any letters or contacts you get from FEMA, learn about additional disaster assistance programs, and get referrals to agencies and so much more. The deadline to apply for FEMA assistance is on October 16th. If you have questions about FEMA assistance, visit a Disaster Recovery Center or call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362. If you would like to visit a DRC, the following locations are available:

Se Acerca la Fecha Límite para la Ayuda de FEMA

Por Ashmar Mandou

Los residentes del Condado de Cook impactados por las tormentas y las inundaciones del verano tienen una ventana de oportunidad para solicitar la ayuda de FEMA ya que la fecha límite se acerca rápidamente. No espere, mientras más pronto inicie el proceso, mejor", dijo la Especialista de Relaciones de Medios de FEMA, Leyla Gulen. "Tenemos representantes DRC que hablan múltiples idiomas, listos para ayudarlo en el proceso, por lo que aconsejamos a todos que vengan y se inscriban". FEMA Disaster Recovery Centers (DRC) abrió en todo el Condado de Cook el verano pasado, hasta ahora con la ayuda de préstamos provistos por U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA), más de $125 millones han sido distribuidos a familias en todo Chicago y FEMA ha recibido más de 50,000 inscripciones.

No podemos hacerlo sin el apoyo del liderazgo del poblado, el liderazgo del distrito, ayuntamientos y eventos. Es una sensación tremenda saber a cuántos hemos ayudado y sólo queremos asegurarnos de no haber pasado por alto a nadie. Por eso es crucial hacer su solicitud antes de la fecha límite", dijo Gulen. Los locales de DRC ofrecen ayuda que puede incluir subsidios para vivienda temporal y reparaciones en el hogar, préstamos a bajo interés para cubrir pérdidas de propiedad no aseguradas y otros programas para ayudar a personas y propietarios de negocios a recuperarse de los efectos del desastre. También hay fondos federales disponibles en forma de costos compartidos para medidas de mitigación de riesgos en el condado de Cook. Cuando se reúnan con los representantes de DRC deben mostrar prueba de residencia, y entonces comienza el proceso de inscripción inicial, el solicitante pasa por el proceso de solicitud de préstamos SBA y finalmente se hace una cita con un inspector. El proceso completo, dependiendo de las necesidades del individuo pueden tardar entre siete a 10 días, de acuerdo a Gulen.

Además, un local de DRC ayudará también al solicitante a conocer su estatus y le ayuda a entender cualquier carta o contacto que reciba de FEMA, aprenden sobre programas de desastres adicionales y reciben referencias a agencias y mucho más. La fecha límite para hacer su solicitud para la ayuda de FEMA es el 16 de octubre. Si tiene alguna pregunta sobre la ayuda de FEMA, visite Disaster Recovery Center o llame a la línea de ayuda de

FEMA AL 800-621-3362. Si desea visitar a DRC, los siguientes locales están disponibles:

Youth Employment Up 19 Percent through One Summer Chicago

This week, the City of Chicago announced that over 24,000 young people were employed through the One Summer Chicago (OSC) program during the summer of 2023, representing a 19 percent increase from the previous year. The OSC program is a partnership between the Mayor's Office, the Department of Family and Support Services, Chicago Public Schools, Chicago Park District, Chicago Housing Authority, Chicago Transit Authority, City Colleges of Chicago, community-based organizations, corporate partners, and local companies to offer employment and internship opportunities to young people ages 14 to 24. The total number of participants in this summer's program marks an increase of over 4,000 young people in comparison to last year's total. Of the participants engaged in this summer's programs, 1,771 youth have disabilities, 13,903 are attending Level 2, Level 3, or Option schools, 2,698 are English as a Second Language Learners, 755 are young people who are experiencing homelessness or are unstably housed, 233 are in the foster care system, 219 are justice-involved, and 2,494 are youth who are out of school and out of work. Across all OSC partners, youth completed 2.43 million hours of work experience and project-based learning. Youth earned over $33.9 million in wages.

National Museum of Mexican Art Presents Día de Muertos, Living Presence

Join the National Museum of Mexican Art for their 37th annual Day of the Dead exhibition, to remember the thousands of people who died in the 2023 earthquakes in Turkey, Syria and Morocco. The exhibition will also memorialize women around the world who have been violated, disappeared or murdered, with a large installation by 18 local artists. This year the Mexican community lost distinguished artists and dear friends whose lives and work we will also celebrate. With flowers, food and drinks, we await the return home of loved ones who no longer walk this Earth. The living presence of loved ones is felt on the Day of the Dead (November 1 and 2) by offering them what they enjoyed in life. This ancient tradition, with Mesoamerican and Spanish roots, unites Mexicans

Museo Nacional de Arte Mexicano Presenta Día de Muertos, Presencia Viva

Acompañe al Museo Nacional de Arte Mexicano en su 37 exhibición anual del Día de Muertos, para recordar a miles de personas que murieron en los temblores del 2023 en Turquía, Siria y Marruecos. La exhibición recordará también a las mujeres del mundo que han sido violadas, han desaparecido o han sido asesinadas, con una gran exhibición de 18 artistas. Este año, la comunidad mexicana perdió a distinguidos artistas y queridos amigos cuyas vidas y trabajo celebrarán también. Con flores, comida y bebidas esperamos el regreso a casa de los seres queridos que ya no están en la tierra. La presencia en vivo de los seres queridos se siente el Día de los Muertos (1 y 2 de noviembre) ofreciéndoles lo que a ellos les gustó en vida. Esta antigua tradición, con raíces mexoamericanas y españolas, une a mexicanos de ambos lados de la frontera US/ México mientras se crean ofrendas y altares en casas, cementerios, galerías y museos para celebrar su vida. Programas especiales y clases relacionadas a la exhibición serán ofrcidas hasta su cierre, el 10 de diciembre del 2023. Comisionado por Dolores Mercado & Gustavo Herrera. Ya Están Abiertas Las Solicitudes para el Programa de Preparación de Profesores Scholars de Golden Apple

Golden Apple está aceptando ahora solicitudes para su programa Scholars. Golden Apple busca ofrecer un camino para que los aspirantes a educadores entren a la profesión a través de este programa, para construir la reserva de maestros que cubrirá puestos docentes cruciales abiertos en todo el estado. Illinois enfrenta una crisis de escasez de maestros que lleva a falta de alta efectividad en los salones de clases, lo que lleva a que las aulas carezcan de los educadores altamente efectivos y bien calificados que nuestros estudiantes merecen. De acuerdo al Reporte de Escasez de Educadores 2022 – 2023 de la Asociación de Superintendentes Regionales de Illinois, el 79 por ciento de distritos escolares en el estado reportaron tener un problema de escasez de maestros en el 2022, con más de 2700 puestos vacantes de maestros, educación especial y personal de apoyo que permanecen vacantes o cubiertos con alguien no calificado. El programa Scholars se enfoca en la preparación del maestro y la ayuda en la matrícula de estudiantes de último año de secundaria así como de estudiantes universitarios de primer y segundo año en Illinois que tienen la determinación y el anhelo de enseñar. Los Scholars reciben hasta $23,000 en ayuda financiera, extensa experiencia de enseñanza en el salón de clases, apoyo socio-emocional y académico, ayuda en la colocación de empleo y tutoría de maestros ganadores del premio Golden Apple. Para más información y para hacer una solicitud, las personas interesadas pueden visitar www.goldenapple.org/scholars.

Applications Now Open for Golden Apple's Scholars Teacher Preparation Program

Golden Apple is now accepting applications for its Scholars program. Golden Apple seeks to provide a pathway for aspiring educators to enter the profession through this program to build the teacher pipeline that will fill crucial open teaching positions across the state. Illinois faces an ongoing teacher shortage crisis, leading to classrooms lacking the highly effective, well-qualified educators our students deserve. According to the 2022 - 2023 Educator Shortage Report from the Illinois Association of Regional Superintendents, 79 percent of school districts statewide reported having a teacher shortage problem in 2022, with more than 2700 open teacher, special education, and support staff positions remaining unfilled or filled with someone less than qualified. The Scholars program focuses on teacher preparation and tuition assistance for high school seniors as well as freshman and sophomore college students in Illinois who have the determination and drive to teach. Scholars receive up to $23,000 in financial assistance, extensive classroom teaching experience, academic and social-emotional support, job placement assistance and mentoring from Golden Apple's award-winning teachers. To learn more and apply, interested parties can visit www.goldenapple.org/scholars.

Latino Art Beat President Meets Cuban Leader at U.N. Mission

Chicago's very own Don Rossi Nuccio, President and Founder of Latino Art Beat, a national not for profit arts organization now in its 25th anniversary year, was in New York recently attending meetings related to the 78th session of the United Nations General Assembly. While there he received a special invitation to attend a small gathering of cultural and arts leaders headed by Cuba's President Miguel Diaz-Canal and narrated by the Head of the Cuban Embassy in Washington, the Hon. Ambassador Lianys Torres Rivera. Nuccio was invited to speak to President Diaz-Canal in front of the gathering about Latino Art Beat's successful continuing outreach to youth in the visual arts in Cuba.

Nuccio had been an invited guest by former President Barack Obama and was part of a White House delegation to accompany the President on his historic trip to Cuba in 2016. This trip and delegation was coordinated with Obama's Public Liaison Office. That trip broke the ice with stalled relations between the two sovereign nations and opened the door for various cultural, educational and religious exchanges. Latino Art Beat became part of that forward movement and established collaboration with the Cuban Ministry of Culture and their Casas de cultura in Havana in promoting a better understanding between the youth of the United States and Cuba through their artistic talents. Latino Art Beat invited several years ago the young student winners of its Cuban art competition themed "Friendship between the Youth of the United States and Cuba" to study advanced summer art courses at the Maryland Institute College of Art, Baltimore, MD. Now after the pandemic has subsided Don is returning to Cuba in October to continue with this very important and well received outreach to youth in the arts. Don is continuing with a version of Obama's well received "People to People" exchanges. Thus, greatly promoting art, talent, Cuban culture, heritage and creating an aura of friendship between the youth of both countries. Diaz-Canal was pleased to hear of this exchange and even mentioned he might attend Latino Art Beats next presentation in Havana.

Don stated that such dialogue as he had with Diaz-Canal in the presence of the various Ministers from Cuba and invited guests is extremely important, especially on a non-political basis, which helps create a passageway to improved relations between the peoples of Cuba and the United States. While Diaz-Canal denounced earlier in the week at the U.N. the 60-year "asphyxiating economic blockade" imposed against his country by the United States, calling it "absolutely unilateral and unjustified", he greatly supports and encourages cultural outreaches, illuminated by organizations like Latino Art Beat. Latino Art Beat can be reached via email at: latinoartbeat@hotmail.com

El Presidente de Latino Art Beat se Reúne con Líder Cubano en Misión de la ONU

El propio Don Rossi Nuccio de Chicago, Presidente y Fundador de Latino Art Beat, organización nacional no lucrativa de arte ahora en su 25^o aniversario, estuvo en Nueva York recientemente asistiendo juntas relacionadas con la 78^o sesión de la Asamblea General de las Naciones Unidas. Mientras estuvo ahí recibió una invitación especial para asistir a una pequeña reunión de líderes de arte y cultura, encabezados por el presidente Miguel Díaz-Canal de Cuba y narrado por el jefe de la Embajada Cubana en Washington, el Hon. Embajador Lianys Torres Rivera. Nuccio fue invitado para hablar al Presidente Díaz-Canal frente a la reunión, sobre el exitoso acercamiento continuo de Latino Art Beat a los jóvenes en las artes visuales en Cuba.

Nuccio había sido invitado por el ex Presidente Barack Obama y fue parte de la delegación de la Casa Blanca para acompañar al presidente en su histórico viaje a Cuba en el 2016. Este viaje y delegación fueron coordinados en la Oficina de Enlace Público de Obama. Ese viaje rompió el hielo con las estancadas relaciones entre las dos naciones soberanas y abrió la puerta a diversos intercambios culturales, educativos y religiosos. Latino Art Beat se convirtió en parte de ese movimiento de avance y estableció una colaboración con el Ministerio de Cultura de Cuba y sus Casas de Cultura en La Habana para promover un mejor entendimiento entre los jóvenes de los Estados Unidos y Cuba a través de sus talentos artísticos.

Latino Art Beat

invitó hace varios años a los jóvenes artistas ganadores de su tema de competencia de arte cubano "Amistad entre los Jóvenes de Estados Unidos y Cuba" para estudiar cursos de arte avanzados de verano en Maryland Institute College of Art, Baltimore, MD. Ahora tras la terminación de la pandemia, Don regresa a Cuba en octubre para continuar con este importante y bien recibido enlace con los jóvenes en el arte. Don continúa con una versión de los bien recibidos intercambios "Pueblo a Pueblo" de Obama. Fomentando así enormemente el arte, el talento, la cultura cubana, el patrimonio y creando un aura de amistad entre la juventud de ambos países. Díaz-Canal se alegró de enterarse de este intercambio e incluso mencionó que podría asistir a la próxima presentación de Latino Art Beat en La Habana. Don afirmó que el diálogo que tuvo con Díaz-Canal en presencia de varios Ministros de Cuba e invitados es extremadamente importante, especialmente sobre una base no política, lo que ayuda a crear un camino hacia mejores relaciones entre los pueblos de Cuba y los Estados Unidos. Si bien Díaz-Canal denunció a principios de semana en la ONU el "bloqueo económico asfixiante" de 60 años impuesto contra su país por Estados Unidos, calificándolo de "absolutamente unilateral e injustificado", apoya y alienta enormemente las iniciativas culturales, iluminadas por organizaciones como Latino Art Beat. Commissioner Aguilar Partners with Board of Review for Property Tax Appeal Workshops

From August 31st to September 16th, Cook County Commissioner Frank J. Aguilar partnered with Board of Review Commissioner George Cardenas and 16th District officials to host property tax workshops to help residents appeal their assessments. The events were held in communities that suffered damages from the early July storms and flooding. The workshops were located in Berwyn, Cicero, Stickney and Riverside Townships. "Giving residents the tools they need to successfully appeal their property tax assessments is critical, especially after major weather events that can damage one's property.

We must emphasize accessibility and bring in all levels of government to ensure residents are able to receive this information and utilize the appeal process," said Commissioner Aguilar. Homeowners who attended these workshops went through the process of filing an appeal on their property tax assessments with trained professionals and local officials. After a presentation and a question and answer segment, homeowners had the opportunity to fill out their appeals with Board of Review and local Assessor staff members. This year the Board of Review will focus on helping Cook County residents who are victims of this summer's flooding to know their rights and apply for all County property tax assistance for which they are eligible. "If you were a victim of this summer's floods, it's important you know you are eligible for help with your assessment from the Board of Review," said Commissioner Cardenas. "My staff is holding events across Cook County to walk taxpayers through the flood relief process." For more information on appealing your property tax assessment or for upcoming workshops in the 16th District, please visit www.cookcountyboardofreview.com/GeorgeCardenas.

El Comisionado Aguilar se Asocia con la Junta de Revisión para Talleres de Apelación de Impuestos a la Propiedad

Del 31 de agosto al 16 de septiembre el Comisionado del Condado de Cook, Frank J. Aguilar se asoció con el Comisionado de la Junta de Revisión, George Cárdenas y funcionarios del Distrito 16 para ofrecer talleres de impuestos de propiedad para ayudar a los residentes a apelar sus evaluaciones. Los eventos tuvieron lugar en comunidades que sufrieron daños por las tormentas e inundaciones de principios de julio. Los talleres estuvieron localizados en los municipios de Berwyn, Cicero, Stickney y Riverside. "Dar a los residentes las herramientas que necesitan para apelar con éxito sus evaluaciones de impuestos de propiedad es indispensable, especialmente después de importantes eventos que pueden dañar su propiedad. Debemos enfatizar la accesibilidad y llevar todos los niveles del gobierno, para garantizar que los residentes pueden recibir esta información y utilizar el proceso de apelación", dijo el Comisionado Aguilar. Los propietarios que asistieron a estos talleres pasaron por el proceso de registrar una apelación sobre su propiedad con la Junta de Revisión y miembros del personal del asesor local. Este año, la Junta de Revisión estará enfocada en ayudar a los residentes del Condado de Cook que son víctimas de las inundaciones del verano, para saber sus derechos y solicitar toda la ayuda en impuestos de propiedad del condado, a los que son elegibles. "Si usted fue una víctima de las inundaciones de este verano, es importante que sepa que es elegible para ayuda con su evaluación de la Junta de Revisión", dijo el Comisionado Cárdenas. "Mi personal lleva a cabo eventos en todo el Condado de Cook para informar a los contribuyentes sobre el proceso de ayuda en inundaciones". Para más información sobre como apelar su evaluación de impuestos de propiedad o los próximos talleres en el Distrito 16, visite www.cookcountyboardofreview.com/GeorgeCardenas

207 NORTH AUSTIN BOULEVARD
CHICAGO, IL 60644
NOTICE OF SALE

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to a Judgment of Foreclosure and Sale entered in the above cause on July 19, 2023, an agent for The Judicial Sales Corporation, will at 10:30 AM on October 20, 2023, at The Judicial Sales Corporation, One South Wacker, 1st Floor Suite 35R, Chicago, IL, 60606, sell at a public sale to the highest bidder, as set forth below, the following described real estate:

Commonly known as 207 NORTH AUSTIN BOULEVARD, CHICAGO, IL 60644

Property Index No. 16-08-406-010-0000
The real estate is improved with a single family residence.

The judgment amount was $35,710.43. Sale terms: 25% down of the highest bid by certified funds at the close of the sale payable to The Judicial Sales Corporation. No third party checks will be accepted. The balance, in certified funds/or wire transfer, is due within twenty-four (24) hours. The subject property is subject to general real estate taxes, special assessments, or special taxes levied against said real estate and is offered for sale without any representation as to quality or quantity of title and without recourse to Plaintiff and in "AS IS" condition. The sale is further subject to confirmation by the court.

Upon payment in full of the amount bid, the purchaser will receive a Certificate of Sale that will entitle the purchaser to a deed to the real estate after confirmation of the sale. The property will NOT be open for inspection and plaintiff makes no representation as to the condition of the property. Prospective bidders are admonished to check the court file to verify all information.

If this property is a condominium unit, the purchaser of the unit at the foreclosure sale, other than a mortgagee, shall pay the assessments and the legal fees required by The Condominium Property Act, 765 ILCS 605/9(g)(1) and (g)(4). If this property is a condominium unit which is part of a common interest community, the purchaser of the unit at the foreclosure sale other than a mortgagee shall pay the assessments required by The Condominium Property Act, 765 ILCS 605/18.5(g-1).
