Diversión Navideña

Recopilado por Ashmar Mandou

No deje pasar la temporada Navideña, quedan unos cuantos días y aún hay mucho por hacer en la ciudad. Para ayudar a hacer la temporada aún más especial recopilamos una lista de divertidas actividades para toda la familia.

Busca el Tren Navideño

Una encantadora tradición de Chicago por más de 30 años, el Tren Navideño de la CTA hará una vez más su recorrido por la ciudad este diciembre. Asómbrese con los seis carros del tren decorados con escenas navideñas y miles de luces parpadeantes, suba a bordo y salude a los duendes que regalan dulces. No olvide saludar a Santa, cuyo trineo reemplaza el carro principal. También hay un autobús navideño que recorrerá las calles de Chicago llevando la alegría navideña a todos los barrios de Chicago.

Compras Navideñas

Escoja algunos regalos para sus seres queridos (y tal vez algunos para usted también) en los muchos distritos de compras de Chicago. La Milla Magnífica, uno de los destinos de tiendas más icónicos del mundo, es un buen lugar para empezar. Encontrará tiendas de departamentos, lujosos aparadores y cadenas favoritas – más toneladas de luces navideñas parpadeando desde los árboles que hacen lucir el área completa alegre y festiva.

Show Festivo

Las navidades son el tiempo perfecto para planear una noche memorable en la ciudad para experimentar la emoción de los musicales en vivo, dramas, ballets y más. Ya sea que le atraiga nuestro bullicioso distrito de teatros del centro (donde se encuentra Broadway en Chicago) o los lugares más íntimos del vecindario, hay un espectáculo navideño para todos.

Navidad Alrededor del

Mundo

Los museos de Chicago disfrutan tomando parte en la diversión Navideña. El Museo de Ciencias e Industria presenta su Navidad Alrededor del Mundo y Fiesta de Luces con 50 árboles elaboradamente decorados que representan las tradiciones navideñas de todo el mundo. La exhibición honra también las tradiciones de El Año Nuevo Chino, Diwali, Kwanzaa, Ramadan, Hanukkah, Visakha Puja Day, St. Lucia Day y más.

Luces Navideñas

Vea ZooLights en Lincoln Park Zoo, donde el histórico zoológico es iluminado por millones de luces de colores, incluyendo pantallas en movimiento con música. No se pierda los eventos especiales como los conciertos navideños, una velada sensorial, una noche de fiesta para adultos y más.

City Announces SECOND Annual 'You Name a Snowplow' Contest

The Department of Streets and Sanitation (DSS) announced the City's second annual 'You Name A Snowplow' contest. Chicago residents are once again encouraged to create innovative snowplow names and submit them to www.chicagoshovels.org by January 12, 2023. At the end of the contest, DSS will pick the top six names, and those names will represent one snowplow in each of the City's six snow districts, joining the named snowplow fleet announced earlier this year. Due to a near-tie for sixth place, seven winning names were chosen for the first contest, including:

1.Mrs. O'Leary's Plow

2.Da Plow

3. Salter Payton

4.Sears Plpwer
5.Sleet Home Chicago
6.Holy Plow!
7 Jean Bantiste Point

7.Jean Baptiste Point du Shovel

Once the names are chosen, signage for the winning snowplow names will be installed on the snowplows, and residents who submitted the winning names (earliest time stamp when there are multiple submissions) will be offered a photo opportunity with the named snowplow along with city swag. All residents will be able to view the named snowplows, along with the city's full snow fleet, in real-time during winter storms via the City's newly updated plow tracker.

Sheriff Dart, Illinois Secretary of State Giannoulias Partner to Provide State ID Cards to Individuals Leaving Cook County Jail

Cook County Sheriff Thomas J. Dart and Illinois Secretary of State Alexi Giannoulias announced a partnership to provide State Identification Cards for individuals leaving Cook County Jail. The partnership is the first of its kind for a county jail. Government issued IDs are critical for enrolling in educational programs, onboarding for jobs as well as obtaining housing and government benefits. Individuals in custody may have lost their ID cards or they may have expired while in custody, and they may face challenges in attempting to renew them after returning to the community. The program is initially working with individuals who either have previously applied for a State ID card or driver's license, or have access to documents, such as birth certificates and social security cards, to apply for the first time. The program will gradually expand to provide IDs to everyone in Cook County Jail custody. Sheriff's Office staff will work with the interested participants to complete the application forms and take photographs. If necessary, Sheriff's Office staff can also help first-time applicants with accessing vital documents they already have such as birth certificates or social security cards. The information collected will be sent electronically via a secure transfer to the Secretary of State's Office. After the Secretary of State's Office staff determines applicants have met the requirements for an ID card, they will be mailed to their residences.

City Investigates Death of Migrant Child

By: Ashmar Mandou

Alarming questions and concerns continue to ring out following the death of 5-year-old migrant Jean Carlos Martinez Rivero and the reported illnesses in other children living at a Pilsen warehouse on Cermak Road and Halsted Street. Martinez was a resident at the shelter where he suffered a medical emergency and was transported to Comer Children's Hospital on Sunday where he was pronounced dead.

"We are saddened at the tragic death of 5-year-old Jean Carlos Martinez, who was living in the temporary shelter at 2241 S. Halsted Street. Initial reports indicate that the child was suffering from a medical emergency and passed away shortly after arriving to Comer Children's Hospital. City officials are providing support to the family and are still gathering information on this tragedy," said Mayor Brandon Johnson in a statement to media. "My heart and my prayers go out to the Martinez family. The City will continue to provide resources and support to them during this difficult time."

Community activists as well as medical professionals raised concerns over the past months over the new arrivals facing numerous health issues due to their arduous journey and living in crowded group settings where infections spread quickly. Six more people living in the shelter — four children and two adults — were hospitalized for illnesses this week, according to the Chicago Fire Department.

"We mourn the death of Jean Carlos Martinez Rivero and share our condolences with his family. We call for accountability and full transparency on the results of the investigations into his death and Favorite Healthcare Staffing's management of the migrant shelter where he was living, an audit of all the migrant shelters, and greater access to the shelters by volunteer advocates and service providers," said the Illinois Lation Agenda (ILA). "The shelters should be a safe haven for migrants as they look for opportunities to make Chicago their home. We stand firm in demanding justice and accountability, and will continue advocating that our city leaders prioritize the safety and dignity of all of our newest neighbors who place their trust in shelter administrators." According to the City of Chicago, an investigation is ongoing and any changes to safety protocols for staff will be made based on the findings. Many new arrivals receive catchup vaccinations during their scheduled medical encounters at the Cook County Health Belmont Cragin migrant clinic, as well as from other Federally Qualified Health Centers (FQHCs) and other providers caring for new arrivals. The Chicago Department of Public Health continues to support shelter-based care through its partners, including on-site screenings, infection prevention, and vaccinations.
