January is Glaucoma Awareness Month

Glaucoma
Awareness Month
January

Glaucoma affects over three million people in the United States and is often called the “silent thief of sight” because it robs people of vision slowly and without early symptoms. January is Glaucoma Awareness Month, a great time to emphasize the importance of regular eye check-ups for early detection of glaucoma and other eye diseases. Glaucoma damages the eye’s optic nerve. As the disease progresses, it can lead to permanent vision loss. Many misconceptions exist about glaucoma, potentially causing people to underestimate their risk. Knowing the facts and knowing that early diagnosis and treatment are crucial to preventing vision loss is essential.

Myth: People with good vision are immune to glaucoma

Fact: Most forms of glaucoma progress without any symptoms; therefore, it is crucial to have a comprehensive dilated eye exam that can detect the disease in its early stages. People with good vision may not notice symptoms until the late stages; however, early detection and treatment increase the chances of preserving vision.

Myth: Only older people get glaucoma

over 60 face a higher risk of developing glaucoma, certain types of glaucoma can affect younger individuals, including children and infants.

Myth: Absence of family history means no risk of glaucoma

Fact: Glaucoma can run in families. However, it can affect anyone, including people with no family history. Regular eye screenings are essential for everyone.

Myth: I would know if I had glaucoma

Fact: During its initial stages, glaucoma typically exhibits no symptoms. Many people remain unaware that they have the condition due to the gradual nature of vision changes.

Difficulties with peripheral vision may be the first symptom they notice. If left untreated, glaucoma can eventually cause permanent blindness.

Enero es el Mes de Concientización Sobre el Glaucoma

El glaucoma afecta a más de tres millones de personas en los Estados Unidos y a menudo se le llama el “ladrón silencioso de la vista” porque roba a las personas la visión lentamente y sin síntomas tempranos. Enero es el Mes de Concientización sobre el Glaucoma, un buen momento para enfatizar la importancia de los controles oculares regulares para la detección temprana del glaucoma y otras enfermedades oculares. El glaucoma daña el nervio óptico del ojo. A medida que la enfermedad avanza, puede provocar una pérdida permanente de la visión. Existen muchos conceptos erróneos sobre el glaucoma, lo que puede hacer que las personas subestimen su riesgo. Es esencial conocer los hechos y saber que el diagnóstico y el tratamiento tempranos son cruciales para prevenir la pérdida de la visión.

Mito: Las personas con buena visión son inmunes al glaucoma

Hecho: La mayoría de las formas de glaucoma progresan sin ningún síntoma; por lo tanto, es fundamental realizarse un examen completo del ojo con dilatación de las pupilas que pueda detectar la enfermedad en sus primeras etapas. Es posible que las personas con buena visión no noten síntomas hasta las últimas etapas; sin embargo, la detección y el tratamiento tempranos aumentan las posibilidades de preservar la visión.

Mito: Sólo las personas mayores padecen glaucoma

Hecho: Aunque las personas mayores de 60 años corren un mayor riesgo de desarrollar glaucoma, ciertos tipos de glaucoma pueden afectar a personas más jóvenes, incluidos niños y bebés.

Mito: La ausencia de antecedentes familiares sig- nifica que no hay riesgo de glaucoma

Hecho: El glaucoma puede ser hereditario. Sin embargo, puede afectar a cualquier persona, incluidas personas sin antecedentes familiares. Los exámenes oculares periódicos son esenciales para todos.

Mito: sabría si tuviera glaucoma

Hecho: Durante sus etapas iniciales, el glaucoma generalmente no presenta síntomas. Muchas personas desconocen que padecen esta afección debido a la naturaleza gradual de los cambios en la visión. Las dificultades con la visión periférica pueden ser el primer síntoma que notan. Si no se trata, el glaucoma puede eventualmente causar ceguera permanente.

Hispanic Real Estate
Professionals

As the year comes to a close, the air is charged with the promise of new beginnings and fresh aspirations, along with incredible opportunities in the real estate industry. Despite some challenges in 2023, such as a spike in mortgage interest rates, the real estate market remains brimming with possibilities. Latinos are rapidly emerging as a dominant force in the home buying demographic, with projections showing they will make up 70 percent of new homeowners in 2024, according to the Urban Institute. So, why should you consider a career in real estate in 2024?

1. Meeting the Growing Demand: As the population grows, there is an increasing need for Hispanic real estate agents who can cater to the unique cultural and linguistic needs of this consumer group. The CENTURY 21 brand is committed to providing opportunities and support for Latinas looking to pursue a profession in real estate.

2. Flexibility and Freedom: Imagine a career that grants you the autonomy to set your schedule, allowing you to balance work and personal life seamlessly. Real estate offers precisely that kind of experience - an industry where you can manage your time, accommodating both professional commitments and personal endeavors.

3. Endless Growth Potential: The real estate sector is constantly evolving. It presents an open playground for individuals seeking growth and development. Training and Support: Embarking on a new career can be daunting, but with a brand like CENTURY 21 by your side, you will feel much more at ease. Access to comprehensive training programs, financial assistance through scholarships, and unwavering support ensures you're equipped with the necessary tools and guidance to thrive. 5. Financial Rewards and Fulfillment: For many, real estate can be a highly profitable profession. Latinas who cherish family, traditions, and possess an unwavering work ethic know that real estate is an excellent choice. On top of financial rewards, many Latinas like myself love this path because we can help others with similar stories of immigration achieve their dream of homeownership and feel rewarded in knowing that we've helped our communities grow.

So, if you're looking for a career that empowers Latinas, offers freedom, growth, support, and financial rewards, real estate might be the answer. Experts forecast 2024 will be a very interesting year for real estate in the United States and the best real estate agents will be able to capitalize on the opportunities the market is sure to provide. # City of Chicago Announces 27 Locations for Annual Holiday Tree Recycling

Beginning Saturday, January 6, the Chicago Department of Streets and Sanitation (DSS) will host its annual Holiday Tree Recycling Program, in partnership with the Chicago Park District. The program will run through Saturday, January 20. Each year, Chicago's holiday tree recycling program helps the City to divert material from the waste stream, converting it to sustainable resources and ultimately helping to reduce greenhouse gas emissions. Live and natural holiday trees can be dropped off inside the tree recycling corrals at the designated locations. All ornaments, lights, tinsel, and tree stands must be removed before the tree is dropped off, and plastic bags used for transport should also be removed prior to placing the trees in the corrals. This year, 27 citywide drop-off locations are available for residents:

Libere su Potencial: Adopte el Sector Inmobiliario Como su Próximo paso Profesional en El 2024

2024 Presidente de la
Asociación Nacional de
Profesionales Hispanos
de Bienes Raíces

A medida que el año llega a su fin, el aire se carga con la promesa de nuevos comienzos y nuevas aspiraciones, junto con increíbles oportunidades en la industria inmobiliaria. A pesar de algunos desafíos en 2023, como un aumento en las tasas de interés hipotecarias, el mercado inmobiliario sigue repleto de posibilidades. Los latinos están emergiendo rápidamente como una fuerza dominante en el grupo demográfico de compra de viviendas, y las proyecciones muestran que representarán el 70 por ciento de los nuevos propietarios de viviendas en 2024, según el Urban Institute. Entonces, ¿por qué debería considerar una carrera en el sector inmo-biliario en 2024? 1. Satisfacer la creciente demanda: A medida que la población crece, existe una creciente necesidad de agentes inmobiliarios hispanos que puedan satisfacer las necesidades culturales y lingüísticas únicas de este grupo de consumidores. La marca CENTURY 21 está comprometida a brindar oportunidades y apoyo a las latinas que buscan ejercer una profesión en el sector inmobiliario. 2. Flexibilidad y libertad: imagina una carrera que te brinde la autonomía para establecer tu horario, permitiéndote equilibrar el trabajo y la vida personal sin problemas. El sector inmobiliario ofrece precisamente ese tipo de experiencia: una industria en la que puedes gestionar tu tiempo, teniendo en cuenta tanto los compromisos profesionales como los esfuerzos personales. 3. Potencial de crecimiento infinito: el sector inmobiliario está en constante evolución. Presenta un patio de recreo abierto para personas que buscan crecimiento y desarrollo. Ya sea que esté interesado en las ventas, la administración de propiedades o la inversión, hay un nicho esperando su experiencia. 4. Capacitación y soporte: Embarcarse en una nueva carrera puede ser desalentador, pero con una marca como CENTURY 21 a tu lado, te sentirás mucho más a gusto. El acceso a programas de capacitación integrales, asistencia financiera a través de becas y apoyo inquebrantable garantizan que esté equipado con las herramientas y la orientación necesarias para prosperar. 5. Recompensas financieras y satisfacción: Para muchos, el sector inmobiliario puede ser una profesión muy rentable. Los latinos que aprecian la familia, las tradiciones y poseen una ética de trabajo inquebrantable saben que los bienes raíces son una excelente opción. Además de las recompensas financieras, a muchas latinas como yo nos encanta este camino porque podemos ayudar a otras personas con historias similares de inmigración a lograr su sueño de ser propietarios de una vivienda y sentirse recompensadas al saber que hemos ayudado a que nuestras comunidades crezcan. Entonces, si está buscando una carrera que empodere a las latinas, ofrezca libertad, crecimiento, apoyo y recompensas financieras, el sector inmobiliario podría ser la respuesta. Los expertos pronostican que 2024 será un año muy interesante para el sector inmobiliario en Estados Unidos y los mejores agentes inmobiliarios podrán aprovechar las oportunidades que seguramente brindará el mercado. Para explorar más sobre las gratificantes oportunidades profesionales en el sector inmobiliario, visite www.nahrep.org o www.century21.com/espanol. Su viaje hacia una carrera próspera y satisfactoria en el sector inmobiliario comienza aquí.

Column: Your Property Taxes with Cook County Treasurer Maria Pappas Technology Helps us Serve a Diverse Population but People Make the Difference

By: Maria Pappas

Our complex property tax system confuses many taxpayers. Many have a tough time understanding assessments, exemptions, tax levies and other terms we use to describe parts of the system. Paying taxes can be even more difficult for people who primarily speak a language other than English. There are a lot of them in Cook County. According to the Census Bureau, 35.8% of the county's 5.27 million residents speak a language other than English in their homes. That's about 1.8 million people. I realized we needed to better serve multilingual residents when I became treasurer in 1998. Since then, my office has created outreach materials that explain the tax system in English and 27 other languages. Our website, cookcountytreasurer.com, can easily be translated into 133 languages. We created short informational videos in English, Spanish, Polish, Arabic, Cantonese and Mandarin. You can use our website to download a copy of your tax bill, pay your taxes and change your mailing address. You can search the past 20 years of bill payments to find out if you are owed a refund for past duplicate or overpayments. You can discover ways to potentially reduce your tax bill by applying for exemptions. Many homeowners are unaware they are eligible for significant savings through a homeowner's exemption simply for living in their home as their principal residence. Another commonly missed exemption is granted to senior citizens over the age of 65. The Senior Freeze Exemption is available to senior citizens whose annual household income is $65,000 or less. You can find out if you're missing exemptions by using the purple box, "Your Property Tax Overview," on the homepage. Type in your address and a picture of your home should appear to let you know you're researching the correct property. You can use our website to search for more than $93 million in available refunds and $57 million in missed exemptions. We can issue refunds for missed exemptions going back four years. Sadly, many homeowners have missed out on exemptions for decades. Our office is committed to helping as many people as possible better understand the property tax system and potentially save money on their tax bills.

Triton College Associate Degree Nursing Pinning Ceremony Celebrated Graduating Nursing Students

Triton College's Associate Degree Nursing Pinning Ceremony was held on Thursday, Dec. 14, in the Performing Arts Center (R Building), to celebrate the 26 graduating nursing students. The ceremony included welcoming remarks by Nursing faculty member, Dr. Cheryl Davis. It also included graduating student speakers, Aram Barawi, Megan Greenberg, Lizbeth Romero and Vianey Waters. Vianey Waters from Bellwood deeply moved the audience as she shared the heartfelt reasons behind her and her classmates' aspirations to become nurses. "Why do we want to become nurses? The typical answer is to help," she said. "Some of us enjoy caring for others, but it goes deeper than that. Often, we had situations where we felt alone and no one was there for us. We joined a career where it's our job to care for people when they're going through difficult times. We don't ever want others to feel alone like we did." Aram Barawi of Norridge expressed that with the right motivation and drive, anything is possible. "Triton's Nursing Program takes a lot of dedication and good time-management skills, but you can do it," she noted. "If you are willing to make that sacrifice and dedicate yourself to nursing school, it is possible. Do not have any fears." Triton College's Nursing Program provides students with a basic knowledge of nursing theory and practice, humanities, and social and biological sciences. Graduates earn an Associate in Applied Science degree and qualify to sit for the National Council Licensing Examination for the registered nurse. ## Volunteer for MLK Day

My Block, My Hood, My City is calling on the community to join hands on a powerful day of service and reflection in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Day. As part of their ongoing commitment to Dr. King's legacy, they invite individuals to mark their calendars for January 15 and volunteer with the M3 team to prepare for the upcoming M3 March on Madison to End Gun Violence. Every year, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Day serves as a reminder of the enduring impact of Dr. King's vision for a just and equitable society. In keeping with this spirit, the M3 team is organizing a community event where individuals can actively contribute to the cause of ending gun violence set to take place on January 15 at 3600 W. Cermak Road beginning at 10a.m. This special day of service will involve the creation of 5,000 picket signs, a crucial visual component of the upcoming M3 March on Madison. These signs will serve as powerful symbols of unity, advocating for an end to gun violence in our community. Volunteers will also be engaged in making phone calls and participating in various actions aimed at supporting the cause. Individuals interested in participating are encouraged to visit Formyblock.org to register or for more information.
