Angélica Alfaro se Incorpora a IHCC como Directora de Asuntos Gubernamentales y Comunitarios

Angélica Alfaro

La Cámara de Comercio Hispana de Illinois

anunció a Angélica Alfaro como Directora de Asun-tos Gubernamentales y Comunitarios. Alfaro será responsable de desarrollar y mantener relaciones con líderes latinos en Illinois, funcionarios electos, organizaciones comunitarias y sin fines de lucro y socios. “Somos muy afortunados de darle la bienvenida a Angélica a nuestro equipo. Como cámara, nuestro objetivo principal es representar los intereses de los propietarios de pequeñas empresas en Illinois, y confiamos en que Alfaro desempeñará un papel importante para ayudarnos a ampliar nuestro alcance a aquellos que pueden ayudarnos a marcar una diferencia positiva en las vidas de nuestras comunidades empresariales”, dijo el presidente y director ejecutivo de IHCC, Jaime di Paulo. Alfaro cuenta con más de 15 años de experiencia trabajando para me-jorar el acceso a educación de alta calidad, becas y oportunidades de desarrollo económico para miles de familias en todo Illinois. Su liderazgo en relaciones gubernamentales, políticas, recaudación de fondos, organización comunitaria y promoción ha dejado una marca indeleble en el paisaje de la ciudad. 1871 Announces ScaleUp 2024

Global nonprofit innovation hub 1871 announces its 7th annual ScaleUp technology conference, uniting the brightest minds and storytellers from growth and late-stage startups for dedicated growth-scaling content and networking opportunities on May 8, 2024. This event is open to the public, with no cost to 1871 members. ScaleUp 2024 promises to be a pivotal half-day event designed for growth-stage founders, late-stage scalers, corporate innovators, and team leaders aiming to navigate the complexities of scaling, growing, and leading companies in today's dynamic technical and geo-political landscape. This event is the go-to destination for making invaluable connections, acquiring tactical insights for future industry growth, and increasing brand awareness within the Chicago tech community. Programming will be held in person at 1871, with live streaming available for virtual participants from 8:30 AM - 2:00 PM CST. Breakfast and lunch will be provided to attendees in the 1871 space. As a reminder, this event is open to public participation, and registration is required. 1871 members will receive complimentary access to the event, with admission costing $75/ticket for non-member attendees. RSVP to secure your spot at this can't-miss event. For ticket information or for general information, visit www.community.1871.com.

IDPH Kicks Off '30 Days of Public Health' Celebration to Coincide with National Minority Health Month

This April the Illinois Department of Public Health (IDPH) will be celebrating 30 Days of Public Health, an extended observance of National Public Health Week that also coincides with National Minority Health Month. The month-long slate of activities is intended to engage Illinoisans and raise awareness about all that public health does to keep individuals healthy and safe. Activities during the month include a daily audio series Public Health History Minute and a weekly Podcast called "This is Public Health." The podcast starts this week and will feature IDPH Director Dr. Sameer Vohra discussing topics such as "What a Healthy Illinois Looks Like" and "Moving Forward: Battling Disparities and Inequities in Public Health." The daily audio features will highlight a major moment in Illinois public health history, from the founding of the first statewide public health agency in 1877 to efforts to combat polio, measles, and the harmful effects of lead exposure. Following are the dates and topics for "This is Public Health: The Podcast," which will also be available on IDPH's social media channels as well as Spotify:

- 4/8 Topic: Oral Health
- 4/15 Topic: "Maternal Health & Congenital Syphilis"
- 4/22 Topic: "Wastewater Surveillance & Public Health"
- 4/29 Topic: "Moving Forward: Battling Disparities and Inequities in Public Health"

Angelica Alfaro Joins IHCC as Director of Government and Community Affairs

The Illinois Hispanic Chamber of Commerce announced Angelica Alfaro as the Director of Government & Community Affairs. Alfaro will be responsible for developing and maintaining relationships with Latino leaders in Illinois, elected officials, community and nonprofit organizations, and partners. "We are very fortunate to welcome Angelica to our team. As a chamber, our primary goal is to represent the interests of small business owners in Illinois, and we are confident that Alfaro will play a significant role in helping us expand our reach to those who can assist us in making a positive difference in the lives of our business communities," IHCC President and CEO Jaime di Paulo said. Alfaro boasts over 15 years of experience working to improve access to high-quality education, scholarships, and economic development opportunities for thousands of families across Illinois. Her leadership in government relations, policy, fundraising, community organizing, and advocacy has left an indelible mark on the city's landscape.

THE OAKS

Apartment living with congregate services
114 South Humphrey
Oak Park, IL, 60302

This property with its architecturally award winning atrium provides seniors and disabled individuals with parking, library, laundry room, Wellness Center and other conveniences.

A service coordinator is on staff to assist tenants who may need additional services. The units are studio and one bedroom, each with electric appliances, tile bath, and wall to wall carpeting. Modern fire and safety systems are installed in each apartment and common areas of the building. There are also 8 accessible one bedroom units for the mobility impaired. The Oaks is owned and operated by The Oak Park Residence Corporation and is funded by the Department of Housing and Urban Development through the 202/section 8 Program. Residents pay approximately 30% of their monthly income for rent. For additional information please visit our website at www.oakparkha.org or contact us at 708-386-5812.

City of Chicago Announces Sendy Soto as City's First Chief Homelessness Officer

Mayor Brandon Johnson announced the appointment of Sendy Soto as the City of Chicago's first Chief Homelessness Officer (CHO). Soto will be tasked with coordinating across City departments and sister agencies and developing a five-year plan to address the homelessness crisis in Chicago. Mayor Johnson made the announcement at the grand opening of Lawson House, a $128 million renovation project to modernize and preserve affordable apartment units. The rehabilitation of the historic 200,000-square-foot, 24-story apartment complex transformed the building's 583 single-room occupancy units (SROs) into over 400 affordable apartment units with private kitchens and bathrooms. The ground floor renovation now includes retail space, apartment amenities, and social services for Lawson House tenants. A new rooftop terrace will provide additional space for social services programming for residents. Soto will work in alignment with the county, state, and federal government, particularly the Illinois Office to Prevent and End Homelessness, the Illinois Department of Healthcare and Family Services, and the White House ALL INside initiative. In partnership with City departments and sister agencies, Soto will aim to expand the inventory of housing options for people experiencing homelessness including rental assistance, rapid rehousing, non-congregate shelter, stabilization housing, permanent supportive housing, and opportunities for residents to transition out of supportive housing. Soto brings over two decades of experience in public policy addressing issues related to homelessness, housing, community safety, and health and human services. As the Senior Director of Community Impact at The Chicago Community Trust, Soto drove funding towards underserved populations, particularly people facing housing insecurity and homelessness.

Local Nonprofit Launches Healthy Babies Drive

Keeping kids safe as they grow is a parent's most important and daunting responsibility, especially for first-time caregivers. The list of items that a young child needs—diapers, wipes, bottles, diaper bags, and baby gates—is long and expensive, and for families living in poverty, purchasing those necessities comes at the expense of food or other bills. Kids Above All is launching its Healthy Babies Drive to collect healthy and safety items for the young children and new families in their programs, so they have everything they need to build a strong foundation for their lives together. Kids Above

All's Happy Babies Drive runs through May 15th. Donations may be dropped off at the Better Life Distribution Center in Des Plaines, 1801 E. Oakton, or online via the nonprofit's Amazon Wishlist. For more information about Kids Above All's Healthy Babies Drive, visit kidsaboveall.org.

ISBE Invests $4.3M to Cultivate Future Educators through CTE Education Career Pathway Grants

The Illinois State Board of Education (ISBE) announced approximately $4.3 million in state funding for the Career and Technical Education (CTE) Education Career Pathway Grants. The grant marks the fourth round of funding for the CTE Education Career Pathway Grant program, which has provided $5.6 million to date and served nearly 12,000 Illinois high school students across 212 school districts and three community colleges. The grant provides funding to prepare current high school students in Illinois for careers in teaching and aims to address the teacher shortage in Illinois by recruiting diverse students into the field of education. Participants are equipped for success in college-level teacher preparation programs through tailored coursework, field experiences, and work-based learning opportunities. ISBE recently released unfilled positions data that shows that initiatives like this are paying off, resulting in year-over-year growth in the teaching profession for the past seven years. The number of teachers in the profession increased again in 2023, compared to 2022. However, the demand for teachers also grew, and supply has not kept pace. Illinois districts reported 4,096 teaching vacancies as of October 2023 – a 15 percent increase in unfilled positions over the previous year. Grant funding has been allocated to 170 districts with the highest need and vacancy rates to tackle local recruitment and retention challenges.

Aetna Better Health® of Illinois Partners with Kooth Digital Health

Kooth Digital Health, a mental health and well-being platform for young people, announced a partnership with Aetna Better Health® of Illinois. The one-year partnership will provide thousands of teens and young people in Illinois access to Kooth's digital platform at no cost to the end user. Data shows that teens and young people benefit from access to well-being tools to help develop better skills and mental health management. According to a National Alliance for Mental Illness report, 61.8 percent of 12- to 17-year-olds in Illinois who have depression did not receive any care. The same report indicates that high school students with depression are more than twice as likely to drop out as their peers, and seven in 10 youth in the juvenile justice system have a mental health condition. The Kooth platform offers young people access to safe, confidential, and moderated content, community, and professional support from Illinois licensed clinicians.

Certain Aetna members will have free, on-demand access to Kooth's resources, including:

- Self-guided journeys, including evidence-based therapeutic content and tools like mood tracking, breathwork, free writing and journaling prompts, podcasts, videos, and more.

- Safe, moderated community spaces for peer support.

- Professional support through drop-in chat or ongoing, structured counseling sessions.

Illinois Tech, City Colleges, and CPS Launch Runway 606 to Fast Track Chicago Students to STEM Master's Degrees

In a groundbreaking initiative to bridge the educational gap and meet the growing demand for skilled tech professionals in Chicago, Illinois Institute of Technology (Illinois Tech), City Colleges of Chicago (CCC), and Chicago Public Schools (CPS) launched Runway 606—the first-of-its-kind program aimed at providing Chicago Public School students with a clear, accelerated pathway to high-demand, well-paying tech careers. Runway 606 is a collaborative initiative built on a successful cybersecurity-focused pilot program in CPS Early College STE(A)M Schools to offer supported pathways, tutoring, mentoring, and other support services to foster college readiness and success for participating students. While the program is starting with a cybersecurity pathway, the aim is to quickly expand the fast-track pathways beyond cybersecurity into other in-demand tech fields such as computer science and business analytics, and shortly after that, grow to include a wide array of STEM career paths. After the successful pilot cybersecurity program at CPS Early College STE(A)M schools with 85 students (42 juniors and 43 seniors) that began in fall 2023, the partner institutions—Illinois Tech, CPS, and CCC—signed a landmark collaboration agreement in December to launch Runway 606 citywide, with the aim of expanding to other in-demand STEM career pathways within a few years. This fall, juniors and seniors in any CPS school who meet the relevant eligibility criteria can participate in the dual enrollment Runway 606 cybersecurity pathway. For more information about Runway 606, visit iit.edu/runway606 or contact Runway606@iit.edu.
