

Funcionarios Electos se Preparan para Luchar Contra el Despliegue de la Guardia Nacional

Por Ashmar Mandou

Mientras la expectativa continúa creciendo por la llegada de la Guardia Nacional y los agentes de ICE a Chicago, varios funcionarios electos están listos para luchar. “Nada de esto es para combatir la delincuencia ni de hacer que Chicago sea más seguro. Trump solo trata de poner a prueba su poder y crear un drama político para encubrir su corrupción” dijo el Gobernador JB Pritzker. “Estamos listos para combatir el despliegue de tropas en corte y haremos todo lo que sea posible para garantizar que los agentes que operan dentro de los confines de este estado lo hacen de una manera legal y ética”.

Durante una conferencia de prensa el martes, el Gobernador Pritzker enfatizó cuatro piezas clave de información; Trump está actualmente posicionando agentes federales armados en propiedad federal en la región de Chicago; Trump enviará agentes no identificados en vehículos sin identificación para allanar comunidades latinas, similar a lo ocurrido en Los Ángeles; Trump desplegará la Guardia Nacional y/o militares en servicio activo en la ciudad y fabricará cualquier suceso como justificación para hacerlo; y finalmente, después de un mes aproximadamente, Trump recogerá y enviará a los militares al próximo estado azul, a pesar de que las ciudades en los estados rojos tienen tasas más altas de delitos violentos.

El Gobernador Pritzker, junto con varias organizaciones comunitarias están exhortando a los residentes a que conozcan sus derechos. Para más información, visite illinoisimmigrationinfo.org, centro de información integral designado a empoderar a los inmigrantes con guías e información confiable relacionada con inmigración. Otros funcionarios locales están compartiendo lo que piensan mientras la Ciudad de Chicago espera las tropas de la Guardia Nacional. “No necesitamos a la guardia en Chicago ni en ninguna de esas ciudades. Lo que necesitamos es restaurar la política que actualmente pruebe reducir la violencia en el país. Lo que necesitamos es cuidado de salud, lo que necesitamos es educación, lo que necesitamos es infraestructura”, dijo la Representante de E.U., Delia Ramírez.

“En los últimos tres años, el Condado de Cook solo, ha invertido más de $110 millones en Intervención de Violencia Comunitaria y otras estrategias de prevención a la violencia respaldadas por evidencia y pronto lanzará una nueva red de desarrollo de capacidades para brindar capacitación personalizada y asistencia técnica que fortalezca a las organizaciones, maximizando su impacto en las comunidades”, dijo la presidenta de la Junta del Condado de Cook, Toni Preckwinkle.

“No nos sorprende que Donald Trump ataque una vez más a Chicago, “Pero eso no cambia el hecho de que el patrón continuo de Trump de politizar y abusar de las fuerzas armadas de nuestra nación para su propio beneficio partidista y para aplastar la disidencia es profundamente inquietante, es antiestadounidense y no tiene cabida en ninguna de nuestras ciudades”, dijo la senadora estadounidense Tammy Duckworth (D-IL).

Durante una conferencia de prensa el miércoles por la mañana, el Presidente Donald Trump sugirió que planea enviar tropas de la Guardia Nacional, pero no dijo cuándo. “Vamos a entrar. No dije cuándo, pero vamos a entrar”, dijo Trump en un evento en la Oficina Oval, después de que un periodista le preguntara si planeaba enviar a la Guardia Nacional a Chicago. La conferencia de prensa se produce después de que al menos 58 personas recibieran disparos, ocho de ellas mortales, en Chicago durante el fin de semana del Día del Trabajo.

Elected Officials Prepare to Fight National Guard Deployment

By: Ashmar Mandou

As anticipation continues to build in the arrival of the National Guard and ICE agents in Chicago, several elected officials are ready to fight. “None of this is about fighting crime or making Chicago safer. For Trump, it’s about testing his power and producing a political drama to cover up his corruption,” said Governor JB Pritzker. “We are ready to fight troop deployments in court and we will do everything possible to ensure that agents operating inside the confines of this state do so in a legal and ethical manner.” During a press conference on Tuesday, Governor Pritzker emphasized four key pieces of information; Trump is currently positioning armed federal agents on federal property in the Chicago region; Trump will send unidentified agents in unmarked vehicles to raid Latino communities, similar to what occurred in Los Angeles; Trump will deploy the National Guard and/or active-duty military into the city, and will fabricate any occurrence as rationale to do so; and finally, after a month or so, Trump will pick up and send the military to the next blue state – despite cities in red states having higher rates of violent crime.

Gov. Pritzker along with several community organizations are urging residents to know their rights. For more information, visit illinoisimmigrationinfo.org, a comprehensive information hub designed to empower immigrants with reliable immigration-related information and guidance. Other local officials are sharing their thoughts as the City of Chicago awaits the National Guard troops. “We don’t need the guard in Chicago or any of these cities. What we need is to restore policies that actually prove to reduce violence across the country. What we need is healthcare, what we need is education, what we need is infrastructure,” said U.S. Representative Delia Ramirez. “Over the last three years, Cook County alone has invested over $110 million in Community Violence Intervention and other evidence-backed violence prevention strategies and will soon launch a new Trump’s continuing pattern of politicizing and misusing our nation’s military for his own partisan gain and to crush dissent is deeply disturbing, is un-American and has no place in any of our cities,” said U.S. Senator Tammy Duckworth (D-IL).

During a press conference on Wednesday morning, President Donald Trump suggested he plans to send National Guard troops, but not of the time. “We’re going in. I didn’t say when, we’re going in,” Mr. Trump said in an Oval Office event, after a reporter asked if he plans to send the Guard to Chicago.” The press conference comes after at least 58 people have been shot, eight fatally, across Chicago over Labor Day weekend.

Celebrating 50 Years of Community Health

This month Cook County Health is celebrating a major milestone: the 50th anniversary of the Dr. Jorge Prieto Health Center. Opened in August 1975, the center was Cook County's first community-based clinic, pioneering a new approach to public health by moving care directly into the neighborhoods where people live. Initially known as the South Lawndale Health Center, the clinic was the result of a shared vision between Dr. Jorge Prieto and the community to make quality health services more accessible. In 1991, it was renamed in his honor. Today, the Prieto Health Center remains a model for community-centered care, offering a wide range of services including primary care, women's health, pediatrics, and dental care, regardless of a patient's ability to pay or immigration status. This approach has helped build trust and improve health outcomes for families throughout the area. Cook County Health has expanded on this model over the past five decades and now operates more than a dozen community health centers across the county. In 2024 alone, these clinics had over 569,000 visits, continuing the legacy of providing high-quality, accessible care to all. "Fifty years later, our father's legacy and vision live on through the quality-of-care patients receive at Cook County's neighborhood clinics, as well as around the country from doctors trained in family practice medicine," said Carmen Prieto.

Celebrando 50 Años de Salud Comunitaria

Este mes, Cook County Health está celebrando un hito importante: El 50 aniversario del Dr. Jorge Prieto Health Center. Abierto en agosto de 1975, el centro fue la primera clínica comunitaria del Condado de Cook, pionera en un nuevo enfoque a la salud pública, pasando la atención directamente a los vecindarios donde la gente vive. Inicialmente conocido como South Lawndale Health Center, la clínica fue el resultado de una visión compartida entre el Dr. Jorge Prieto y la comunidad, para poner servicios de salud de calidad más accesibles. En 1991, se le cambió el nombre en su honor. Hoy, Prieto Health Center sigue siendo un modelo de atención centrado en la comunidad, ofreciendo una amplia variedad de servicios, incluyendo cuidado primario, salud femenina, pediatría, y cuidado dental, sin importar la habilidad de un paciente para pagar, o su estado migratorio. Este enfoque ha ayudado a establecer confianza y mejorar los resultados de salud de las familias de toda el área. Cook County Health se ha ampliado en este modelo en las pasadas cinco décadas y ahora opera más de una docena de centros de salud comunitarios en todo el condado. Solo en el 2024, estas clínicas tuvieron más de 569,000 visitas, continuando el legado de brindar una atención accesible y de alta calidad para todos. "Cincuenta años después, el legado y la visión de nuestro padre siguen vivos a través de la calidad de atención que reciben los pacientes en las clínicas vecinales del condado de Cook, así como en todo el país, por parte de médicos capacitados en medicina familiar", afirmó Carmen Prieto.

‘Standing Together as Trump Targets Illinois’

Courtesy of Illinois Coalition for Immigrant and Refugee Rights

Trump has announced that he will deploy federal troops to Chicago and across Illinois. This attack on all of our communities — Black, immigrant, city and suburban alike -- is meant to instill fear and sow division. Our job is to make sure we respond with unity, organization, and action. At ICIRR, we are:

- Expanding our rapid response teams and staffing up our Family Support Hotline (855-435-7693) as call volume increases.

- Preparing our communities by learning from what residents in Washington, D.C. and Los Angeles have already faced -- uniformed troops, traffic checkpoints, racial profiling, and violations of due process rights. • C a n v a s s i n g neighborhoods door to door with know your rights and community defense information. In Illinois, we’re not starting from scratch. Together, we’ve already shut down ICE detention in our state, expanded health care, protected workers’ rights, and enshrined pretrial fairness. We know the power of organizing block by block, neighborhood by neighborhood — and we know that educated, connected communities are safer communities. We’re also not alone. Labor partners like SEIU, CTU, and the Chicago Federation of Labor stand with us. The Governor, the Mayor, and elected allies are pushing back against Trump’s overreach. For decades, immigrants, workers, and Black and Brown communities have kept each other safe when the government failed us. That remains true today. Here’s how you can be part of this collective defense right now:

- Save the Family Support Hotline in your phone: 855-435-7693. Share it with your neighbors.

- Stay connected with us on social media for Know Your Rights resources, rapid response updates, and training opportunities. •Stand with us as we build the mass movement needed to protect our families and our future.

- Donate to support community. We don’t have the power of the federal government, but we have the power of the people, This is an unprecedented moment — but it’s also a moment of possibility. We will not be divided, and we will not be silenced by fear.
