New Suburban Cook County Suicide Report Shows Growing Disparities by Race and Ethnicity

and relationship building skills through social and emotional learning programs, which CCDPH provides funding for through its Building Healthier Communities grant program. The full report is available on the CCDPH website.

Nuevo Informe de Suicidios en los Suburbios del Condado de Cook Muestra Crecientes Disparidades por Raza y Etnicidad

Cook County Department of Public Health released its latest report, Suburban Cook County Suicide Report, highlighting local trends, disparities, resources and steps to support prevention and healing. Overall, suburban Cook County suicide rates are lower when compared to state and national averages. In 2023, the suicide rates were: 9 per 100,000 in suburban Cook County, 13 per 100,000 in Illinois, and 14 per 100,000 nationally. The number of suicides in suburban Cook County has not changed significantly over the past five years. There were 267 suicide deaths in 2023 and 254 suicide deaths in 2018. Key Findings from the Report:

- Teens ages 10–19 had the highest rates of emergency department visits for suicide attempts. Female teens were nearly three times as likely to visit the emergency department for suicide as their male peers.

- For Hispanic residents, suicide rates almost doubled in five years, from 4.0 per 100,000 residents in 2018 to 7.0 per 100,000 residents in 2023.

CCDPH recommends a set of strategies that contribute to suicide prevention. While local and state partners have invested in these strategies, additional investments and coordination across programs will ensure equitable access and reduce deaths from suicide.

- Improving insurance coverage for mental health conditions.
- Create protective environments: Support efforts to create healthy organizational policies and implement restorative practices in schools and other settings.
- Coping and Problem Solving: Support emotional management

El Departamento de Salud Pública del Condado de Cook publicó su último informe, el Informe de Suicidios en los Suburbios del Condado de Cook, que destaca las tendencias locales, las disparidades, los recursos y las medidas para apoyar la prevención y la sanación. En general, las tasas de suicidio en los suburbios del Condado de Cook son más bajas en comparación con los promedios estatales y nacionales. En 2023, las tasas de suicidio fueron: 9 por 100,000 en los suburbios del Condado de Cook, 13 por 100,000 en Illinois y 14 por 100,000 a nivel nacional. El número de suicidios en los suburbios del Condado de Cook no ha cambiado significativamente en los últimos

Your Mortgage Company May Pay Your Taxes — But You Still Need to Watch

By: Maria Pappas, Cook County Treasurer

Every year, my office mails more than 1.8 million tax bills to property owners across Cook County. If you have a mortgage, your lender may collect money from you each month and put it in an escrow account to pay your bill. But don't let convenience cause you to let your guard down -- mortgage companies make mistakes.

Just because your lender handles the payment doesn't mean you're absolved of responsibility. That's why it's important to make sure your tax obligation to Cook County is met. It's also why the Treasurer's Office sends bills directly to property owners, not mortgage companies because you'll have to pay the fees if a payment is late.

And mistakes arise every year. Without fail, thousands of homeowners run into problems when lenders mishandle escrow accounts. Some firms pay late. Some pay on the wrong Property Index Number or PIN and some simply don't pay. If you don't notice an error, it could cost you. In seriously delinquent cases, an unpaid tax debt can cause your property to be listed in the annual state-mandated tax sale which adds costs and endangers ownership.

The good news is protecting yourself is simple. Start by safeguarding every property tax bill we send. Then take a few minutes to compare your bill with your mortgage company's latest statement. After each tax installment due date, visit cookcountytreasurer.com, click on the purple box and enter your address or PIN to confirm the payment. If it hasn't posted, call your lender immediately. Remember, the bill shows Cook County's official record. If the payment doesn't appear, it wasn't received. Don't assume your mortgage company correctly made the payment.

State law requires mortgage companies to reimburse homeowners for interest and fees when they make mistakes. So, if your taxes are paid late, or if the wrong PIN is used, your lender owes you an explanation and potentially money. But you must first catch the mistake. That's why my office emphasizes homeowner oversight. Think of your escrow account as a tool, not a reason to ignore your tax bill.

If you're like most Americans, your home is your most valuable investment. Letting someone else manage your property tax payments without checking their work is a risk. So, examine your bill and if necessary, call your lender. Being proactive can possibly save you thousands of dollars. That's why at the Cook County Treasurer's Office, we've made it easy to see whether your taxes were paid on time. Go to my website at cookcountytreasurer.com and type in your PIN or address. There you can see whether your taxes were paid on time.

Escrow accounts simplify the process, but remember the ultimate responsibility is yours. Don't assume. Verify because the proverbial "taxman cometh." And when he arrives, you want to be paid in full.

LIHEAP Applications Open for Seniors, Customers with Disabilities and Children Age 5 and Younger

Applications are being accepted for the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) for income-qualified residential customers who are age 60 and older, disabled or have at least one child 5 years old or younger. Households already disconnected or that have a disconnection notice within seven days also are eligible to apply for LIHEAP assistance. LIHEAP is a federally funded bill payment assistance program administered by the Illinois Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity. LIHEAP is designed to help low- and fixed-income families meet their energy needs during the winter heating season, as well as reduce energy costs through improved energy efficiency. To qualify for LIHEAP, a household's combined gross income for the 30 days prior to application must be at or below 60% of the state median income – for a family of four, which is $76,884 annual income or $6,407 gross monthly income. Open enrollment for all other income-eligible households will begin Saturday, Nov. 1. For eligibility information and to apply, visit www.helpillinoisfamilies.com or call 877-411-9276 (WARM). To learn more about bill payment assistance programs, visit nicorgas.com/billpaymentassistance.

V&V Supremo Receives Top Honor

Ashmar Mandou

V&V Supremo, a cornerstone of Chicago's culinary landscape for 60 years, known for its authentic Mexican dairy and meat products, earned recognition on Friday, Oct. 10th with a street named after the two immigrant brothers-in-law who founded the business, Gilberto and Ignacio Villaseñor. In addition, a mural unveiling depicting the legacy of V&V Supremo also took place with the help of artists Delilah Martinez and Everett

Reynolds. The event honored the company's heritage and celebrated the contributions to the City of Chicago. Attendees included Alderman Byron Sigcho Lopez, V&V Supremo Owners Gilberto and /Philip Villaseñor, Theresa Fraga, Pilsen community leader, and Vicky Aguilar from Univision, who emceed the event.

Accredited Chicago Newspapers, Inc., Welcomes New Owner

Accredited Chicago Newspapers, an organization that works with the County of Cook, newspapers in the city of Chicago and, the Illinois Press Association, has been purchased by its former Vice President, Susan J. Walker. Walker is assistant secretary for Cook County Suburban Publishers, Inc. The organization was purchased Oct. 9 from the estate of Bruce Sagan, who died in September at the age of 96. For more than three decades, Walker and Sagan worked together at Accredited Chicago Newspapers, continuing an organization that Sagan started in the 1960's with Joe Ferstl. Walker worked at the Sagan owned paper, the Hyde Park Herald in many capacities including publisher and general manager. "For over 30 years, I had the honor of working side by side with Bruce Sagan," said Walker. "Together, we navigated the highs and lows of this ever-changing industry. As someone who has spent a lifetime in newspapers and publishing, I share Bruce's belief in honest work, local connections and the importance of doing things the right way. Our working partnership was built on mutual respect, shared vision, and a deep love for the work we do in the newspaper industry."

Sagan was a pioneer in the news business and a legend in Chicago civic and journalism circles. As the owner and publisher of the Hyde Park Herald — which he bought in 1953 at age 24 — he gave voice to a South Side neighborhood confronting racial change, housing discrimination and urban renewal. He published exposés on negligent landlords and controversial city planning decisions, coverage that helped Hyde Park qualify for one of the nation's first federally funded urban renewal projects. He also built one of the largest community newspaper groups in the country, the Economist Newspaper Group which had grown to nearly 30 newspapers with 1,000 employees and a circulation exceeding 400,000, and later played a central role in transforming Chicago into a major center for dance and theater. "This moment is not about change; it's about continuing what Bruce started, just as we always have," she continued. "I know how much this business meant to him, and I am committed to honoring his legacy by keeping it strong, vibrant, and rooted in the same values he championed. To our loyal partners: thank you for your continued trust and support. I'm excited — and humbled — to continue to carry the torch forward and promise to work with the same heart and integrity that Bruce always did."

Financiamiento para Infraestructura del Distrito 12

La Senadora Estatal Celine Villanueva anunció que más de $8 millones han sido asegurados para mejorar la infraestructura en el Distrito 12. "Las inversiones en nuestra infraestructura son inversiones en nuestros barrios, nuestra economía y nuestro futuro", dijo La Senadora Villanueva (D-Chicago). "Desde carreteras más seguras a opciones de tránsito más confiables, estas mejoras impactarán directamente el diario vivir de las familias del Distrito 12". El programa multianual más grande para construir y reparar la infraestructura en la historia del estado, invertirá $50.6 millones en seis años, continuando un compromiso sin precedente a la seguridad, movilidad y calidad de vida, hecho posible por el programa de capital bipartidario Rebuild Illinois. El nuevo plan multianual de IDOT es completo y multimodal, con inversiones en carreteras y puentes, aviación, tránsito, fletes y ferrocarriles de pasajeros, vías fluviales y alojamientos para bicicletas y peatones que llegan a todos los condados de Illinois. Como parte del último Plan Multianual de IDOT bajo Rebuild Illinois, el Distrito de la Senadora Villanueva verá tres proyectos de infraestructura, con un total de $8.5 millones en el año próximo. Una lista completa de proyectos en el Distrito 12 la puede encontrar en www.senatorvillanueva.com

V&V Supremo Recibe el Máximo Galardón

V&V Supremo, un pilar del panorama culinario de Chicago durante 60 años, conocido por sus auténticos productos lácteos y productos de carne, mexicanos, recibió un reconocimiento el viernes 10 de octubre, con una calle que lleva el nombre de los dos cuñados inmigrantes que fundaron el negocio, Gilberto e Ignacio Villaseñor. Además, se inauguró un mural que representa el legado de V&V Supremo con la ayuda de los artistas Delilah Martinez y Everett Reynolds. El evento honró la herencia de la compañía y celebró sus contribuciones a la Ciudad de Chicago. Los asistentes incluyeron al Concejal Byron Sigcho López, los propietarios de V&V Supremo, Gilberto y Philip Villaseñor, Theresa cinco años. Hubo 267 muertes por suicidio en 2023 y 254 en 2018. Hallazgos Clave del Informe:

- Los adolescentes de 10 a 19 años tuvieron las tasas más altas de visitas a urgencias por intentos de suicidio. Las adolescentes tenían casi tres veces más probabilidades de acudir a urgencias por suicidio que sus compañeros varones.
- En el caso de los residentes hispanos, las tasas de suicidio casi se duplicaron en cinco años, pasando de 4,0 por cada 100.000 residentes en 2018 a 7,0 por cada

100.000 residentes en 2023. El CCDPH recomienda un conjunto de estrategias que contribuyen a la prevención del suicidio. Si bien los socios locales y estatales han invertido en estas estrategias, las inversiones adicionales y la coordinación entre programas garantizarán un acceso equitativo y reducirán las muertes por suicidio. Mejorar la cobertura de seguros para afecciones de salud mental. Crear entornos protectores: Apoyar las iniciativas para crear políticas organizacionales saludables e implementar prácticas restaurativas en escuelas y otros entornos. Afrontamiento y resolución de problemas: Apoyar la gestión emocional y las habilidades para construir relaciones a través de programas de aprendizaje socioemocional, que el CCDPH financia a través de su programa de subvenciones "Construyendo Comunidades Más Saludables". El informe completo está disponible en el sitio web del CCDPH.

Los Representantes Jesús "Chuy" García y Delia Ramírez se Unen a Juanita Irizarry en el Lanzamiento de su Campaña para la Junta de Revisión del Condado de Cook.

La experta en vivienda asequible Juanita Irizarry lanzó su candidatura para comisionada del 1er Distrito de la Junta de Revisión del Condado de Cook, el lunes 20 de octubre. En la conferencia de prensa, líderes de Comunidades Latinas y Progresivas de Illinois estuvieron cerca de ella, incluyendo a los Reps. de E.U. Jesús "Chuy" García, D-Chicago y Delia Ramírez, D-Chicago. El Distrito 1 incluye los sectores Sur, Sudoeste y

Noroeste, así como los suburbios del oeste, noroeste y sudoeste del Condado de Cook. Irizarry, Demócrata, votó para combatir la lucha contra los altísimos impuestos a la propiedad que están expulsando a los residentes del condado de Cook de sus hogares. Estableció un marcado contraste entre ella y su oponente, quien ha sido apoyado por intereses corporativos. Los simpatizantes de Irizarry incluyen a la Rep. estatal Theresa Mah, al ex secretario del Condado de Cook, David Orr, al Concejal Jessie Fuentes (26º) al Concejal Daniel La Spata (1º), a la Concejal Julia Ramírez (12º), al Concejal Michael Rodríguez (22º), al Concejal André Vásquez (40º)

y muchos más. Por mucho tiempo luchadora por el desarrollo de vivienda asequible, Irizarry apoya a propietarios e inquilinos contra la gentrificación y el desplazamiento. Ella misma ha superado la inestabilidad habitacional y el desplazamiento. Priorizar un sistema de impuestos prediales equilibrado y garantizar la asequibilidad de la vivienda es fundamental para Irizarry. Las grandes apelaciones sobre propiedades comerciales han supuesto una mayor carga para los residentes del condado de Cook; los más afectados fueron las comunidades de bajos ingresos con personas de color. Para más información, visite juanitairizarry.com.

En reconocimiento al mes de Concientización de la Violencia Doméstica, la Secretaria del Condado de Cook, Mónica Gordon y su personal, recaudaron más de 250 donaciones de "Monederos de Amor" llenos con artículos de cuidado personal y notas escritas a mano de estímulo para mujeres que reciben servicios en agencias de vigencia doméstica en el condado. La iniciativa se llevó a cabo en afiliación con #LovePurse, organización no lucrativa que provee monederos llenos de artículos esenciales para las mujeres sobrevivientes de violencia doméstica, asalto sexual, o tráfico humano. Las donaciones fueron reunidas durante el evento Monedero de Amor anual de la Secretaria, donde los empleados y miembros de la comunidad se reúnen para mostrar solidaridad y compasión para los sobrevivientes. "Las víctimas de violencia doméstica muchas veces se sienten aisladas y solas. Un simple gesto – como recibir un monedero lleno de artículos y una nota sincera – puede servir como un poderoso recordatorio de que han visto, valuado y apoyado", dijo Gordon. Para más información sobre #LovePurse y como participar, visite www.lovepurse.org.

Dominican University Students Have Letters Hand-Delivered to Pope Leo XIV in Rome

Letters from Dominican University students made their way into the hands of Pope Leo XIV this month, delivered personally by Director of University Ministry Andrew Mercado during a once-in-a-lifetime visit to the Vatican. Mercado, who focuses on culturally responsive ministry and creating supportive and inclusive spaces for Dominican students to engage in vocational discernment, was among a contingent invited to Rome by the National Catholic Council for Hispanic Ministry. The group of 100 participants from around the United States took part in the Jubilee of Migrants, an event dedicated to celebrating and supporting migrants across the world. The seven-day visit culminated October 7th, with a private audience with Chicago-born Pope Leo. Mercado presented the leader of the Roman Catholic Church with typed testimonials from about 15 students, each sharing their personal experiences and concerns amid current immigration policies. A letter communicating Dominican University's long history of serving and supporting immigrants and the children of immigrants—and the ongoing work taking place today—accompanied the students' accounts. Mercado described the Holy Father as approachable and attentive to each of the pilgrims who met briefly with him. During their audience with Pope Leo, the National Catholic Council for Hispanic Ministry contingent heard the pontiff address them in Spanish as he shared a message about the importance of Latin involvement in the Catholic Church in the United States, the ways the church can accompany migrants, and how the faithful can be a source of hope and healing in the world, Mercado said. Photo Credit: Dominican University

Juntos por los Árboles Invita a la Comunidad a un día de Naturaleza, Aprendizaje y Servicio

Las Reservas Forestales del Condado de Cook invitan a los residentes a Juntos por los Árboles, un evento comunitario que celebra y cuida los árboles de la región. El evento se llevará a cabo el sábado 25 de octubre, de 10:00 a. m. a 1:00 p. m., en Whistler Woods, ubicado en la avenida Forest View, al este de la avenida South Halsted en Riverdale. Los asistentes podrán disfrutar de diversas actividades gratuitas diseñadas para conectar a las personas con la naturaleza, como la aplicación de mantillo en el área de picnic, una caminata guiada por los árboles, una demostración de poda, la construcción de cercas para proteger robles jóvenes y mucho más. Los visitantes pueden visitarnos en cualquier momento o quedarse durante todo el evento. Durante la mañana, los participantes podrán visitar una feria informativa con colaboradores locales que compartirán ideas sobre trayectorias profesionales en el cuidado y la conservación de los árboles, oportunidades de voluntariado y maneras de explorar la naturaleza. Las Reservas Forestales se han asociado con Amigos del Río Chicago, Amigos de las Reservas Forestales, Openlands, Imani Green Health Advocates, la Iniciativa de Árboles de la Región de Chicago del Arbolito Morton y Major Taylor Trail Keepers para organizar este evento. Para más información, visite www.fpdcc.com. Crédito de la foto: Reservas Forestales del Condado de Cook

Accredited Chicago Newspapers, Inc., da la Bienvenida a un Nuevo Propietario

Accredited Chicago Newspapers, una organización que trabaja con el condado de Cook, periódicos de la ciudad de Chicago y la Asociación de Prensa de Illinois, ha sido adquirida por su exvicepresidenta, Susan J. Walker. Walker es secretaria adjunta de Cook County Suburban Publishers, Inc. La organización fue adquirida el 9 de octubre del patrimonio de Bruce Sagan, quien falleció en septiembre a la edad de 96 años. Durante más de tres décadas, Walker y Sagan trabajaron juntos en Accredited Chicago Newspapers, continuando una organización que Sagan fundó en la década de 1960 con Joe Ferstl. Walker trabajó en el periódico propiedad de Sagan, el Hyde Park Herald, en muchos puestos, incluyendo editor y gerente general. "Durante más de 30 años, tuve el honor de trabajar codo a codo con Bruce Sagan", dijo Walker. Juntos, navegamos por los altibajos de esta industria en constante cambio. Como alguien que ha dedicado toda su vida al periodismo y la publicación, comparto la creencia de Bruce en el trabajo honesto, las conexiones locales y la importancia de hacer las cosas bien. Nuestra colaboración se basó en el respeto mutuo, una visión compartida y un profundo amor por el trabajo que realizamos en la industria periodística. Sagan fue un pionero en el negocio de las noticias y una leyenda en los círculos cívicos y periodísticos de Chicago. Como propietario y editor del Hyde Park Herald, que compró en 1953 a los 24 años, dio voz a un barrio del South Side que se enfrentaba al cambio racial, la discriminación en la vivienda y la renovación urbana. Publicó artículos reveladores sobre propietarios negligentes y decisiones controvertidas de planificación urbana, cobertura que ayudó a Hyde Park a calificar para uno de los primeros proyectos de renovación urbana financiados con fondos federales del país. También construyó uno de los grupos de periódicos comunitarios más grandes del país, el Economist Newspaper Group, que había crecido a casi 30 periódicos con 1000 empleados y una circulación que excedía los 400 000 ejemplares, y que más tarde jugó un papel central en la transformación de Chicago en un importante centro de danza y teatro. "Este momento no se trata de cambio; se trata de continuar lo que Bruce comenzó, como siempre lo hemos hecho", continuó. "Sé lo mucho que este negocio significó para él, y me comprometo a honrar su legado manteniéndolo fuerte, vibrante y arraigado en los mismos valores que él defendió. A nuestros leales socios: gracias por su continua confianza y apoyo. Estoy emocionada y honrada de continuar llevando la antorcha hacia adelante y prometo trabajar con el mismo corazón e integridad que Bruce siempre lo hizo".

Estudiantes de la Universidad Dominicana Reciben Cartas Entregadas Personalmente al Papa León XIV en Roma

Este mes, las cartas de estudiantes de la Universidad Dominicana llegaron a manos del Papa León

XIV, entregadas personalmente por el Director del

Ministerio Universitario, Andrew Mercado, durante

una visita única al Vaticano. Mercado, quien se enfoca en un ministerio con sensibilidad cultural y en la creación de espacios de apoyo e inclusión para que los estudiantes dominicanos participen en el discernimiento vocacional, formado parte del grupo invitado a Roma por el Consejo Nacional Católico para el Ministerio Hispano. El grupo de 100 participantes de todo Estados Unidos participó en el Jubileo de los Migrantes, un evento dedicado a celebrar y apoyar a los migrantes de todo el mundo. La visita de siete días culminó el 7 de octubre con una audiencia privada con el Papa León XIV, nacido en Chicago. Mercado presentó al líder de la Iglesia Católica Romana testimonios escritos a máquina de unos 15 estudiantes, cada uno compartiendo sus experiencias y preocupaciones personales en torno a las políticas migratorias actuales. Una carta que comu-nicaba la larga trayectoria de la Universidad Dominicana al servicio y apoyo de los inmigrantes y sus hijos, y el trabajo que se lleva a cabo actualmente, acompañó los relatos de los estudiantes. Mercado describió al Santo Padre como una persona accesible y atenta con cada uno de los peregrinos que se reunió brevemente con él. Durante su audiencia con el Papa León, el contingente del Consejo Nacional Católico para el Ministerio Hispano escuchó al pontífice dirigirse a ellos en español mientras compartía un mensaje sobre la importancia de la participación latina en la Iglesia católica en Estados Unidos, las maneras en que la Iglesia puede acompañar a los migrantes y cómo los fieles pueden ser una fuente de esperanza y sanación en el mundo, dijo Mercado.
