Funcionarios Electos Reaccionan a la Decisión de la Corte Suprema Sobre la Ciudadanía por Nacimiento

Por Ashmar Mandou

El martes, la Corte Suprema anuló la orden ejecutiva del presidente Donald Trump para poner fin a la ciudadanía por derecho de nacimiento, al declarar que los hijos de personas que se encuentran en Estados Unidos de manera ilegal o temporal no son ciudadanos estadounidenses. Varios funcionarios electos emitieron declaraciones tras el fallo.

Hoy, la Corte Suprema se puso del lado de la Constitución. Desde que la Catorceava Enmienda fuera ratificada en 1868, la Constitución ha dejado poco a la imaginación: Todas las personas nacidas

o naturalizadas en Estados Unidos son Ciudadanos Estadounidenses. El fallo de hoy reafirma los valores fundamentales de Estados Unidos y protege los derechos y las libertades de quienes lo llaman hogar". Gobernador de Illinois JB Pritzker

"Este fallo reafirma lo que la Constitución por mucho tiempo ha garantizado. Los niños nacidos en suelo estadounidense son ciudadanos de E.U. sin importar el estado de inmigración de los padres. El intento de la administración Trump de poner condiciones a la ciudadanía por nacimiento, un derecho constitucional

Elected Officials Respond to Supreme Court's Decision on Birthright Citizenship

By: Ashmar Mandou

The Supreme Court on Tuesday struck down President Donald Trump's executive order to end birthright citizenship, declaring that children born to people who are in the United States illegally or temporarily are not American citizens. Several elected officials released statements upon the ruling. "Today the Supreme Court sided with the Constitution. Since the Fourteenth Amendment was ratified in 1868, the Constitution has left little to the imagination: all persons born or naturalized in the United States are United States citizens. Today's ruling reaffirms the foundational values of America and protects the rights and freedoms of those who call it home." —Illinois Governor JB Pritzker

"This ruling cements what the Constitution has long guaranteed. Children born on American soil are U.S. citizens, regardless of their parents' immigration status. The Trump administration's attempt to place conditions on birthright citizenship, a constitutional right that has characterized our nation for over a century, is a gross misuse of power." —State Senator Karina Villa

"The Fourteenth Amendment has been clear – since its inception 158 years ago – that everyone born in the United States is deserving of equal protection under the law. Yet, hoping to fulfill a xenophobic and discriminatory campaign promise, President Trump sought to overturn a century and a half of legal precedent. Today's ruling affirms a simple truth: anyone can come to America and become an American. No president, court or legislature can or should attempt to take that away from us." —State Representative Elizabeth "Lisa" Hernandez

"Today, the Supreme Court affirmed what we know in our hearts and in our communities: the 14th Amendment extends the promise of citizenship to everyone born in the U.S. Immigrants belong. And no one can deny that immigrants today are also the inheritors of the promise of America – just like so many of my colleagues' ancestors were." —Congresswoman Delia C. Ramirez

"Today, the Supreme Court ruled that a president cannot terminate a constitutional right by executive order. The Constitution clearly states that babies born in the United States are citizens. Birthright citizenship is fundamental to who we are as a nation and it's a right that we will keep defending for future generations of U.S.-born babies."

—Congressman Jesús "Chuy" García

ComEd Urges Customers to Conserve Energy

ComEd is responding to an isolated incident impacting customers in the western suburbs of Berwyn, Cicero, North Riverside, Riverside, Stickney, Forest Park, Maywood, Oak Park and parts of Chicago including Little Village, North Lawndale, Douglas Park, Garfield Park and Austin. At this point, no customers have lost service. However, demand on the local grid has reached a critical level, and ComEd is calling on customers to immediately reduce energy usage to help prevent outages in the hours ahead. ComEd is asking all customers to reduce electricity use right away — especially between noon and 8 p.m., when demand is highest and the grid is under the greatest strain. Recommended actions include:

- Raise the thermostat as high as is comfortably safe — every degree helps reduce strain on the system.
- Turn off unnecessary lights, chargers and electronic devices.
- Delay running energy-intensive appliances such as dishwashers, washing machines and dryers until later in the evening.
- Delay EV charging on home chargers, especially during daylight hours.
- Use ceiling or box fans to stay comfortable while reducing air conditioning demand.
- Close blinds, shades and curtains to block heat and keep homes cooler.
- Avoid nonessential electricity use during peak hours whenever possible.

Federal Judge Sentences Man to Eight Years in Prison for Robbing U.S. Postal Service Carrier

A federal judge has sentenced a man to eight years in prison for robbing a U.S. Postal Service carrier in Chicago. The robbery occurred on March 18, 2022, in the 700 block of South Claremont Avenue in Chicago. The carrier was delivering mail when HENRY L. MOORER approached on foot and demanded postal property from the carrier. Moorer then pulled a semiautomatic handgun from the pocket of his sweatshirt and displayed the butt of the firearm. The carrier raised his arms in the air as Moorer grabbed the postal property from the carrier and walked away. Moorer then fled the area in his vehicle.

At the time of the robbery, Moorer was on electronic monitoring for an unrelated criminal case in the Circuit Cook of Cook County. He was arrested in March 2024 and has remained detained in law enforcement custody since then. Moorer, 33, of Chicago, pleaded guilty in October 2025 to a federal robbery charge. On June 18, 2026, U.S. District Judge John J. Tharp, Jr. sentenced Moorer to eight years in federal prison, to be served concurrently with a criminal sentence Moorer is serving for an unrelated state court conviction. The sentence was announced by Andrew S. Boutros, United States Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois, and Nicholas Bucciarelli, Inspector-in-Charge of the Chicago Division of the U.S. Postal Inspection Service.

Juez Federal Condena a un Hombre a Ocho Años de Prisión por Robar a un Cartero del Servicio Postal de EE. UU.

Un juez federal ha condenado a un hombre a ocho años de prisión por robar a un cartero del Servicio Postal de EE. UU. en Chicago. El robo ocurrió el 18 de marzo de 2022, en la cuadra 700 de South Claremont Avenue en Chicago. El cartero estaba repartiendo correo cuando Henry L. Moorer se le acercó a pie y le exigió correspondencia. Moorer sacó entonces una pistola semiautomática del bolsillo de su sudadera y mostró la culata del arma. El cartero levantó los brazos mientras Moorer le arrebatava la correspondencia y se marchaba. Posteriormente, Moorer huyó del lugar en su vehículo.

En el momento del robo, Moorer estaba bajo vigilancia electrónica por un caso penal no relacionado en el Circuito Cook del Condado de Cook. Fue arrestado en marzo de 2024 y ha permanecido bajo custodia policial desde entonces. Moorer, de 33 años y residente de Chicago, se declaró culpable en octubre de 2025 de un cargo federal de robo. El 18 de junio de 2026, el juez federal de distrito John J. Tharp, Jr. sentenció a Moorer a ocho años de prisión federal, que deberá cumplir simultáneamente con una condena penal que ya está cumpliendo por un delito estatal no relacionado. La sentencia fue anunciada por Andrew S. Boutros, fiscal federal del Distrito Norte de Illinois, y Nicholas Bucciarelli, inspector jefe de la División de Chicago del Servicio de Inspección Postal de los Estados Unidos.

“La Catorceava Enmienda ha sido clara – desde su inicio, hace 158 años – de que toda persona nacida en Estados Unidos merece igual protección bajo la ley. Sin embargo, esperando cumplir una promesa de campaña, xenofóbica y discriminatoria, el presidente Trump buscó revocar un siglo y medio de precedentes legales. El fallo de hoy afirma una simple verdad: cualquiera puede venir a Estados Unidos y convertirse en estadounidense. Ningún residente, corte o legislatura puede o debería intentar quitarnos ese derecho”. Representante Estatal Elizabeth “Lisa” Hernández

“Hoy, la Corte Suprema afirmó lo que sabemos en nuestros corazones y en nuestras

Y nadie puede negar que los inmigrantes hoy son también herederos de la promesa de Estados Unidos – igual que muchos de los ancestros de mis colegas lo fueron”. – Congresista Delia C. Ramírez
